- (2) If the court has entered a civil judgment on the civil judgment docket under Section 77-18-114, the civil judgment is enforceable under the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.
- (3)
  - (a) Notwithstanding Sections 77-18-114, 78B-2-311, and 78B-5-202, a civil judgment shall expire only upon payment in full, including any applicable interest, collection fees, attorney fees, and liens that directly result from the civil judgment.
  - (b) Interest on a civil judgment may only accrue from the day on which the civil judgment is entered on the civil judgment docket by the court.
  - (c) This Subsection (3) applies to all civil judgments that are not paid in full on or before May 12, 2009.
- (4) A civil judgment is considered entered on the civil judgment docket when the civil judgment appears on the civil judgment docket with:
  - (a) an amount owed by the defendant;
  - (b) the name of the defendant as the judgment debtor; and
  - (c) the name of the judgment creditors described in Subsections 77-18-114(1)(b)(iii) and (2)(b).

- (6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law:
  - (a) a civil judgment is an obligation that arises out of a defendant's criminal case;
  - (b) a civil judgment is criminal in nature;
  - (c) the civil enforcement of a civil judgment shall be construed as a continuation of the criminal action for which the civil judgment arises; and
  - (d) the civil enforcement of a civil judgment does not divest a defendant of an obligation imposed as part of the defendant's punishment in a criminal action.

- (1) As used in this section:

- (a) "Civil settlement" or "settlement" means an agreement entered into between a victim and a defendant that settles all the claims that a victim may bring in a civil action against the defendant for the defendant's criminal conduct.
  - (b) "Civil settlement" or "settlement" does not include an agreement that settles a civil judgment of restitution or a civil accounts receivable for a defendant.
- (2) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit or impair the right of a victim to sue and recover damages from the defendant in a civil action.
- (3)
- (a) A court's finding on the amount of restitution owed by a defendant under Subsection 77-38b-205(1)(d) may be used in a civil action pertaining to the defendant's liability to a victim as presumptive proof of the victim's pecuniary damages that are proximately caused by the defendant's criminal conduct.
  - (b) If a conviction in a criminal trial decides the issue of a defendant's liability for pecuniary damages suffered by a victim, the issue of the defendant's liability for pecuniary damages is conclusively determined as to the defendant if the issue is involved in a subsequent civil action.
  - (c)
    - (i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c)(ii), if a defendant is convicted of a misdemeanor or felony offense, the defendant is precluded from subsequently denying the essential allegations of the offense in a subsequent civil action brought against the defendant for the criminal conduct underlying the offense.
    - (ii) Subsection (3)(c)(i) does not apply if the offense is a class C misdemeanor under Title 41, Chapter 6a, Traffic Code, or the defendant entered a plea of no contest for the offense.
- (4) If a civil action brought by a victim against a defendant results in a civil judgment for the defendant's criminal conduct or there is a civil settlement entered into between a victim and defendant for the defendant's criminal conduct, the civil judgment or settlement does not limit or preclude:
- (a) the sentencing court from entering an order of restitution against the defendant in accordance with this chapter; or
  - (b) the civil enforcement of a civil judgment of restitution by the office or the victim.
- (5)
- (a) The sentencing court shall credit any payment made to a victim in a civil action for the defendant's criminal conduct toward the amount of restitution owed by the defendant to the victim.
  - (b) In a civil action, a court shall credit any restitution paid by the defendant to a victim for the defendant's criminal conduct towards the victim against any judgment that is in favor of the victim for the civil action.
  - (c) If a victim receives payment from the defendant for the civil action, the victim shall provide notice to the sentencing court and the court in the civil action of the payment within 30 days after the day on which the victim receives the payment.
- (a) If a victim prevails in a civil action against a defendant, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees and costs to the victim.
  - (b) If the defendant prevails in the civil action, the court shall award reasonable costs to the defendant if the court finds that the victim brought the civil action for an improper purpose, including to harass the defendant or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.
- (7)

- (a) The sentencing court shall credit any payment made to a victim as part of a civil settlement toward the amount of restitution owed by the defendant to the victim if the sentencing court determines that the payment compensates the victim for pecuniary damages proximately caused by the defendant's criminal conduct.
  - (b) If a victim receives a payment from the defendant as part of a civil settlement, the victim shall provide notice to the sentencing court within 30 days after the day on which the victim receives the payment.
- (8) Nothing in this section shall prevent a defendant from providing proof of payment to the court or the office.

Amended by Chapter 113, 2023 General Session

77-38b-304 Priority of payment disbursement.

  - (b) if the defendant has tendered a negotiable instrument, funds from the financial institution are actually received;
  - (c) the payment to the victim is at least $25, unless the payment is the final payment; and
  - (d) there is no pending legal issue that would affect an order for restitution or the distribution of restitution.
- (2) The court shall disburse money collected from a defendant for a criminal accounts receivable in the following order of priority:
- (a) first, and except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), to restitution owed by the defendant in accordance with Subsection (4);

  - (g) seventh, to any other amount owed by the defendant.
- (4)

- (a) If a defendant owes restitution to more than one person or government agency at the same time, the court, or the office, shall disburse a payment for restitution in the following order of priority:
  - (i) first, to the victim of the offense;
  - (ii) second, to the Utah Office for Victims of Crime;
  - (iii) third, any other government agency that has provided reimbursement to the victim as a result of the defendant's criminal conduct; and
  - (iv) fourth, any insurance company that has provided reimbursement to the victim as a result of the defendant's criminal conduct.
- (b) If a defendant is required under Section 53-10-404 to reimburse the department for the cost of obtaining the defendant's DNA specimen, the reimbursement for the cost of obtaining the defendant's DNA specimen is the next priority after restitution to the victim of the offense under Subsection (4)(a)(i).
- (c) If a defendant is required to pay restitution to more than one victim, the court or the office shall disburse a payment for restitution proportionally to each victim.
- (5) Notwithstanding the requirements for the disbursement of a payment under Subsection (3) or (4), the office shall disburse money collected from a defendant to a debt that is a part of a civil accounts receivable or civil judgment of restitution if:
  - (a) a defendant has provided a written request to the office to apply the payment to the debt; and
  - (b)
    - (i) the payment will eliminate the entire balance of the debt, including any interest; or
    - (ii) after reaching a settlement, the payment amount will eliminate the entire agreed upon balance of the debt, including any interest.
- (6) For a criminal accounts receivable, the department shall collect the current and past due amount owed by a defendant for the monthly supervision fee under Subsection 64-13-21(6)
  - (a) until the court enters a civil accounts receivable on the civil judgment docket under Section 77-18-114.
- (7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section:
  - (a) the office may collect a fee, as described in Subsection 63A-3-502(4), from each payment for a criminal accounts receivable, a civil accounts receivable, or a civil judgment of restitution before disbursing the payment as described in this section; and

77-38b-402 Preservation of assets.

- (1)
  - (a) Before, or at the time, a criminal information, indictment charging a violation, or a petition alleging delinquency is filed, or at any time during the prosecution of the case, a prosecuting attorney may, if in the prosecuting attorney's best judgment there is a substantial likelihood that a conviction will be obtained and restitution will be ordered in the case, petition the court to:
    - (i) enter a temporary restraining order, an injunction, or both;
    - (ii) require the execution of a satisfactory performance bond; or
    - (iii) take any other action to preserve the availability of property that may be necessary to satisfy an anticipated order for restitution.
  - (b) A prosecuting attorney may subpoena a document, witness, or other evidence that, in the prosecuting attorney's best judgment, may provide evidence relevant to the property described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii).
  - (a) Upon receiving a request from a prosecuting attorney under Subsection (1)(a), and after notice to a person appearing to have an interest in the property and affording the person an opportunity to be heard, the court may take action as requested by the prosecuting attorney if the court determines:
    - (i) there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant committed the offense, and that failure to enter the order will likely result in the property being sold, distributed, exhibited, destroyed, or removed from the jurisdiction of the court, or otherwise be made unavailable for restitution; and
    - (ii) the need to preserve the availability of the property or prevent the property's sale, distribution, exhibition, destruction, or removal through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship on any party against whom the order is to be entered.
  - (b) In a hearing conducted in accordance with this section, a court may consider reliable hearsay as defined in Utah Rules of Evidence, Rule 1102.
  - (c) An order for an injunction entered under this section is effective for the period of time given in the order.
- (3)
  - (a) Upon receiving a request for a temporary restraining order from a prosecuting attorney under this section, a court may enter a temporary restraining order against an owner with respect to specific property without notice or opportunity for a hearing if:
    - (i) the prosecuting attorney demonstrates that there is a substantial likelihood that the property with respect to which the order is sought appears to be necessary to satisfy an anticipated restitution order under this chapter; and
    - (ii) provision of notice would jeopardize the availability of the property to satisfy any judgment or order for restitution.
  - (b) The temporary order in this Subsection (3) expires no later than 10 days after the day on which the temporary order is entered unless extended for good cause shown or the party against whom the temporary order is entered consents to an extension.
- (4) A hearing concerning an order entered under this section shall be held as soon as possible, and before the expiration of the temporary order.
