

78A-2-221 Justices and judges -- Limitations during terms.

A justice or judge of any court of record may not, during his term of office:

- (1) practice law or have a partner engaged in the practice of law;
- (2) hold office in or make any contribution to any political party or organization engaged in political activity; or
- (3) use, in his efforts to obtain or retain judicial office, any political party designation, reference, or description.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session