

78A-5-103 District court case management.

- (1) The district court of each district shall develop systems of case management.
- (2) The case management systems developed by a district court shall:
  - (a) ensure judicial accountability for the just and timely disposition of cases; and
  - (b) provide for each judge a full judicial work load that accommodates differences in the subject matter or complexity of cases assigned to different judges.
- (3) A district court may establish divisions within the court for the efficient management of different types of cases. The existence of divisions within the court may not:
  - (a) affect the jurisdiction of the court nor the validity of court orders; or
  - (b) impede public access to the courts.
