 - (b) the financial verification required by Subsection 78B-12-203(5);
 - (c) a written statement indicating whether or not the amount of child support requested is consistent with the guidelines; and
 - (d) the information required under Subsection (3).
- (2)
 - (a) If the documentation of income required under Subsection (1) is not available, a verified representation of the other party's income by the moving party, based on the best evidence available, may be submitted.
 - (b) The evidence shall be in affidavit form and may only be offered after a copy has been provided to the other party in accordance with Utah Rules of Civil Procedure or Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act, in an administrative proceeding.
- (3) Upon the entry of an order in a proceeding to establish paternity or to establish, modify, or enforce a support order, each party shall file identifying information and shall update that information as changes occur with the court that conducted the proceeding.
 - (a) The required identifying information shall include the person's social security number, driver's license number, residential and mailing addresses, telephone numbers, the name, address and telephone number of employers, and any other data required by the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services.
 - (b) Attorneys representing the office in child support services cases are not required to file the identifying information required by Subsection (3)(a).

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-202 Determination of amount of support -- Rebuttable guidelines.

- (1)
 - (a) Prospective support shall be equal to the amount granted by prior court order unless there has been a substantial change of circumstance on the part of the obligor or obligee or adjustment under Subsection 78B-12-210(6) has been made.
 - (b) If the prior court order contains a stipulated provision for the automatic adjustment for prospective support, the prospective support shall be the amount as stated in the order, without a showing of a material change of circumstances, if the stipulated provision:
 - (i) is clear and unambiguous;
 - (ii) is self-executing;
 - (iii) provides for support which equals or exceeds the base child support award required by the guidelines; and
 - (iv) does not allow a decrease in support as a result of the obligor's voluntary reduction of income.
- (2) If no prior court order exists, a substantial change in circumstances has occurred, or a petition to modify an order under Subsection 78B-12-210(6) has been filed, the court determining the amount of prospective support shall require each party to file a proposed award of child support using the guidelines before an order awarding child support or modifying an existing award may be granted.

- (3) If the court finds sufficient evidence to rebut the guidelines, the court shall establish support after considering all relevant factors, including but not limited to:
 - (a) the standard of living and situation of the parties;
 - (b) the relative wealth and income of the parties;
 - (c) the ability of the obligor to earn;
 - (d) the ability of the obligee to earn;
 - (e) the ability of an incapacitated adult child to earn, or other benefits received by the adult child or on the adult child's behalf including Supplemental Security Income;
 - (f) the needs of the obligee, the obligor, and the child;
 - (g) the ages of the parties; and
 - (h) the responsibilities of the obligor and the obligee for the support of others.
- (4) When no prior court order exists, the court shall determine and assess all arrearages based upon the guidelines described in this chapter.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-203 Determination of gross income -- Imputed income.

- (1) As used in the guidelines, "gross income" includes prospective income from any source, including earned and nonearned income sources which may include salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, rents, gifts from anyone, prizes, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, alimony from previous marriages, annuities, capital gains, Social Security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment compensation, income replacement disability insurance benefits, and payments from "nonmeans-tested" government programs.
- (2) Income from earned income sources is limited to the equivalent of one full-time 40-hour job. If and only if during the time before the original support order, the parent normally and consistently worked more than 40 hours at the parent's job, the court may consider this extra time as a pattern in calculating the parent's ability to provide child support.
- (3) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), specifically excluded from gross income are:
 - (a) cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Family Employment Program;
 - (b) benefits received under a housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act, Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, SNAP benefits, or General Assistance; and
 - (c) other similar means-tested welfare benefits received by a parent.
- (4)
 - (a) Gross income from self-employment or operation of a business shall be calculated by subtracting necessary expenses required for self-employment or business operation from gross receipts. The income and expenses from self-employment or operation of a business shall be reviewed to determine an appropriate level of gross income available to the parent to satisfy a child support award. Only those expenses necessary to allow the business to operate at a reasonable level may be deducted from gross receipts.
 - (b) Gross income determined under this Subsection (4) may differ from the amount of business income determined for tax purposes.
- (5)
 - (a) When possible, gross income should first be computed on an annual basis and then recalculated to determine the average gross monthly income.
 - (b) Each parent shall provide verification of current income. Each parent shall provide year-to-date pay stubs or employer statements and complete copies of tax returns from at least the most recent year unless the court finds the verification is not reasonably available.

Verification of income from records maintained by the Department of Workforce Services may be substituted for pay stubs, employer statements, and income tax returns.

- (c) Historical and current earnings shall be used to determine whether an underemployment or overemployment situation exists.
- (6) Incarceration of at least six months may not be treated as voluntary unemployment by the office in establishing or modifying a support order.
- (7) Gross income includes income imputed to the parent under Subsection (8).
- (8)
 - (a) Income may not be imputed to a parent unless the parent stipulates to the amount imputed, the parent defaults, or, in contested cases, a hearing is held and the judge in a judicial proceeding or the presiding officer in an administrative proceeding enters findings of fact as to the evidentiary basis for the imputation.
 - (b) If income is imputed to a parent, the income shall be based upon employment potential and probable earnings considering, to the extent known:
 - (i) employment opportunities;
 - (ii) work history;
 - (iii) occupation qualifications;
 - (iv) educational attainment;
 - (v) literacy;
 - (vi) age;
 - (vii) health;
 - (viii) criminal record;
 - (ix) other employment barriers and background factors; and
 - (x) prevailing earnings and job availability for persons of similar backgrounds in the community.
 - (c) If a parent has no recent work history or a parent's occupation is unknown, that parent may be imputed an income at the federal minimum wage for a 40-hour work week. To impute a greater or lesser income, the judge in a judicial proceeding or the presiding officer in an administrative proceeding shall enter specific findings of fact as to the evidentiary basis for the imputation.
 - (d) Income may not be imputed if any of the following conditions exist and the condition is not of a temporary nature:
 - (i) the reasonable costs of child care for the parents' minor children approach or equal the amount of income the custodial parent can earn;
 - (ii) a parent is physically or mentally unable to earn minimum wage;
 - (iii) a parent is engaged in career or occupational training to establish basic job skills; or
 - (iv) unusual emotional or physical needs of a child require the custodial parent's presence in the home.
- (9)
 - (a) Gross income may not include the earnings of a minor child who is the subject of a child support award nor benefits to a minor child in the child's own right such as Supplemental Security Income.
 - (b) Social security benefits received by a child due to the earnings of a parent shall be credited as child support to the parent upon whose earning record it is based, by crediting the amount against the potential obligation of that parent. Other unearned income of a child may be considered as income to a parent depending upon the circumstances of each case.

Amended by Chapter 368, 2017 General Session

78B-12-204 Adjusted gross income.

- (1) As used in this chapter, "adjusted gross income" is the amount calculated by subtracting from gross income alimony previously ordered and paid and child support previously ordered.
- (2) The guidelines do not reduce the total child support award by adjusting the gross incomes of the parents for alimony ordered in the pending proceeding. In establishing alimony, the court shall consider that in determining the child support, the guidelines do not provide a deduction from gross income for alimony.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-205 Calculation of obligations.

- (1) Each parent's child support obligation shall be established in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes, unless the low income table is applicable. Except during periods of court-ordered parent-time as set forth in Section 78B-12-216, the parents are obligated to pay their proportionate shares of the base combined child support obligation. If physical custody of the child changes from that assumed in the original order, modification of the order is not necessary, even if only one parent is specifically ordered to pay in the order.
- (2) Except in cases of joint physical custody and split custody as defined in Section 78B-12-102 and in cases where the obligor's adjusted gross income is $1,050 or less monthly, the base child support award shall be determined as follows:
 - (a) combine the adjusted gross incomes of the parents and determine the base combined child support obligation using the base combined child support obligation table; and
 - (b) calculate each parent's proportionate share of the base combined child support obligation by multiplying the combined child support obligation by each parent's percentage of combined adjusted gross income.
- (3) In the case of an incapacitated adult child, any amount that the incapacitated adult child can contribute to the incapacitated adult child's support may be considered in the determination of child support and may be used to justify a reduction in the amount of support ordered, except that in the case of orders involving multiple children, the reduction shall not be greater than the effect of reducing the total number of children by one in the child support table calculation.
- (4) In cases where the monthly adjusted gross income of either parent is between $650 and $1,050, the base child support award shall be the lesser of the amount calculated in accordance with Subsection (2) and the amount calculated using the low income table. If the income and number of children is found in an area of the low income table in which no amount is shown, the base combined child support obligation table is to be used.
- (5) The base combined child support obligation table provides combined child support obligations for up to six children. For more than six children, additional amounts may be added to the base child support obligation shown. Unless rebutted by Subsection 78B-12-210(3), the amount ordered may not be less than the amount which would be ordered for up to six children.
- (6) If the monthly adjusted gross income of either parent is $649 or less, the tribunal shall determine the amount of the child support obligation on a case-by-case basis, but the base child support award may not be less than $30.
- (7) The amount shown on the table is the support amount for the total number of children, not an amount per child.
- (8) For all worksheets, income and support award figures shall be rounded to the nearest dollar.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-206 Income in excess of tables.

If the combined adjusted gross income exceeds the highest level specified in the table, an appropriate and just child support amount shall be ordered on a case-by-case basis, but the amount ordered may not be less than the highest level specified in the table for the number of children due support.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-207 Obligation -- Adjusted gross income used.

Adjusted gross income shall be used in calculating each parent's share of the base combined child support obligation. Only income of the natural or adoptive parents of the child may be used to determine the award under these guidelines.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-208 Joint physical custody -- Obligation calculations.

In cases of joint physical custody, the base child support award shall be determined as follows:

- (1) Combine the adjusted gross incomes of the parents and determine the base combined child support obligation using the base combined child support obligation table.
- (2) Calculate each parent's proportionate share of the base combined child support obligation by multiplying the base combined child support obligation by each parent's percentage of combined adjusted gross income. The amounts so calculated are the base child support obligation due from each parent for support of the children.
- (3) Subject to Subsection 30-3-35.2(2)(e)(ii), if the obligor's time with the children exceeds 110 overnights, the obligation shall be calculated further as follows:
 - (a) if the amount of time to be spent with the children is between 110 and 131 overnights, multiply the number of overnights over 110 by .0027, then multiply the result by the base combined child support obligation, and then subtract the result from the obligor's payment as determined by Subsection (2) to arrive at the obligor's payment; or
 - (b) if the amount of time to be spent with the children is 131 overnights or more, multiply the number of overnights over 130 by .0084, then multiply the result by the base combined child support obligation, and then subtract the result from the obligor's payment as determined in Subsection (3)(a) to arrive at the obligor's payment.

Amended by Chapter 399, 2021 General Session

78B-12-209 Split custody -- Obligation calculations.

In cases of split custody, the base child support award shall be determined as follows:

- (1) Combine the adjusted gross incomes of the parents and determine the base combined child support obligation using the base combined child support obligation table. Allocate a portion of the calculated amount between the parents in proportion to the number of children for whom each parent has physical custody. The amounts so calculated are a tentative base child support obligation due each parent from the other parent for support of the child or children for whom each parent has physical custody.
- (2) Multiply the tentative base child support obligation due each parent by the percentage that the other parent's adjusted gross income bears to the total combined adjusted gross income of both parents.

- (3) Subtract the lesser amount in Subsection (2) from the larger amount to determine the base child support award to be paid by the parent with the greater financial obligation.

78B-12-210 Application of guidelines -- Use of ordered child support.

- (1) The guidelines in this chapter apply to any judicial or administrative order establishing or modifying an award of child support entered on or after July 1, 1989.
 - (a) The guidelines shall be applied as a rebuttable presumption in establishing or modifying the amount of temporary or permanent child support.
 - (b) The rebuttable presumption means the provisions and considerations required by the guidelines, the award amounts resulting from the application of the guidelines, and the use of worksheets consistent with these guidelines are presumed to be correct, unless rebutted under the provisions of this section.
- (3) A written finding or specific finding on the record supporting the conclusion that complying with a provision of the guidelines or ordering an award amount resulting from use of the guidelines would be unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of a child in a particular case is sufficient to rebut the presumption in that case. If an order rebuts the presumption through findings, it is considered a deviated order.
- (4) The following shall be considered deviations from the guidelines, if:
 - (a) the order includes a written finding that it is a deviation from the guidelines;
 - (b) the guidelines worksheet has:
 - (i) the box checked for a deviation; and
 - (ii) an explanation as to the reason; or
 - (c) the deviation is made because there were more children than provided for in the guidelines table.
- (5) If the amount in the order and the amount on the guidelines worksheet differ by $10 or more:
 - (a) the order is considered deviated; and
 - (b) the incomes listed on the worksheet may not be used in adjusting support for emancipation.
- (6)
 - (a) Natural or adoptive children of either parent who live in the home of that parent and are not children in common to both parties may at the option of either party be taken into account under the guidelines in setting a child support award, as provided in Subsection (7).
 - (b) Additional worksheets shall be prepared that compute the base child support award of the respective parents for the additional children. The base child support award shall then be subtracted from the appropriate parent's income before determining the award in the instant case.
- (7) In a proceeding to adjust or modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children born after entry of the order and who are not in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the award but may not be applied:
 - (a) for the benefit of the obligee if the credit would increase the support obligation of the obligor from the most recent order; or
 - (b) for the benefit of the obligor if the amount of support received by the obligee would be decreased from the most recent order.
- (8)

- (a) If a child support order has not been issued or modified within the previous three years, a parent, legal guardian, or the office may move the court to adjust the amount of a child support order.
 - (b) Upon receiving a motion under Subsection (8)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child:
 - (i) determine whether there is a difference between the payor's ordered support amount and the payor's support amount that would be required under the guidelines; and
 - (ii) if there is a difference as described in Subsection (8)(b)(i), adjust the payor's ordered support amount to the payor's support amount provided in the guidelines if:
 - (A) the difference is 10% or more;
 - (B) the difference is not of a temporary nature; and
 - (C) the order adjusting the payor's ordered support amount does not deviate from the guidelines.
 - (c) A showing of a substantial change in circumstances is not necessary for an adjustment under this Subsection (8).
- (9)
- (a) A parent, legal guardian, or the office may at any time petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances. A change in the base combined child support obligation table set forth in Section 78B-12-301 is not a substantial change in circumstances for the purposes of this Subsection (9).
 - (b) For purposes of this Subsection (9), a substantial change in circumstances may include:
 - (i) material changes in custody;
 - (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties;
 - (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent;
 - (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
 - (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or
 - (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.
 - (c) Upon receiving a petition under Subsection (9)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child:
 - (i) determine whether a substantial change has occurred;
 - (ii) if a substantial change has occurred, determine whether the change results in a difference of 15% or more between the payor's ordered support amount and the payor's support amount that would be required under the guidelines; and
 - (iii) adjust the payor's ordered support amount to that which is provided for in the guidelines if:
 - (A) there is a difference of 15% or more; and
 - (B) the difference is not of a temporary nature.
- (10) Notice of the opportunity to adjust a support order under Subsections (8) and (9) shall be included in each child support order.

Amended by Chapter 19, 2012 General Session

78B-12-211 Limitation on amount of support ordered.

- (1) There is no maximum limit on the base child support award that may be ordered using the base combined child support obligation table, using the low income table, or awarding medical expenses except under Subsection (2).
- (2) If amounts under either table as provided in Part 3, Tables, in combination with the award of medical expenses exceeds 50% of the obligor's adjusted gross income, or by adding the child care costs, total child support would exceed 50% of the obligor's adjusted gross income, the presumption under Section 78B-12-215 is rebutted.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-212 Medical expenses.

- (1) A child support order issued or modified in this state on or after July 1, 2018, shall require compliance with this section as of the effective date of the child support order unless the court makes specific findings as to good cause to deviate from the requirements of this section.
- (2)
 - (a) The court shall order that health care coverage for the medical expenses of a minor child be provided by a parent.
 - (b) The court shall order that a parent provide insurance for the medical expenses of a minor child if insurance is available to that parent at a reasonable cost.
 - (c) The court shall, in accordance with Section 30-3-5, designate which health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is primary and which health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is secondary if at any time a dependent child is covered by both parents' health, hospital, or dental insurance plans.
- (3) In determining which parent shall be ordered to maintain insurance for medical expenses, the court or administrative agency may consider the:
 - (a) reasonableness of the cost;
 - (b) availability of a group insurance policy;
 - (c) coverage of the policy; and
 - (d) preference of the custodial parent.
- (4) The order shall require each parent to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance unless the court finds good cause to order otherwise.
- (5) The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. If the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.
- (6) The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for a child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.
- (7) The order shall, in accordance with Subsection 30-3-5(2)(a), include a cash medical support provision that requires each parent to equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for a dependent child, including deductibles and copayments unless the court finds good cause to order otherwise.
- (8) The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and after initial enrollment on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

- (9) A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.
- (10) In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsections (8) and (9).

Amended by Chapter 337, 2020 General Session

78B-12-212.1 Pregnancy expenses.

If a person seeks payment under Section 78B-12-105.1 by providing documentation of payments, medical expenses, and insurance premiums, the district court shall, after review, order the payment of the expenses.

Enacted by Chapter 111, 2021 General Session

78B-12-213 Determination of parental liability.

- (1) The district court or administrative agency may issue an order determining the amount of a parent's liability for medical expenses of a dependent child when the parent:
 - (a) is required by a prior court or administrative order to:
 - (i) share those expenses with the other parent of the dependent child; or
 - (ii) obtain insurance for medical expenses but fails to do so; or
 - (b) receives direct payment from an insurer under insurance coverage obtained after the prior court or administrative order was issued.
- (2) If the prior court or administrative order does not specify what proportions of the expenses are to be shared, the district court may determine the amount of liability as may be reasonable and necessary.
- (3) This section applies to an order without regard to when it was issued.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-214 Child care expenses -- Expenses not incurred.

- (1) The child support order shall require that each parent share equally the reasonable work-related child care expenses of the parents.
- (2)
 - (a) If an actual expense for child care is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order.
 - (b)
 - (i) In the absence of a court order to the contrary, a parent who incurs child care expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.
 - (ii) In the absence of a court order to the contrary, the parent shall notify the other parent of any change of child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within 30 calendar days of the date of the change.

- (3) In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with Subsection (2)(b).

78B-12-215 Child care costs.

- (1) The need to include child care costs in the child support order is presumed, if the custodial parent or the noncustodial parent, during extended parent-time, is working and actually incurring the child care costs.
- (2) The need to include child care costs is not presumed, but may be awarded on a case-by-case basis, if the costs are related to the career or occupational training of the custodial parent, or if otherwise ordered by the court in the interest of justice.
- (3) The court may impute a monthly obligation for child care costs when it imputes income to a parent who is providing child care for the minor child of both parties so that the parties are not incurring child care costs for the child. Any monthly obligation imputed under this section shall be applied towards any actual child care costs incurred within the same month for the child.

Amended by Chapter 467, 2013 General Session

78B-12-216 Reduction for extended parent-time.

- (1) The base child support award shall be:
 - (a) reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time; or
 - (b) 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court, or by written agreement of the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time.
- (2) If the dependent child is a client of cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Family Employment Program, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the administrative agency.
- (3) Normal parent-time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered extended parent-time.
- (4) For cases receiving IV-D child support services in accordance with Title 62A, Chapter 11, Part 1, Office of Recovery Services, Part 3, Child Support Services Act, and Part 4, Income Withholding in IV-D Cases, to receive the adjustment the noncustodial parent shall provide written documentation of the extended parent-time schedule, including the beginning and ending dates, to the Office of Recovery Services in the form of either a court order or a voluntary written agreement between the parties.
- (5) If the noncustodial parent complies with Subsection (4), owes no past-due support, and pays the full, unadjusted amount of current child support due for the month of scheduled extended parent-time and the following month, the Office of Recovery Services shall refund the difference from the child support due to the custodial parent or the state, between the full amount of current child support received during the month of extended parent-time and the adjusted amount of current child support due:
 - (a) from current support received in the month following the month of scheduled extended parent-time; or

- (b) from current support received in the month following the month written documentation of the scheduled extended parent-time is provided to the office, whichever occurs later.
- (6) If the noncustodial parent complies with Subsection (4), owes past-due support, and pays the full, unadjusted amount of current child support due for the month of scheduled extended parent-time, the Office of Recovery Services shall apply the difference, from the child support due to the custodial parent or the state, between the full amount of current child support received during the month of extended parent-time and the adjusted amount of current child support due, to the past-due support obligation in the case.
- (7) For cases not receiving IV-D child support services in accordance with Title 62A, Chapter 11, Part 1, Office of Recovery Services, Part 3, Child Support Services Act, and Part 4, Income Withholding in IV-D Cases, any potential adjustment of the support payment during the month of extended visitation or any refund that may be due to the noncustodial parent from the custodial parent, shall be resolved between the parents or through the court without involvement by the Office of Recovery Services.
- (8) For purposes of this section the per child amount to which the abatement applies shall be calculated by dividing the base child support award by the number of children included in the award.
- (9) The reduction in this section does not apply to parents with joint physical custody obligations calculated in accordance with Section 78B-12-208.

78B-12-217 Award of tax exemption for dependent children.

- (1) No presumption exists as to which parent should be awarded the right to claim a child or children as exemptions for federal and state income tax purposes. Unless the parties otherwise stipulate in writing, the court or administrative agency shall award in any final order the exemption on a case-by-case basis.
- (2) In awarding the exemption, the court or administrative agency shall consider:
 - (a) as the primary factor, the relative contribution of each parent to the cost of raising the child; and
 - (b) among other factors, the relative tax benefit to each parent.
- (3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the court or administrative agency may not award any exemption to the noncustodial parent if that parent is not current in his child support obligation, in which case the court or administrative agency may award an exemption to the custodial parent.
- (4) An exemption may not be awarded to a parent unless the award will result in a tax benefit to that parent.

78B-12-218 Accountability of support provided to benefit child -- Accounting.

- (1) The court or administrative agency which issues the initial or modified order for child support may, upon the petition of the obligor, order prospectively the obligee to furnish an accounting of amounts provided for the child's benefit to the obligor, including an accounting or receipts.
- (2) The court or administrative agency may prescribe the frequency and the form of the accounting which shall include receipts and an accounting.
- (3) The obligor may petition for the accounting only if current on all child support that has been ordered.

78B-12-219 Adjustment when child becomes emancipated.

- (1) When a child becomes 18 years old or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base combined child support obligation for the remaining number of children due child support, shown in the table that was used to establish the most recent order, using the incomes of the parties as specified in that order or the worksheets, unless otherwise provided in the child support order.
- (2) The award may not be reduced by a per child amount derived from the base child support award originally ordered.
- (3) If the incomes of the parties are not specified in the most recent order or the worksheets, the information regarding the incomes is not consistent, or the order deviates from the guidelines, automatic adjustment of the order does not apply and the order will continue until modified by the issuing tribunal. If the order is deviated and the parties subsequently obtain a judicial order that adjusts the support back to the date of the emancipation of the child, the Office of Recovery Services may not be required to repay any difference in the support collected during the interim.
