- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (4) and subject to Subsection (3), each parent shall in a record provide the other parent with a plan for fulfilling that parent's share of custodial responsibility during deployment. Part 2

Agreement Addressing Custodial Responsibility During Deployment

78B-20-201 Form of agreement.

- (1) The parents of a child may enter into a temporary agreement under this part granting custodial responsibility during deployment. When the parents of a child include one or more servicemembers, the parents should enter into an agreement granting custodial responsibility before notice of deployment, but may also enter into an agreement granting custodial responsibility following notice of deployment.
- (2) An agreement under Subsection (1) shall be:
- (a) in writing; and
 - (b) signed by both parents and any nonparent to whom custodial responsibility is granted.
- (3) Subject to Subsection (4), an agreement under Subsection (1), if feasible, shall:
- (a) identify the destination, duration, and conditions of the deployment that is the basis for the agreement if the deployment has been noticed;
 - (b) specify the allocation of caretaking authority among the deploying parent, the other parent, and any nonparent;
 - (c) specify any decision-making authority that accompanies a grant of caretaking authority;
 - (d) specify any grant of limited contact to a nonparent;
 - (e) if under the agreement custodial responsibility is shared by the other parent and a nonparent, or by other nonparents, provide a process to resolve any dispute that may arise;
 - (f) specify the frequency, duration, and means, including electronic means, by which the deploying parent will have contact with the child, any role to be played by the other parent in facilitating the contact, and the allocation of any costs of contact;
 - (g) specify the contact between the deploying parent and child during the time the deploying parent is on leave or is otherwise available;

- (h) acknowledge that any party's child-support obligation cannot be modified by the agreement, and that changing the terms of the obligation during deployment requires modification in the appropriate court;
 - (i) provide that the agreement will terminate according to the procedures under Part 4, Return from Deployment, after the deploying parent returns from deployment; and
 - (j) if the agreement is required to be filed pursuant to Section 78B-20-205, specify which parent is required to file the agreement.
- (4) The omission of any of the items specified in Subsection (3) does not invalidate an agreement under this section.

Amended by Chapter 224, 2017 General Session

78B-20-202 Nature of authority created by agreement.

- (1) An agreement under this part is temporary and terminates pursuant to Part 4, Return from Deployment, after the deploying parent returns from deployment, unless the agreement has been terminated before that time by court order or modification under Section 78B-2-203. The agreement may not create an independent, continuing right to caretaking authority, decision-making authority, or limited contact in an individual to whom custodial responsibility is given.
- (2) A nonparent who has caretaking authority, decision-making authority, or limited contact by an agreement under this part has standing to enforce the agreement until it has been terminated by court order, by modification under Section 78B-20-203, or under Part 4, Return from Deployment.

A deploying parent, by power of attorney, may delegate all or part of custodial responsibility to an adult nonparent for the period of deployment if no other parent possesses custodial responsibility under the law of this state other than this chapter or if a court order currently in effect prohibits contact between the child and the other parent. The deploying parent may revoke the power of attorney by signing a revocation of the power.

The case number and heading of the pending case concerning custodial responsibility or child support shall be provided to the court with the agreement or power.
- (2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), failure to file an agreement or power of attorney does not invalidate an otherwise valid agreement or power of attorney.

78B-20-305 Effect of prior judicial order or agreement.

In a proceeding for a grant of custodial responsibility pursuant to this part, the following rules apply:

- (2) Unless a grant of caretaking authority to a nonparent under Subsection (1) is agreed to by the other parent, the grant is limited to an amount of time not greater than:
 - (a) the amount of time granted to the deploying parent under a permanent custody order, but the court may add unusual travel time necessary to transport the child; or
 - (b) in the absence of a permanent custody order that is currently in effect, the amount of time that the deploying parent habitually cared for the child before being notified of deployment, but the court may add unusual travel time necessary to transport the child.
- (3) A court may grant part of a deploying parent's decision-making authority, if the deploying parent is unable to exercise that authority, to a nonparent who is an adult family member of the child with whom the child has a close and substantial relationship. - (1) A grant of authority under this part is temporary and terminates under Part 4, Return from Deployment, after the return from deployment of the deploying parent, unless the grant has been terminated before that time by court order. The grant may not create an independent, continuing right to caretaking authority, decision-making authority, or limited contact in an individual to whom it is granted.

- (2) A nonparent granted caretaking authority, decision-making authority, or limited contact under this part has standing to enforce the grant until it is terminated by court order or under Part 4, Return from Deployment.

 - (b) if the agreement to terminate does not specify a date, on the date the agreement to terminate is signed by the deploying parent and the other parent.
- (3) In the absence of an agreement under Subsection (1) to terminate, a temporary agreement granting custodial responsibility terminates under Part 2, Agreement Addressing Custodial Responsibility During Deployment, 30 days after the deploying parent gives notice to the other parent that the deploying parent returned from deployment.
