81-13-202 Legislative findings -- Best interest of the minor child -- Interests of each party.

- (1) In every adoption of a minor child that, the best interest of the minor child should govern and be of foremost concern in a court's determination.
- (2) The court shall make a specific finding regarding the best interest of the minor child, taking into consideration information provided to the court pursuant to the requirements of this chapter relating to the health, safety, and welfare of the minor child and the moral climate of the potential adoptive placement.
- (3) The Legislature finds that the rights and interests of all parties affected by an adoption proceeding must be considered and balanced in determining what constitutional protections and processes are necessary and appropriate.
- (4)

- (a) The Legislature specifically finds that it is not in a minor child's best interest to be adopted by a person or persons who are cohabiting in a relationship that is not a legally valid and binding marriage under the laws of this state.
- (b) Nothing in this section limits or prohibits the court's placement of a minor child with a single adult who is not cohabiting or a person who is a relative of the minor child or a recognized placement under the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq.
- (5) The Legislature also finds that:
  - (a) the state has a compelling interest in providing a stable and permanent home for a child adoptee in a prompt manner, in preventing the disruption of an adoptive placement, and in holding parents accountable for meeting the needs of a child adoptee;
  - (b) an unmarried birth mother, faced with the responsibility of making crucial decisions about the future of a newborn child, is entitled to privacy, and has the right to make timely and appropriate decisions regarding her future and the future of the newborn child, and is entitled to assurance regarding the permanence of an adoptive placement;
  - (c) a child adoptee has a right to permanence and stability in an adoptive placement;
  - (d) adoptive parents have a constitutionally protected liberty and privacy interest in retaining custody of a child adoptee;
  - (e) an unmarried biological father has an inchoate interest that acquires constitutional protection only when the unmarried biological father demonstrates a timely and full commitment to the responsibilities of parenthood, both during pregnancy and upon the child adoptee's birth; and
  - (f) the state has a compelling interest in requiring an unmarried biological father to demonstrate commitment by providing appropriate medical care and financial support and by establishing legal parentage in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.
  - (a) In enacting this chapter, the Legislature has prescribed the conditions for determining whether an unmarried biological father's action is sufficiently prompt and substantial to require constitutional protection.
  - (b) If an unmarried biological father fails to grasp the opportunities to establish a relationship with the child adoptee that are available to the unmarried biological father, the unmarried biological father's parental interest may be lost entirely, or greatly diminished in constitutional significance by the unmarried biological father's failure to timely exercise the unmarried biological father's parental interest, or by the unmarried biological father's failure to strictly comply with the available legal steps to substantiate the parental interest.
  - (c)
    - (i) A certain degree of finality is necessary in order to facilitate the state's compelling interest.
    - (ii) The Legislature finds that the interests of the state, the birth mother, the child adoptee, and the adoptive parents described in this section outweigh the interest of an unmarried biological father who does not timely grasp the opportunity to establish and demonstrate a relationship with the child adoptee in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.
  - (d)
    - (i) The Legislature finds no practical way to remove all risk of fraud or misrepresentation in adoption proceedings, and has provided a method for absolute protection of an unmarried biological father's rights by compliance with the provisions of this chapter.
    - (ii) In balancing the rights and interests of the state, and of all parties affected by fraud, specifically the child adoptee, the adoptive parents, and the unmarried biological father, the Legislature has determined that the unmarried biological father is in the best position to prevent or ameliorate the effects of fraud and that, therefore, the burden of fraud shall be borne by the unmarried biological father.

- (e) An unmarried biological father has the primary responsibility to protect the unmarried biological father's rights.
- (f) An unmarried biological father is presumed to know that the child adoptee may be adopted without the unmarried biological father's consent unless the unmarried biological father strictly complies with the provisions of this chapter, manifests a prompt and full commitment to the unmarried biological father's parental responsibilities, and establishes paternity.
- (7) The Legislature finds that an unmarried birth mother has:
  - (a) a right of privacy with regard to the unmarried birth mother's pregnancy and adoption plan;
  - (b) no legal obligation to disclose the identity of an unmarried biological father before or during an adoption proceeding; and
  - (c) no obligation to volunteer information to the court with respect to the father.

  - (b) consent, or refuse to consent, to the adoption of the child adoptee.
- (11) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the consent of an unmarried biological father is not required in a case where it is shown that the child adoptee was conceived as a result of conduct that constitutes a sexual offense, regardless of whether the unmarried biological father is formally charged with or convicted of the sexual offense.
- (12) Unless the child adoptee is conceived or born within a marriage, the petitioner in an adoption proceeding shall, before entrance of a final decree of adoption, file with the court a certificate from the office, stating:

  - (c) if the child adoptee is 12 years old or older, approved by the child adoptee.
- (4) A postadoption contact agreement shall:

  - (b) for an award of money damages.
- (10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that an open adoption agreement is required before an adoption may be finalized.
- (11) Refusal or failure to agree to a postadoption contact agreement is not admissible in any adoption proceeding.
