

Part 6

Centennial History Project

9-8-601 Definitions.

As used in this part:

- (1) "Complete" means to be similar in nature and purpose to an encyclopedia, wherein all of the meaningful events that took place in the county are covered, including ecclesiastic, political, educational, economic, and social events.
- (2) "Division" means the Division of State History.
- (3) "Reliable" means information that is as correct and factual as possible, well-documented, and based on established precedent.

Enacted by Chapter 30, 1991 General Session

9-8-602 Authority to write and publish county history -- Administration of project.

- (1) Any county may enter into an agreement with the division to write and publish a complete and reliable history of that county. The county may designate its county historical society, other agency of county government, or other entity to represent the county for purposes of this agreement.
- (2) The division shall supervise and administer this project to write and publish the complete and reliable history of each county and shall render professional expertise to the county or its designee as needed.

Enacted by Chapter 30, 1991 General Session

9-8-603 Standards -- Publication.

- (1) The writing and publishing of each history shall meet good historiographical and other professional standards as prescribed and approved by the division. The history shall be identified as the Centennial History of the County.
- (2) After approval by the division, each county history may bear, with the approval of the Utah State Centennial Commission, the state centennial history logo and shall be compiled, published, and offered to the public before December 31, 1996, as part of the county's and state's centennial celebrations at a cost not to exceed the cost of printing and binding. The proceeds of the sales shall be returned to the county.
