

9-8-602 Authority to write and publish county history -- Administration of project.

- (1) Any county may enter into an agreement with the division to write and publish a complete and reliable history of that county. The county may designate its county historical society, other agency of county government, or other entity to represent the county for purposes of this agreement.
- (2) The division shall supervise and administer this project to write and publish the complete and reliable history of each county and shall render professional expertise to the county or its designee as needed.

Enacted by Chapter 30, 1991 General Session