

HR3-1-105 Calendaring interim committee legislation.

- (1) The presiding officer shall have interim committee legislation that was approved by a majority vote of the interim committee members, read for the first time and referred to the House Rules Committee for calendaring.
- (2)
 - (a) The House Rules Committee may refer the legislation to the calendar without standing committee review, or it may recommend that the legislation be referred to a standing committee.
 - (b) If the House Rules Committee recommends that the legislation be placed on the third reading calendar without standing committee review, the sponsor or any other representative may move that the legislation be reviewed by a standing committee before the legislation's consideration on the floor.
 - (c) If this motion is approved by a majority of the representatives present, the legislation shall be referred to a standing committee for consideration.
