12 78-45-7. Determination of amount of support -- Rebuttable guidelines.

13 (1) (a) Prospective support shall be equal to the amount granted by prior court order unless 14 there has been a substantial change of circumstance on the part of the obligor or obligee or 15 adjustment under Subsection 78-45-7.2(6) has been made.

16 (b) If the prior court order contains a stipulated provision for the automatic adjustment for 17 prospective support, the prospective support shall be the amount as stated in the order, without a
18 showing of a material change of circumstances, if the stipulated provision:

19 (i) is clear and unambiguous;

20 (ii) is self-executing;

21 (iii) provides for support which equals or exceeds the base child support award required
22 by the guidelines; and

23 (iv) does not allow a decrease in support as a result of the obligor's voluntary reduction
24 of income.

25 (2) If no prior court order exists, a substantial change in circumstances has occurred, or 26 a petition to modify an order under Subsection 78-45-7.2(6) has been filed, the court determining
27 the amount of prospective support shall require each party to file a proposed award of child support
28 using the guidelines before an order awarding child support or modifying an existing award may 29 be granted.

30 (3) If the court finds sufficient evidence to rebut the guidelines, the court shall establish 31 support after considering all relevant factors, including but not limited to:

1 (a) the standard of living and situation of the parties;
2 (b) the relative wealth and income of the parties;
3 (c) the ability of the obligor to earn;
4 (d) the ability of the obligee to earn;
5 (e) the ability of an incapacitated adult child to earn, or other benefits received by the adult
6 child ~~h~~ ~~[-such as]~~ OR ON THE ADULT CHILD'S BEHALF INCLUDING ~~h~~ Supplemental Security Income;
7 ~~[(e)]~~ (f) the needs of the obligee, the obligor, and the child;
8 ~~[(f)]~~ (g) the ages of the parties; and
9 ~~[(g)]~~ (h) the responsibilities of the obligor and the obligee for the support of others.
10 (4) When no prior court order exists, the court shall determine and assess all arrearages
11 based upon the Uniform Child Support Guidelines described in this chapter.

12 Section 3. Section 78-45-7.5 is amended to read:

13 78-45-7.5. Determination of gross income -- Imputed income.

14 (1) As used in the guidelines, "gross income" includes:

15 (a) prospective income from any source, including nonearned sources, except under 16 Subsection (3); and

17 (b) income from salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, rents, gifts from anyone,
18 prizes, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, alimony from previous
19 marriages, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits,
20 unemployment compensation, disability insurance benefits, and payments from "nonmeans-tested"
21 government programs.

22 (2) Income from earned income sources is limited to the equivalent of one full-time
23 40-hour job. However, if and only if during the time prior to the original support order, the parent
24 normally and consistently worked more than 40 hours at his job, the court may consider this extra
25 time as a pattern in calculating the parent's ability to provide child support.

26 (3) Specifically excluded from gross income are:

27 (a) cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Family Employment
28 Program;

29 (b) benefits received under a housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act,
30 Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, Food Stamps, or 31 General Assistance; and

1 (c) other similar means-tested welfare benefits received by a parent.

2 (4) (a) Gross income from self-employment or operation of a business shall be calculated
3 by subtracting necessary expenses required for self-employment or business operation from gross
4 receipts. The income and expenses from self-employment or operation of a business shall be
5 reviewed to determine an appropriate level of gross income available to the parent to satisfy a child
6 support award. Only those expenses necessary to allow the business to operate at a reasonable
7 level may be deducted from gross receipts.

8 (b) Gross income determined under this subsection may differ from the amount of business
9 income determined for tax purposes.

10 (5) (a) When possible, gross income should first be computed on an annual basis and then 11 recalculated to determine the average gross monthly income.

12 (b) Each parent shall provide verification of current income. Each parent shall provide 13 year-to-date pay stubs or employer statements and complete copies of tax returns from at least the 14 most recent year unless the court finds the verification is not reasonably available. Verification
15 of income from records maintained by the Department of Workforce Services may be substituted
16 for pay stubs, employer statements, and income tax returns.

17 (c) Historical and current earnings shall be used to determine whether an 18 underemployment or overemployment situation exists.

19 (6) Gross income includes income imputed to the parent under Subsection (7).

20 (7) (a) Income may not be imputed to a parent unless the parent stipulates to the amount
21 imputed or a hearing is held and a finding made that the parent is voluntarily unemployed or 22 underemployed.

23 (b) If income is imputed to a parent, the income shall be based upon employment potential
24 and probable earnings as derived from work history, occupation qualifications, and prevailing
25 earnings for persons of similar backgrounds in the community.

26 (c) If a parent has no recent work history, income shall be imputed at least at the federal 27 minimum wage for a 40-hour work week. To impute a greater income, the judge in a judicial
28 proceeding or the presiding officer in an administrative proceeding shall enter specific findings
29 of fact as to the evidentiary basis for the imputation.

30 (d) Income may not be imputed if any of the following conditions exist:

31 (i) the reasonable costs of child care for the parents' minor children approach or equal the

1 amount of income the custodial parent can earn;

2 (ii) a parent is physically or mentally disabled to the extent he cannot earn minimum wage;

3 (iii) a parent is engaged in career or occupational training to establish basic job skills; or

4 (iv) unusual emotional or physical needs of a child require the custodial parent's presence
5 in the home.

6 (8) (a) Gross income may not include the earnings of a minor child who is the subject of 7 a child support award nor benefits to a minor child in the child's own right such as Supplemental
8 Security Income.

9 (b) Social Security benefits received by a child due to the earnings of a parent shall be 10 credited as child support to the parent upon whose earning record it is based, by crediting the 11 amount against the potential obligation of that parent. Other unearned income of a child may be 12 considered as income to a parent depending upon the circumstances of each case.

13 Section 4. Section 78-45-7.7 is amended to read:

14 78-45-7.7. Calculation of obligations.

15 (1) The parents' child support obligation shall be divided between them in proportion to 16 their adjusted gross incomes, unless the low income table is applicable.

17 (2) Except in cases of joint physical custody and split custody as defined in Section
18 78-45-2 and in cases where the obligor's adjusted gross income is $1,050 or less monthly, the base
19 child support award shall be determined as follows:

20 (a) combine the adjusted gross incomes of the parents and determine the base combined
21 child support obligation using the base combined child support obligation table[-]; and

22 (b) calculate each parent's proportionate share of the base combined child support
23 obligation by multiplying the combined child support obligation by each parent's percentage of 24 combined adjusted gross income.

25 ~~h [(3) In the case of an incapacitated adult child, any amount that the adult child can~~
26 ~~contribute toward his or her support should be applied to defray the cost borne by the adult child's~~
27 ~~parents and should be determined as follows:~~

28 ~~—— (a) reduce the total child support obligation by the amount the adult child is able to~~
29 ~~contribute toward the adult child's own support; and~~

30 ~~—— (b) calculate each parent's proportionate share of the base combined child support~~
31 ~~obligation, using the parents' respective incomes only, by multiplying the combined child support] h~~

31a ^h (3) IN THE CASE OF AN INCAPACITATED ADULT CHILD, ANY AMOUNT THAT THE 31b INCAPACITATED ADULT CHILD CAN CONTRIBUTE TO HIS OR HER SUPPORT MAY BE CONSIDERED IN 31c THE DETERMINATION OF CHILD SUPPORT AND MAY BE USED TO JUSTIFY A REDUCTION IN 31d THE AMOUNT OF SUPPORT ORDERED, EXCEPT THAT IN THE CASE OF ORDERS INVOLVING 31e MULTIPLE CHILDREN, THE REDUCTION SHALL NOT BE GREATER THAN THE EFFECT OF REDUCING
31f THE TOTAL NUMBER OF CHILDREN BY ONE IN THE CHILD SUPPORT TABLE CALCULATION. ^h

1 ~~h~~ [~~obligation by each parent's percentage of combined adjusted income.~~] ~~h~~

2 ~~[(3)]~~ (4) In cases where the monthly adjusted gross income of the obligor is between $650
3 and $1,050, the base child support award shall be the lesser of the amount calculated in accordance
4 with Subsection (2) and the amount calculated using the low income table.

5 ~~[(4)]~~ (5) The base combined child support obligation table provides combined child
6 support obligations for up to six children. For more than six children, additional amounts may be
7 added to the base child support obligation shown. Unless rebutted by Subsection 78-45-7.2(3),
8 the amount ordered shall not be less than the amount which would be ordered for up to six
9 children.

10 ~~[(5)]~~ (6) If the monthly adjusted gross income of the obligor is $649 or less, the court or
11 administrative agency shall determine the amount of the child support obligation on a case-by-case
12 basis, but the base child support award shall not be less than $20.

13 ~~[(6)]~~ (7) The amount shown on the table is the support amount for the total number of 14 children, not an amount per child.
