This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

AMENDS:

36-12-5, as last amended by Chapter 47, Laws of Utah 1985

36-12-7, as last amended by Chapter 2, Laws of Utah 1995

67-1-1, as last amended by Chapter 38, Laws of Utah 1993

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 36-12-5 is amended to read:

36-12-5. Duties of interim committees.

(a) to receive study assignments by resolution from the appropriate house of the Legislature;

(b) to receive study assignments from its corresponding Senate or House Management Committee, created under Section 36-12-6;

(c) to place matters on its study agenda upon notification to its Senate or House Management Committee~~[- If a];~~ which study request if it has not been disapproved by the appropriate management committee within 30 days of receipt of the request, the interim committee may proceed with the requested study;

(d) to request research reports from the professional legislative staff pertaining to the committee's agenda of study;

1 (e) to investigate and study possibilities for improvement in government services within
2 its subject area;

3 (f) to accept reports from the professional legislative staff and make recommendations for
4 legislative action with respect to such reports; [and]

5 (g) to provide oversight to the executive and judicial branches and make recommendations
6 for legislative action with respect to such oversight; and

7 [(g)] (h) to prepare and recommend to the Legislature a legislative program in response to 8 the committee's study agenda.

9 (2) Reports and recommendations of the interim committees shall be completed and made
10 public at least 30 days prior to any legislative session at which the reports and recommendations
11 are submitted. A copy of the reports and recommendations shall be mailed to each member or 12 member-elect of the Legislature, to each elective state officer, and to the state library.

13 Section 2. Section 36-12-7 is amended to read:

14 36-12-7. Legislative Management Committee -- Duties.

15 (1) The Senate or House Management Committee shall:

16 (a) receive legislative resolutions directing studies on legislative matters and may assign
17 these studies to the appropriate interim committee of its house;

18 (b) assign to interim committees of the same house, matters of legislative study not 19 specifically contained in a legislative resolution but considered significant to the welfare of the 20 state;

21 (c) receive requests from interim committees of its house for matters to be included on the
22 study agenda of the requesting committee. Appropriate bases for denying a study include
23 inadequate funding to properly complete the study or duplication of the work;

24 (d) establish a budget account for interim committee day as designated by Legislative
25 Management Committee and for all other legislative committees of its house and allocate to that
26 account sufficient funds to adequately provide for the work of [~~the committee~~] those committees;
27 and

28 (e) designate the time and place for periodic meetings of the interim committees.

29 (2) (a) In designating the periodic meetings of interim committees, Legislative
30 Management Committee shall schedule at least eight meetings each year.

31 (b) (i) In at least two of these scheduled interim committee meetings, the committee chairs

1 give priority to the oversight responsibilities of the committee as provided in Subsection
2 36-12-5(1)(g); or

3 (ii) if the interim committee does not have significant oversight responsibilities in any
4 given year, the committee chairs may choose not to hold those committee meetings.

5 [~~2~~] (3) To maximize the use of legislators' available time, the Senate and House
6 Management Committees should attempt to schedule the committee meetings of their respective
7 houses during the same one or two-day period each month. This does not preclude an interim
8 committee from meeting at any time it determines necessary to complete its business.

9 [~~3~~] (4) The Legislative Management Committee shall:

10 (a) (i) employ, after recommendation of the appropriate subcommittee of the Legislative
11 Management Committee, without regard to political affiliation, and subject to approval of a
12 majority vote of both houses, persons qualified for the positions of director of the Office of 13 Legislative Research and General Counsel, legislative fiscal analyst, legislative general counsel,
14 and legislative auditor general.

15 (ii) Appointments to these positions shall be for terms of six years subject to renewal under 16 the same procedure as the original appointment.

17 (iii) A person may be removed from any of these offices prior to the expiration of his term
18 only by a majority vote of both houses of the Legislature or by a 2/3 vote of the management
19 committee for such causes as inefficiency, incompetency, failure to maintain skills or adequate
20 performance levels, insubordination, misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office.

21 (iv) In the event a vacancy occurs in any of these offices after adjournment of the 22 Legislature, the committee shall appoint an individual to fill the vacancy until such time as the 23 person is approved or rejected by majority vote of the next session of the Legislature;

24 (b) develop policies for personnel management, compensation, and training of all
25 professional legislative staff;

26 (c) develop a policy within the limits of legislative appropriation for the authorization and
27 payment to legislators of compensation and travel expenses, including out-of-state travel;

28 (d) approve special study budget requests of the legislative directors; and

29 (e) assist the speaker-elect of the House of Representatives and the president-elect of the 30 Senate, upon selection by their majority party caucus, to organize their respective houses of the 31 Legislature and assume the direction of the operation of the Legislature in the forthcoming annual

1 general session.

2 Section 3. Section 67-1-1 is amended to read:
