RESOLUTION AMENDING PROPERTY TAX

EXEMPTIONS

1998 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

Sponsor: Gene Davis

A JOINT RESOLUTION OF THE LEGISLATURE PROPOSING TO AMEND THE UTAH CONSTITUTION; AMENDING THE TAX ARTICLE TO ALLOW THE TAXES OF THE ELDERLY TO BE ABATED, DEFERRED, OR REMITTED AS PROVIDED BY STATUTE; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

This resolution proposes to change the Utah Constitution as follows:

AMENDS:

ARTICLE XIII, SECTION 2

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof:

Section 1. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution Article XIII, Section 2, to read:

Article XIII, Section 2. [Tangible property to be taxed -- Value ascertained -- Exemptions -- Remittance or abatement of taxes of poor -- Intangible property -- Legislature to provide annual tax for state.]

(1) All tangible property in the state, not exempt under the laws of the United States, or under this Constitution, shall be taxed at a uniform and equal rate in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law.

(2) The following are property tax exemptions:

(a) the property of the state, school districts, and public libraries;

(b) the property of counties, cities, towns, special districts, and all other political subdivisions of the state, except that to the extent and in the manner provided by the Legislature the property of a county, city, town, special district, or other political subdivision of the state located outside of its geographic boundaries as defined by law may be subject to the ad valorem

1 property tax;

2 (c) property owned by a nonprofit entity which is used exclusively for religious, charitable,
3 or educational purposes;

4 (d) places of burial not held or used for private or corporate benefit; and

5 (e) farm equipment and farm machinery as defined by statute. This exemption shall be 6 implemented over a period of time as provided by statute.

7 (3) Tangible personal property present in Utah on January 1, held for sale or processing
8 and which is shipped to final destination outside this state within twelve months may be deemed
9 by law to have acquired no situs in Utah for purposes of ad valorem property taxation and may be
10 exempted by law from such taxation, whether manufactured, processed or produced or otherwise
11 originating within or without the state.

12 (4) Tangible personal property present in Utah on January 1, held for sale in the ordinary 13 course of business and which constitutes the inventory of any retailer, or wholesaler or 14 manufacturer or farmer, or livestock raiser may be deemed for purposes of ad valorem property
15 taxation to be exempted.

16 (5) Water rights, ditches, canals, reservoirs, power plants, pumping plants, transmission
17 lines, pipes, and flumes owned and used by individuals or corporations for irrigating land within 18 the state owned by such individuals or corporations, or the individual members thereof, shall be 19 exempted from taxation to the extent that they shall be owned and used for such purposes.

20 (6) Power plants, power transmission lines and other property used for generating and 21 delivering electrical power, a portion of which is used for furnishing power for pumping water for 22 irrigation purposes on lands in the state of Utah, may be exempted from taxation to the extent that
23 such property is used for such purposes. These exemptions shall accrue to the benefit of the users
24 of water so pumped under such regulations as the Legislature may prescribe.

25 (7) The taxes of the poor may be remitted or abated at such times and in such manner as 26 may be provided by law.

27 (8) The Legislature may provide by law for the exemption from taxation: of not to exceed
28 45% of the fair market value of residential property as defined by law; and all household
29 furnishings, furniture, and equipment used exclusively by the owner thereof at his place of abode
30 in maintaining a home for himself and family.

31 (9) Property owned by disabled persons who were disabled in the line of duty during any

1 war, international conflict, or military training in the military service of the United States or of the
2 state of Utah and by the unmarried surviving spouses and minor orphans of such disabled persons
3 or of persons who during any war, international conflict, or military training in the military service
4 of the United States or the state of Utah were killed in action or died in the line of duty as a result
5 of such service may be exempted as the Legislature may provide.

6 (10) Intangible property may be exempted from taxation as property or it may be taxed as
7 property in such manner and to such extent as the Legislature may provide, but if taxed as property
8 the income therefrom shall not also be taxed. Provided that if intangible property is taxed as 9 property the rate thereof shall not exceed five mills on each dollar of valuation.

10 (11) The Legislature shall provide by law for an annual tax sufficient, with other sources
11 of revenue, to defray the estimated ordinary expenses of the state for each fiscal year. For the 12 purpose of paying the state debt, if any there be, the Legislature shall provide for levying a tax
13 annually, sufficient to pay the annual interest and to pay the principal of such debt, within twenty 14 years from the final passage of the law creating the debt.

15 (12) The taxes of the elderly may be abated, deferred, or remitted at such times and in such 16 manner as the Legislature may provide by statute.

17 Section 2. Submittal to electors.

18 The lieutenant governor is directed to submit this proposed amendment to the electors of 19 the state of Utah at the next general election in the manner provided by law.

20 Section 3. Effective date.

21 If approved by the electors of the state, the amendment proposed by this joint resolution
22 shall take effect on January 1, 1999.
