

28 physically incapable of making a report, during his period of incapacity.

29 (4) (a) Every peace officer who in the regular course of duty investigates a motor vehicle
30 accident described under Subsection (1) shall file the original report of the accident with the 31 department within ten days after completing the investigation.

32 (b) The report shall be made either at the time of and at the scene of the accident or later
33 by interviewing participants or witnesses.

34 (5) The written reports required to be filed with the department [~~by peace officers~~] under 35 this section and the information in them are [~~not privileged or~~] protected and confidential and may 36 be disclosed only as provided in Section 41-6-40.

37 Section 2. Section 41-6-40 is amended to read:

38 41-6-40. Accident reports confidential -- Insurance policy information -- Use as 39 evidence -- Penalty for false information.

40 (1) As used in this section, "agent" means a person's attorney, insurer, or any other
41 individual or entity with written permission from the person to receive the person's written accident 42 report.

43 [~~(1) All~~] (2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), all written reports required in this
44 article to be [~~forwarded to~~] filed with the department [~~by operators or owners of vehicles involved~~
45 ~~in accidents or by garages~~];

46 (a) are without prejudice to the reporting individual [and];

47 (b) are protected and for the confidential use of the department or other state, local, or 48 federal agencies having use for the records for official governmental statistical, investigative, and 49 accident prevention purposes; and

50 (c) may be disclosed only in a statistical form that protects the privacy of any person
51 involved in the accident. [~~However, the department may disclose the identity of a person involved~~
52 ~~in an accident when the identity is not otherwise known or when the person denies his presence~~ 53 ~~at the accident. The]~~

54 (3) (a) The department shall disclose a written accident report and its accompanying data 55 to:

56 (i) a person involved in the accident, excluding a witness to the accident;

57 (ii) a person suffering loss or injury in the accident;

58 (iii) an agent, parent, or legal guardian of a person described in Subsections (3)(a)(i) and

59 (ii);

60 (iv) a member of the press or broadcast news media;

61 (v) a state, local, or federal agency that uses the records for official governmental,
62 investigative, or accident prevention purposes; and

63 (vi) law enforcement personnel when acting in their official governmental capacity.

64 (b) In accordance with Subsection (3)(a), the department shall disclose whether any person
65 or vehicle involved in an accident reported under this section was covered by a vehicle insurance 66 policy, and the name of the insurer.

67 ~~[(2) Written]~~ (4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), written reports [forwarded]
68 filed under this section may not be used as evidence in any [trial,] civil or criminal[;] trial arising 69 out of an accident[, except that the department shall furnish upon].

70 (b) Upon demand of any party to the trial or upon demand of any court, the department
71 shall furnish a certificate showing that a specified accident report has or has not been made to the 72 department in compliance with law[, and if]. If the report has been made, the certificate furnished
73 by the department shall show the date, time, and location of the accident, the names and addresses
74 of the drivers, the owners of the vehicles involved, and the investigating officers. The reports may 75 be used as evidence when necessary to prosecute charges filed in connection with a violation of 76 Subsection [(3)] (5).

77 ~~[(3)] (5)~~ A person who gives information in oral or written reports as required in this 78 chapter knowing or having reason to believe that the information is false is guilty of a class A 79 misdemeanor.

80 Section 3. Section 41-12a-202 is amended to read:

81 41-12a-202. Access to accident reports.

82 (1) Accident reports and supplemental information as required under this chapter are 83 protected and are for the confidential use of the department and other state agencies and may be 84 disclosed only as provided in Section 41-6-40. [However, the department shall disclose accident
85 reports and accompanying data to persons suffering loss or injury in any motor vehicle accident,
86 whether or not they have deposited proof of owner's or operator's security under this chapter.]

87 (2) (a) Any person entitled to the disclosure of an accident report, as provided in Section
88 41-6-40, may obtain a photocopy by paying the department [$5] a fee as authorized by Section 89 63-38-3.2.

90 (b) These fees shall be deposited in the General Fund. [~~Bona fide representatives of~~ 91 ~~persons entitled to disclosure may also obtain copies of accident reports and any accompanying~~ 92 ~~data.]~~

93 Section 4. Section 63-2-304 is amended to read:

94 63-2-304. Protected records.

95 The following records are protected if properly classified by a governmental entity:

96 (1) trade secrets as defined in Section 13-24-2 if the person submitting the trade secret has 97 provided the governmental entity with the information specified in Section 63-2-308;

98 (2) commercial information or nonindividual financial information obtained from a person 99 if:

100 (a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to result in unfair 101 competitive injury to the person submitting the information or would impair the ability of the 102 governmental entity to obtain necessary information in the future;

103 (b) the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access than 104 the public in obtaining access; and

105 (c) the person submitting the information has provided the governmental entity with the 106 information specified in Section 63-2-308;

107 (3) commercial or financial information acquired or prepared by a governmental entity to 108 the extent that disclosure would lead to financial speculations in currencies, securities, or 109 commodities that will interfere with a planned transaction by the governmental entity or cause
110 substantial financial injury to the governmental entity or state economy;

111 (4) records the disclosure of which could cause commercial injury to, or confer a 112 competitive advantage upon a potential or actual competitor of, a commercial project entity as 113 defined in Subsection 11-13-3(3);

114 (5) test questions and answers to be used in future license, certification, registration,
115 employment, or academic examinations;

116 (6) records the disclosure of which would impair governmental procurement proceedings
117 or give an unfair advantage to any person proposing to enter into a contract or agreement with a 118 governmental entity, except that this subsection does not restrict the right of a person to see bids
119 submitted to or by a governmental entity after bidding has closed;

120 (7) records that would identify real property or the appraisal or estimated value of real or

121 personal property, including intellectual property, under consideration for public acquisition before 122 any rights to the property are acquired unless:

123 (a) public interest in obtaining access to the information outweighs the governmental 124 entity's need to acquire the property on the best terms possible;

125 (b) the information has already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a duty
126 of confidentiality to the entity;

127 (c) in the case of records that would identify property, potential sellers of the described 128 property have already learned of the governmental entity's plans to acquire the property; or

129 (d) in the case of records that would identify the appraisal or estimated value of property, 130 the potential sellers have already learned of the governmental entity's estimated value of the 131 property;

132 (8) records prepared in contemplation of sale, exchange, lease, rental, or other 133 compensated transaction of real or personal property including intellectual property, which, if 134 disclosed prior to completion of the transaction, would reveal the appraisal or estimated value of 135 the subject property, unless:

136 (a) the public interest in access outweighs the interests in restricting access, including the 137 governmental entity's interest in maximizing the financial benefit of the transaction; or

138 (b) when prepared by or on behalf of a governmental entity, appraisals or estimates of the 139 value of the subject property have already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a 140 duty of confidentiality to the entity;

141 (9) records created or maintained for civil, criminal, or administrative enforcement 142 purposes or audit purposes, or for discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes, if 143 release of the records:

144 (a) reasonably could be expected to interfere with investigations undertaken for 145 enforcement, discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes;

146 (b) reasonably could be expected to interfere with audits, disciplinary, or enforcement
147 proceedings;

148 (c) would create a danger of depriving a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial hearing;

149 (d) reasonably could be expected to disclose the identity of a source who is not generally 150 known outside of government and, in the case of a record compiled in the course of an 151 investigation, disclose information furnished by a source not generally known outside of 152 government if disclosure would compromise the source; or

153 (e) reasonably could be expected to disclose investigative or audit techniques, procedures, 154 policies, or orders not generally known outside of government if disclosure would interfere with 155 enforcement or audit efforts;

156 (10) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the life or safety of an individual;

157 (11) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the security of governmental 158 property, governmental programs, or governmental recordkeeping systems from damage, theft, or 159 other appropriation or use contrary to law or public policy;

160 (12) records that, if disclosed, would jeopardize the security or safety of a correctional 161 facility, or records relating to incarceration, treatment, probation, or parole, that would interfere
162 with the control and supervision of an offender's incarceration, treatment, probation, or parole;

163 (13) records that, if disclosed, would reveal recommendations made to the Board of 164 Pardons and Parole by an employee of or contractor for the Department of Corrections, the Board
165 of Pardons and Parole, or the Department of Human Services that are based on the employee's or 166 contractor's supervision, diagnosis, or treatment of any person within the board's jurisdiction;

167 (14) records and audit workpapers that identify audit, collection, and operational 168 procedures and methods used by the State Tax Commission, if disclosure would interfere with 169 audits or collections;

170 (15) records of a governmental audit agency relating to an ongoing or planned audit until 171 the final audit is released;

172 (16) records prepared by or on behalf of a governmental entity solely in anticipation of 173 litigation that are not available under the rules of discovery;

174 (17) records disclosing an attorney's work product, including the mental impressions or 175 legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a governmental entity concerning litigation;

176 (18) records of communications between a governmental entity and an attorney 177 representing, retained, or employed by the governmental entity if the communications would be 178 privileged as provided in Section 78-24-8;

179 (19) personal files of a legislator, including personal correspondence to or from a member
180 of the Legislature, but not correspondence that gives notice of legislative action or policy;

181 (20) (a) records in the custody or control of the Office of Legislative Research and General
182 Counsel, that, if disclosed, would reveal a particular legislator's contemplated legislation or

183 contemplated course of action before the legislator has elected to support the legislation or course 184 of action, or made the legislation or course of action public; and

185 (b) for purposes of this subsection, a "Request For Legislation" submitted to the Office of 186 Legislative Research and General Counsel is a public document unless a legislator submits the 187 "Request For Legislation" with a request that it be maintained as a protected record until such time
188 as the legislator elects to make the legislation or course of action public;

189 (21) research requests from legislators to the Office of Legislative Research and General
190 Counsel or the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst and research findings prepared in response
191 to these requests;

192 (22) drafts, unless otherwise classified as public;

193 (23) records concerning a governmental entity's strategy about collective bargaining or 194 pending litigation;

195 (24) records of investigations of loss occurrences and analyses of loss occurrences that 196 may be covered by the Risk Management Fund, the Employers' Reinsurance Fund, the Uninsured
197 Employers' Fund, or similar divisions in other governmental entities;

198 (25) records, other than personnel evaluations, that contain a personal recommendation
199 concerning an individual if disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal 200 privacy, or disclosure is not in the public interest;

201 (26) records that reveal the location of historic, prehistoric, paleontological, or biological 202 resources that if known would jeopardize the security of those resources or of valuable historic,
203 scientific, educational, or cultural information;

204 (27) records of independent state agencies if the disclosure of the records would conflict
205 with the fiduciary obligations of the agency;

206 (28) records of a public institution of higher education regarding tenure evaluations, 207 appointments, applications for admissions, retention decisions, and promotions, which could be 208 properly discussed in a meeting closed in accordance with Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public
209 Meetings, provided that records of the final decisions about tenure, appointments, retention,
210 promotions, or those students admitted, may not be classified as protected under this section;

211 (29) records of the governor's office, including budget recommendations, legislative
212 proposals, and policy statements, that if disclosed would reveal the governor's contemplated 213 policies or contemplated courses of action before the governor has implemented or rejected those

214 policies or courses of action or made them public;

215 (30) records of the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst relating to budget analysis,
216 revenue estimates, and fiscal notes of proposed legislation before issuance of the final 217 recommendations in these areas;

218 (31) records provided by the United States or by a government entity outside the state that 219 are given to the governmental entity with a requirement that they be managed as protected records
220 if the providing entity certifies that the record would not be subject to public disclosure if retained 221 by it;

222 (32) transcripts, minutes, or reports of the closed portion of a meeting of a public body
223 except as provided in Section 52-4-7;

224 (33) records that would reveal the contents of settlement negotiations but not including 225 final settlements or empirical data to the extent that they are not otherwise exempt from disclosure;

226 (34) memoranda prepared by staff and used in the decisionmaking process by an 227 administrative law judge, a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole, or a member of any other 228 body charged by law with performing a quasi-judicial function;

229 (35) records that would reveal negotiations regarding assistance or incentives offered by 230 or requested from a governmental entity for the purpose of encouraging a person to expand or 231 locate a business in Utah, but only if disclosure would result in actual economic harm to the person 232 or place the governmental entity at a competitive disadvantage, but this section may not be used 233 to restrict access to a record evidencing a final contract;

234 (36) materials to which access must be limited for purposes of securing or maintaining the 235 governmental entity's proprietary protection of intellectual property rights including patents,
236 copyrights, and trade secrets;

237 (37) the name of a donor or a prospective donor to a governmental entity, including a 238 public institution of higher education, and other information concerning the donation that could 239 reasonably be expected to reveal the identity of the donor, provided that:

240 (a) the donor requests anonymity in writing;

241 (b) any terms, conditions, restrictions, or privileges relating to the donation may not be 242 classified protected by the governmental entity under this Subsection (37); and

243 (c) except for public institutions of higher education, the governmental unit to which the 244 donation is made is primarily engaged in educational, charitable, or artistic endeavors, and has no

245 regulatory or legislative authority over the donor, a member of his immediate family, or any entity 246 owned or controlled by the donor or his immediate family; [and]

247 (38) accident reports, except as provided in Sections 41-6-40, 41-12a-202, and 73-18-13; 248 and

249 ~~[(38)]~~ (39) the following records of a public institution of education, which have been 250 developed, discovered, or received by or on behalf of faculty, staff, employees, or students of the 251 institution: unpublished lecture notes, unpublished research notes and data, unpublished
 252 manuscripts, creative works in process, scholarly correspondence, and confidential information 253 contained in research proposals. Nothing in this Subsection (38) shall be construed to affect the 254 ownership of a record.

255 Section 5. Section 73-18-13 is amended to read:

256 73-18-13. Duties of operator involved in accident -- Notification and reporting
 257 procedures -- Use of accident reports -- Giving false information as misdemeanor.

258 (1) As used in this section, "agent" has the same meaning as provided in Section 41-6-40.

259 ~~[(+)]~~ (2) It is the duty of the operator of a vessel involved in an accident, if he can do so
 260 without seriously endangering his own vessel, crew, or passengers, to render aid to those affected
 261 by the accident as may be practicable. The operator shall also give his name, address, and 262 identification of his vessel in writing to any person injured or to the owner of any property
 263 damaged in the accident.

264 ~~[(2)]~~ (3) The board shall adopt rules governing the notification and reporting procedure
 265 for vessels involved in accidents. ~~[Such]~~ The rules shall be consistent with federal requirements.

266 ~~[(3)-AH]~~ (4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), all accident reports:

267 (i) are protected and shall be for the confidential use of the division or other state, local,
 268 or federal agencies having use for the records for official governmental statistical, investigative,
 269 and accident prevention purposes~~[-except that the division may disclose the identity of a person~~
 270 ~~involved in an accident when the person's identity is not otherwise known or when the person~~
 271 ~~denies his presence at the accident. No]; and~~

272 (ii) may be disclosed only in a statistical form that protects the privacy of any person 273 involved in the accident.

274 (b) The division shall disclose a written accident report and its accompanying data to:

275 (i) a person involved in the accident, excluding a witness to the accident;

276 (ii) a person suffering loss or injury in the accident;
 277 (iii) an agent, parent, or legal guardian of a person described in Subsections (3)(a)(i) and 278 (ii);
 279 (iv) a member of the press or broadcast news media;
 280 (v) a state, local, or federal agency that uses the records for official governmental,
 281 investigative, or accident prevention purposes; and
 282 (vi) law enforcement personnel when acting in their official governmental capacity.
 283 (5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), an accident report [shall] may not be used
 284 as evidence in any [trial,] civil or criminal trial, arising out of an accident[,-except that the division 285 shall furnish upon].
 286 (b) Upon demand of any person who has, or claims to have, made the report, or[;] upon 287 demand of any court, the division shall furnish a certificate showing that a specified accident report 288 has or has not been made to the division solely to prove a compliance or a failure to comply with 289 the requirement that a report be made to the division. [Reports] Accident reports may be used as 290 evidence when necessary to prosecute charges filed in connection with a violation of Subsection
 291 [~~(4)~~] (6).
 292 [~~(4)~~] (6) Any person who gives false information, knowingly or having reason to believe
 293 it is false, in an oral or written report as required in this chapter, is guilty of a class A
 294 misdemeanor.
 295 Section 6. Section 73-18-14 is amended to read:
 296 73-18-14. Transmittal of information to official or agency of United States.
 297 In accordance with any request duly made by an authorized official or agency of the United 298 States, any information compiled or otherwise available to the division under Subsection 73-18-13
 299 [~~(2)~~] (4) shall be transmitted to the official or agency of the United States.
