408	upon existing state law to develop dispersal restrictions that address the 409	concerns of neighborhoods in maintaining the integrity of their
410	environment, prevents the excessive grouping of people with disabilities
411	requiring residential supports, accommodates the needs of people with
412	disabilities in residential services to access appropriate services,
413	transportation, and opportunities for integration, and which places such
414	residences in neighborhoods that positively support their needs.
415	It is further the Legislature's intent that municipalities and counties allow 416	for consideration of exception to the dispersal requirements on a case-by-
417	case basis. It is the sense of the legislature that providers are responsible 418	to demonstrate to the municipality or county why their facility should be
419	granted this exemption.

421	exempts from its coverage anyone who, despite services and
