This act enacts uncoded material.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Legislative intent.

The Legislature finds that government within the state is improved by developing leadership qualities and a greater understanding of state and local government processes within rural youth. It is the intent of the Legislature in appropriating these funds to help meet the statewide purpose of developing youth leadership qualities and increasing understanding of state and local government processes through conducting a Rural Youth Leadership Summit including workshops and speakers.

Section 2. Appropriation.

(1) For fiscal year 2000-01 only, there is appropriated from the General Fund $30,000 to the Division of Business and Economic Development in the Department of Community and Economic Development for development of a rural youth leadership summit and training program.

(2) (a) This appropriation shall be distributed to Southern Utah University for use in developing a rural youth leadership summit and training program.

(b) The objective of the rural youth leadership summit and training program is to develop

28 leadership qualities in participating youth by:

29 (i) providing mentors and insight into the political process through involvement with state
30 and local elected officials;

31 (ii) providing a working knowledge of important state and local issues; and

32 (iii) fostering an interest in public service.

33 (3) The money appropriated in Subsection (1) is nonlapsing.

34 Section 3. Effective date.

35 This act takes effect on July 1, 2000.
