26 Section 1. Section 59-10-529 is amended to read:

27 59-10-529. Overpayment of tax -- Credits -- Refunds.

28 (1) In cases where there has been an overpayment of any tax imposed by this chapter, the 29 amount of overpayment is credited as follows:

30 (a) against any income tax then due from the taxpayer;

31 (b) against:

32 (i) the amount of any judgment against the taxpayer, including one ordering the payment
33 of a fine or of restitution to a victim under [~~Section 76-3-201~~] Title 77, Chapter 38a, Crime
34 Victims Restitution Act, obtained through due process of law by any entity of state government; 35 or

36 (ii) any child support obligation which is due or past due, as determined by the Office of 37 Recovery Services in the Department of Human Services and after notice and an opportunity for 38 an adjudicative proceeding, as provided in Subsection (2); or

39 (c) as bail, to ensure the appearance of the taxpayer before the appropriate authority to 40 resolve an outstanding warrant against the taxpayer for which bail is due, if a court of competent 41 jurisdiction has not approved an alternative form of payment. This bail may be applied to any fine
42 or forfeiture which is due and related to a warrant which is outstanding on or after February 16, 43 1984, and in accordance with Subsections (3) and (4).

44 (2) (a) Subsection (1)(b)(ii) may be exercised only if the Office of Recovery Services has 45 sent written notice to the taxpayer's last-known address or the address on file under Section 46 62A-11-304.4, stating:

47 (i) the amount of child support that is due or past due as of the date of the notice or other 48 specified date;

49 (ii) that any overpayment shall be applied to reduce the amount of due or past-due child 50 support specified in the notice; and

51 (iii) that the taxpayer may contest the amount of past-due child support specified in the 52 notice by filing a written request for an adjudicative proceeding with the office within 15 days of 53 the notice being sent.

54 (b) The Office of Recovery Services shall establish rules to implement this Subsection (2), 55 including procedures, in accordance with the other provisions of this section, to ensure prompt 56 reimbursement to the taxpayer of any amount of an overpayment of taxes which was credited 57 against a child support obligation in error, and to ensure prompt distribution of properly credited 58 funds to the obligee parent.

59 (3) Subsection (1)(c) may be exercised only if:

60 (a) a court has issued a warrant for the arrest of the taxpayer for failure to post bail, appear, 61 or otherwise satisfy the terms of a citation, summons, or court order; and

62 (b) a notice of intent to apply the overpayment as bail on the issued warrant has been sent 63 to the person's current address on file with the commission.

64 (4) (a) The commission shall deliver the overpayment applied as bail to the court that 65 issued the warrant of arrest. The clerk of the court is authorized to endorse the check or 66 commission warrant of payment on behalf of the payees and deposit the monies in the court 67 treasury.

68 (b) The court receiving the overpayment applied as bail shall order withdrawal of the 69 warrant for arrest of the taxpayer if the case is one for which a personal appearance of the taxpayer 70 is not required and if the dollar amount of the overpayment represents the full dollar amount of 71 bail. In all other cases, the court receiving the overpayment applied as bail is not required to order
72 the withdrawal of the warrant of arrest of the taxpayer during the 40-day period, and the taxpayer
73 may be arrested on the warrant. However, the bail amount shall be reduced by the amount of tax 74 overpayment received by the court.

75 (c) If the taxpayer fails to respond to the notice described in Subsection (3), or to resolve
76 the warrant within 40 days after the notice was sent under that subsection, the overpayment applied
77 as bail is forfeited and notice of the forfeiture shall be mailed to the taxpayer at the current address
78 on file with the commission. The court may then issue another warrant or allow the original 79 warrant to remain in force if:

80 (i) the taxpayer has not complied with an order of the court;

81 (ii) the taxpayer has failed to appear and respond to a criminal charge for which a personal 82 appearance is required; or

83 (iii) the taxpayer has paid partial but not full bail in a case for which a personal appearance 84 is not required.

85 (5) If the alleged violations named in the warrant are later resolved in favor of the 86 taxpayer, the bail amount shall be remitted to the taxpayer.

87 (6) Any balance shall be refunded immediately to the taxpayer.

88 (7) (a) If a refund or credit is due because the amount of tax deducted and withheld from 89 wages exceeds the actual tax due, a refund or credit may not be made or allowed unless the

90 taxpayer or his legal representative files with the commission a tax return claiming the refund or 91 credit:

92 (i) within three years from the due date of the return, plus the period of any extension of 93 time for filing the return provided for in Subsection (7)(c); or 94 (ii) within two years from the date the tax was paid, whichever period is later.

95 (b) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(d), in other instances where a refund or credit of 96 tax which has not been deducted and withheld from income is due, a credit or refund may not be 97 allowed or made after three years from the time the tax was paid, unless, before the expiration of 98 the period, a claim is filed by the taxpayer or his legal representative.

99 (c) Beginning on July 1, 1998, the commission shall extend the period for a taxpayer to 100 file a claim under Subsection (7)(a)(i) if:

101 (i) the time period for filing a claim under Subsection (7)(a) has not expired; and

102 (ii) the commission and the taxpayer sign a written agreement:

103 (A) authorizing the extension; and

104 (B) providing for the length of the extension.

105 (d) Notwithstanding Subsection (7)(b), beginning on July 1, 1998, the commission shall 106 extend the period for a taxpayer to file a claim under Subsection (7)(b) if:

107 (i) the three-year period under Subsection (7)(b) has not expired; and

108 (ii) the commission and the taxpayer sign a written agreement:

109 (A) authorizing the extension; and

110 (B) providing for the length of the extension.

111 (8) The fine and bail forfeiture provisions of this section apply to all warrants and fines 112 issued in cases charging the taxpayer with a felony, a misdemeanor, or an infraction described in 113 this section which are outstanding on or after February 16, 1984.

114 (9) If the amount allowable as a credit for tax withheld from the taxpayer exceeds the tax
115 to which the credit relates, the excess is considered an overpayment.

116 (10) A claim for credit or refund of an overpayment which is attributable to the application
117 to the taxpayer of a net operating loss carryback shall be filed within three years from the time the 118 return was due for the taxable year of the loss.

119 (11) If there has been an overpayment of the tax which is required to be deducted and 120 withheld under Section 59-10-402, a refund shall be made to the employer only to the extent that 121 the amount of overpayment was not deducted and withheld by the employer.

122 (12) If there is no tax liability for a period in which an amount is paid as income tax, the 123 amount is an overpayment.

124 (13) If an income tax is assessed or collected after the expiration of the applicable period
125 of limitation, that amount is an overpayment.

126 (14) (a) If a taxpayer is required to report a change or correction in federal taxable income 127 reported on his federal income tax return, or to report a change or correction which is treated in 128 the same manner as if it were an overpayment for federal income tax purposes, or to file an 129 amended return with the commission, a claim for credit or refund of any resulting overpayment
130 of tax shall be filed by the taxpayer within two years from the date the notice of the change, 131 correction, or amended return was required to be filed with the commission.

132 (b) If the report or amended return is not filed within 90 days, interest on any resulting 133 refund or credit ceases to accrue after the 90-day period.

134 (c) The amount of the credit or refund may not exceed the amount of the reduction in tax 135 attributable to the federal change, correction, or items amended on the taxpayer's amended federal 136 income tax return.

137 (d) Except as specifically provided, this section does not affect the amount or the time 138 within which a claim for credit or refund may be filed.

139 (15) No credit or refund may be allowed or made if the overpayment is less than $1.

140 (16) The amount of the credit or refund may not exceed the tax paid during the three years
141 immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim is filed, then during the three years
142 immediately preceding the allowance of the credit or refund.

143 (17) In the case of an overpayment of tax by the employer under the withholding 144 provisions of this chapter, a refund or credit shall be made to the employer only to the extent that 145 the amount of the overpayment was not deducted and withheld from wages under the provisions 146 of this chapter.

147 (18) If a taxpayer who is entitled to a refund under this chapter dies, the commission may 148 make payment to the duly appointed executor or administrator of the taxpayer's estate. If there is 149 no executor or administrator, payment may be made to those persons who establish entitlement to 150 inherit the property of the decedent in the proportions set out in Title 75, Utah Uniform Probate
151 Code.

152 (19) Where an overpayment relates to adjustments to net income referred to in Subsection 153 59-10-536(3)(c), credit may be allowed or a refund paid any time before the expiration of the 154 period within which a deficiency may be assessed.

155 (20) An overpayment of a tax imposed by this chapter shall accrue interest at the rate and 156 in the manner prescribed in Section 59-1-402.

157 Section 2. Section 63-25a-403 is amended to read:

158 63-25a-403. Restitution -- Reparations not to supplant restitution -- Assignment of 159 claim for restitution judgment to Reparations Office.

160 (1) A reparations award shall not supplant restitution as established under [~~Section~~
161 ~~76-3-201~~] Title 77, Chapter 38a, Crime Victims Restitution Act, or as established by any other 162 provisions.

163 (2) The court shall not consider a reparations award when determining the order of 164 restitution nor when enforcing restitution.

165 (3) If, due to reparation payments to a victim, the Reparations Office is assigned under 166 Section 63-25a-419 a claim for the victim's judgment for restitution or a portion of the restitution,
167 the Reparations Office may file with the sentencing court a notice of the assignment. The notice
168 of assignment shall be signed by the victim and a Reparations Officer and shall state the amount 169 of the claim assigned.

170 (4) Upon conviction and sentencing of the defendant, the court shall enter a civil judgment
171 for complete restitution as provided in Section [~~76-3-201~~] 77-38a-401 and identify the Reparations
172 Office as the assignee of the assigned portion of the judgment.

173 (5) If the notice of assignment is filed after sentencing, the court shall modify the civil 174 judgment for restitution to identify the Reparations Office as the assignee of the assigned portion 175 of the judgment.

176 Section 3. Section 63-25a-411 is amended to read:

177 63-25a-411. Compensable losses and amounts.

178 A reparations award under this chapter may be made if:

179 (1) the reparations officer finds the claim satisfies the requirements for the award under 180 the provisions of this chapter and the rules of the board;

181 (2) funds are available in the trust fund;

182 (3) the person for whom the award of reparations is to be paid is otherwise eligible under

183 this act;

184 (4) the claim is for an allowable expense incurred by the victim, as follows:

185 (a) reasonable and necessary charges incurred for products, services, and accommodations;

186 (b) inpatient and outpatient medical treatment and physical therapy, subject to rules

187 promulgated by the board pursuant to Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act;

188 (c) mental health counseling which:

189 (i) is set forth in a mental health treatment plan which has been approved prior to any 190 payment by a reparations officer; and

191 (ii) qualifies within any further rules promulgated by the board pursuant to Title 63,
192 Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act;

193 (d) actual loss of past earnings and anticipated loss of future earnings because of a death
194 or disability resulting from the personal injury at a rate not to exceed 66-2/3% of the person's 195 weekly gross salary or wages or the maximum amount allowed under the state workers'
196 compensation statute;

197 (e) care of minor children enabling a victim or spouse of a victim, but not both of them,
198 to continue gainful employment at a rate per child per week as determined under rules established
199 by the board;

200 (f) funeral and burial expenses for death caused by the criminally injurious conduct,
201 subject to rules promulgated by the board pursuant to Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative 202 Rulemaking Act;

203 (g) loss of support to the dependent or dependents not otherwise compensated for a
204 pecuniary loss for personal injury, for as long as the dependence would have existed had the victim
205 survived, at a rate not to exceed 66-2/3% of the person's weekly salary or wages or the maximum 206 amount allowed under the state workers' compensation statute, whichever is less;

207 (h) personal property necessary and essential to the health or safety of the victim as defined
208 by rules promulgated by the board pursuant to Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative 209 Rulemaking Act; and

210 (i) medical examinations as defined in Subsection 63-25a-402(19), subject to rules
211 promulgated by the board pursuant to Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act,
212 which may allow for exemptions from Sections 63-25a-409, 63-25a-412, and 63-25a-413.

213 (5) If a Utah resident suffers injury or death as a result of criminally injurious conduct

214 inflicted in a state, territory, or country that does not provide a reciprocal crime victims'
215 compensation program, the Utah resident has the same rights under this chapter as if the injurious 216 conduct occurred in this state.

217 (6) An award of reparations shall not exceed $25,000 in the aggregate unless the victim
218 is entitled to proceeds in excess of that amount as provided in Subsection [~~76-3-201.2~~
219 77-38a-403](2). However, reparations for actual medical expenses incurred as a result of homicide, 220 attempted homicide, aggravated assault, or DUI offenses, may be awarded up to $50,000 in the

309 ~~[(iv) The Department of Corrections shall make rules permitting the restitution payments~~

319 (iii) convicted of a crime.

320 (b) The court may not order the defendant to pay restitution of governmental transportation
321 expenses if any of the following apply:

323 warrant is issued for an infraction; or

324 (ii) the defendant was not transported pursuant to a court order.

325 (c) (i) Restitution of governmental transportation expenses under Subsection (5)(a)(i) shall

328 (B) $125 for 100 up to 200 miles a defendant is transported; and 329 (C) $250 for 200 miles or more a defendant is transported.

330 (ii) The schedule of restitution under Subsection (5)(c)(i) applies to each defendant
331 transported regardless of the number of defendants actually transported in a single trip.

332 (d) If a defendant has been extradited to this state under Title 77, Chapter 30, Extradition, 333 to resolve pending criminal charges and is convicted of criminal activity in the county to which 334 he has been returned, the court may, in addition to any other sentence it may impose, order that the 335 defendant make restitution for costs expended by any governmental entity for the extradition.

336 (6) (a) If a statute under which the defendant was convicted mandates that one of three 337 stated minimum terms shall be imposed, the court shall order imposition of the term of middle 338 severity unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime.

339 (b) Prior to or at the time of sentencing, either party may submit a statement identifying 340 circumstances in aggravation or mitigation or presenting additional facts. If the statement is in 341 writing, it shall be filed with the court and served on the opposing party at least four days prior to 342 the time set for sentencing.

343 (c) In determining whether there are circumstances that justify imposition of the highest 344 or lowest term, the court may consider the record in the case, the probation officer's report, other
345 reports, including reports received under Section 76-3-404, statements in aggravation or mitigation 346 submitted by the prosecution or the defendant, and any further evidence introduced at the 347 sentencing hearing.

348 (d) The court shall set forth on the record the facts supporting and reasons for imposing 349 the upper or lower term.

350 (e) In determining a just sentence, the court shall consider sentencing guidelines regarding 351 aggravating and mitigating circumstances promulgated by the Sentencing Commission.

352 (7) If during the commission of a crime described as child kidnapping, rape of a child,
353 object rape of a child, sodomy upon a child, or sexual abuse of a child, the defendant causes
354 substantial bodily injury to the child, and if the charge is set forth in the information or indictment 355 and admitted by the defendant, or found true by a judge or jury at trial, the defendant shall be 356 sentenced to the highest minimum term in state prison. This subsection takes precedence over any 357 conflicting provision of law.

358 ~~[(8) (a) For the purpose of determining restitution for an offense, the offense shall include~~
359 ~~any criminal conduct admitted by the defendant to the sentencing court or to which the defendant~~
360 ~~agrees to pay restitution. A victim of an offense, that involves as an element a scheme, a~~
361 ~~conspiracy, or a pattern of criminal activity, includes any person directly harmed by the defendant's~~
362 ~~criminal conduct in the course of the scheme, conspiracy, or pattern.]~~

363 ~~[(b) In determining the monetary sum and other conditions for complete restitution, the~~

580 (B) In accordance with Section 77-18-6, the court shall record in the registry of civil 581 judgments any unpaid balance not already recorded and immediately transfer responsibility to

583 (iii) Upon motion of the Office of State Debt Collection, prosecutor, victim, or upon its 584 own motion, the court may require the defendant to show cause why his failure to pay should not 585 be treated as contempt of court.

586 (b) (i) The department shall notify the sentencing court, the Office of State Debt

608 affidavit establishes probable cause to believe that revocation, modification, or extension of 609 probation is justified.

610 (ii) If the court determines there is probable cause, it shall cause to be served on the 611 defendant a warrant for his arrest or a copy of the affidavit and an order to show cause why his 612 probation should not be revoked, modified, or extended.

618 (iv) The order shall also inform the defendant of a right to present evidence.

619 (d) (i) At the hearing, the defendant shall admit or deny the allegations of the affidavit.

620 (ii) If the defendant denies the allegations of the affidavit, the prosecuting attorney shall 621 present evidence on the allegations.

622 (iii) The persons who have given adverse information on which the allegations are based 623 shall be presented as witnesses subject to questioning by the defendant unless the court for good 624 cause otherwise orders.

625 (iv) The defendant may call witnesses, appear and speak in his own behalf, and present 626 evidence.

627 (e) (i) After the hearing the court shall make findings of fact.

628 (ii) Upon a finding that the defendant violated the conditions of probation, the court may

631 (iii) If probation is revoked, the defendant shall be sentenced or the sentence previously 632 imposed shall be executed.

633 (13) The court may order the defendant to commit himself to the custody of the Division
634 of Mental Health for treatment at the Utah State Hospital as a condition of probation or stay of 736 provided in Section 77-27-9.5, and any related rules made by the board under that section. This 737 information shall be provided in terms that are reasonable for the lay person to understand.

738 (3) Decisions of the board in cases involving paroles, pardons, commutations or 739 terminations of sentence, restitution, or remission of fines or forfeitures are final and are not 740 subject to judicial review. Nothing in this section prevents the obtaining or enforcement of a civil 741 judgment, including restitution as provided in Section 77-27-6.

742 (4) This chapter may not be construed as a denial of or limitation of the governor's power
743 to grant respite or reprieves in all cases of convictions for offenses against the state, except treason
744 or conviction on impeachment. However, respites or reprieves may not extend beyond the next 745 session of the Board of Pardons and Parole and the board, at that session, shall continue or 746 terminate the respite or reprieve, or it may commute the punishment, or pardon the offense as 747 provided. In the case of conviction for treason, the governor may suspend execution of the 748 sentence until the case is reported to the Legislature at its next session. The Legislature shall then 749 either pardon or commute the sentence, or direct its execution.

750 (5) In determining when, where, and under what conditions offenders serving sentences 751 may be paroled, pardoned, have restitution ordered, or have their fines or forfeitures remitted, or 752 their sentences commuted or terminated, the board shall consider whether the persons have made
753 or are prepared to make restitution as ascertained in accordance with the standards and procedures
754 of Section ~~[76-3-201]~~ 77-38a-302, as a condition of any parole, pardon, remission of fines or 755 forfeitures, or commutation or termination of sentence.

756 (6) In determining whether parole may be terminated, the board shall consider the offense
757 committed by the parolee, the parole period as provided in Section 76-3-202, and in accordance 758 with Section 77-27-13.

759 Section 10. Section 77-27-6 is amended to read:

760 77-27-6. Payment of restitution.

761 (1) When the Board of Pardons and Parole orders the release on parole of an inmate who 762 has been sentenced to make restitution pursuant to ~~[Section 76-3-201]~~ Title 77, Chapter 38a, Crime
763 Victims Restitution Act, or whom the board has ordered to make restitution, and all or a portion 764 of restitution is still owing, the board may establish a schedule, including both complete and 765 court-ordered restitution, by which payment of the restitution shall be made, or order compensatory
766 or other service in lieu of or in combination with restitution. In fixing the schedule and supervising
767 the paroled offender's performance, the board may consider the factors specified in ~~[Subsection~~
768 ~~76-3-201(4)]~~ Section 77-38a-302.

769 (2) The board may impose any court order for restitution and order that a defendant make 770 restitution in an amount not to exceed the pecuniary damages to the victim of the offense of which 771 the defendant has been convicted, the victim of any other criminal conduct admitted to by the

772 defendant to the sentencing court, or for conduct for which the defendant has agreed to make 773 restitution as part of a plea agreement, unless the board applying the criteria as set forth in 774 [~~Subsection 76-3-201(4)~~] Section 77-38a-302 determines that restitution is inappropriate.

775 (3) The board may also make orders of restitution for recovery of any or all costs incurred
776 by the Department of Corrections or the state or any other agency arising out of the defendant's 777 needs or conduct.

778 (4) If the defendant, upon termination of the parole period owes outstanding fines, 779 restitution, or other assessed costs, the matter shall be referred to the district court for civil 780 collection remedies. The Board of Pardons and Parole shall forward a restitution order to the 781 sentencing court to be entered on the judgment docket. The entry shall constitute a lien and is 782 subject to the same rules as a judgment for money in a civil judgment.

782a h Section 11. Section 77-32a-1 is amended to read:

782b 77-32a-1. Costs – Convicted defendant may be required to pay.

782c In a criminal action the court may require a convicted defendant to make
782d restitution and pay costs. h

783 Section h [~~11~~] 12 h . Section 77-37-3 is amended to read:

784 77-37-3. Bill of Rights.

785 (1) The bill of rights for victims and witnesses is:

786 (a) Victims and witnesses have a right to be informed as to the level of protection from 787 intimidation and harm available to them, and from what sources, as they participate in criminal
788 justice proceedings as designated by Section 76-8-508, regarding witness tampering, and Section
789 76-8-509, regarding threats against a victim. Law enforcement, prosecution, and corrections
790 personnel have the duty to timely provide this information in a form that is useful to the victim.

791 (b) Victims and witnesses, including children and their guardians, have a right to be 792 informed and assisted as to their role in the criminal justice process. All criminal justice agencies 793 have the duty to provide this information and assistance.

794 (c) Victims and witnesses have a right to clear explanations regarding relevant legal 795 proceedings; these explanations shall be appropriate to the age of child victims and witnesses. All 796 criminal justice agencies have the duty to provide these explanations.

797 (d) Victims and witnesses should have a secure waiting area that does not require them to 798 be in close proximity to defendants or the family and friends of defendants. Agencies controlling 799 facilities shall, whenever possible, provide this area.

800 (e) Victims are entitled to restitution or reparations, including medical costs, as provided
801 in Title 63, Chapter 25a, Criminal Justice and Substance Abuse, and Sections 62A-7-122, 802 [~~76-3-201~~] 77-38a-302, and 77-27-6. State and local government agencies that serve victims have

803 the duty to have a functional knowledge of the procedures established by the Utah Crime Victims'
804 Reparations Board and to inform victims of these procedures.

805 (f) Victims and witnesses have a right to have any personal property returned as provided 806 in Sections 77-24-1 through 77-24-5. Criminal justice agencies shall expeditiously return the 807 property when it is no longer needed for court law enforcement or prosecution purposes.

808 (g) Victims and witnesses have the right to reasonable employer intercession services,
809 including pursuing employer cooperation in minimizing employees' loss of pay and other benefits
810 resulting from their participation in the criminal justice process. Officers of the court shall provide 811 these services and shall consider victims' and witnesses' schedules so that activities which conflict
812 can be avoided. Where conflicts cannot be avoided, the victim may request that the responsible 813 agency intercede with employers or other parties.

814 (h) Victims and witnesses, particularly children, should have a speedy disposition of the 815 entire criminal justice process. All involved public agencies shall establish policies and procedures 816 to encourage speedy disposition of criminal cases.

817 (i) Victims and witnesses have the right to timely notice of judicial proceedings they are 818 to attend and timely notice of cancellation of any proceedings. Criminal justice agencies have the 819 duty to provide these notifications. Defense counsel and others have the duty to provide timely 820 notice to prosecution of any continuances or other changes that may be required.

821 (j) Victims of sexual offenses have a right to be informed of their right to request voluntary
822 testing for themselves for HIV infection as provided in Section 76-5-503 and to request mandatory
823 testing of the convicted sexual offender for HIV infection as provided in Section 76-5-502. The 824 law enforcement office where the sexual offense is reported shall have the responsibility to inform 825 victims of this right.

826 (2) Informational rights of the victim under this chapter are based upon the victim 827 providing his current address and telephone number to the criminal justice agencies involved in 828 the case.

829 Section 12. Section 77-38a-302 is amended to read:

830 77-38a-302. Restitution criteria.

831 (1) When a defendant is convicted of criminal activity that has resulted in pecuniary
832 damages, in addition to any other sentence it may impose, the court shall order that the defendant 833 make restitution to victims of crime as provided in this ~~[subsection]~~ chapter, or for conduct for

834 which the defendant has agreed to make restitution as part of a plea disposition. For purposes of 835 restitution, a victim has the meaning as defined in Subsection 77-38a-102~~(12)~~(13) and in 836 determining whether restitution is appropriate, the court shall follow the criteria and procedures
837 as provided in Subsections (2) through (5).

838 (2) In determining restitution, the court shall determine complete restitution and 839 court-ordered restitution.

840 (a) "Complete restitution" means restitution necessary to compensate a victim for all losses
841 caused by the defendant.

842 (b) "Court-ordered restitution" means the restitution the court having criminal jurisdiction
843 orders the defendant to pay as a part of the criminal sentence at the time of sentencing.

844 (c) Complete restitution and court-ordered restitution shall be determined as provided in 845 Subsection (5).

846 (3) If the court determines that restitution is appropriate or inappropriate under this part,
847 the court shall make the reasons for the decision part of the court record.

848 (4) If the defendant objects to the imposition, amount, or distribution of the restitution, the 849 court shall at the time of sentencing allow the defendant a full hearing on the issue.

850 (5) (a) For the purpose of determining restitution for an offense, the offense shall include
851 any criminal conduct admitted by the defendant to the sentencing court or to which the defendant
852 agrees to pay restitution. A victim of an offense that involves as an element a scheme, a
853 conspiracy, or a pattern of criminal activity, includes any person directly harmed by the defendant's
854 criminal conduct in the course of the scheme, conspiracy, or pattern.

855 (b) In determining the monetary sum and other conditions for complete restitution, the 856 court shall consider all relevant facts, including:

857 (i) the cost of the damage or loss if the offense resulted in damage to or loss or destruction
858 of property of a victim of the offense;

859 (ii) the cost of necessary medical and related professional services and devices relating to 860 physical or mental health care, including nonmedical care and treatment rendered in accordance 861 with a method of healing recognized by the law of the place of treatment;

862 (iii) the cost of necessary physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation;

863 (iv) the income lost by the victim as a result of the offense if the offense resulted in bodily 864 injury to a victim; and

865 (v) the cost of necessary funeral and related services if the offense resulted in the death of 866 a victim.

867 (c) In determining the monetary sum and other conditions for court-ordered restitution, the 868 court shall consider the factors listed in Subsections (5)(a) and (b) and:

869 (i) the financial resources of the defendant and the burden that payment of restitution will 870 impose, with regard to the other obligations of the defendant;

871 (ii) the ability of the defendant to pay restitution on an installment basis or on other 872 conditions to be fixed by the court;

873 (iii) the rehabilitative effect on the defendant of the payment of restitution and the method 874 of payment; and

875 (iv) other circumstances which the court determines may make restitution inappropriate.

876 (d) The court may decline to make an order or may defer entering an order of restitution
877 if the court determines that the complication and prolongation of the sentencing process, as a result 878 of considering an order of restitution under this subsection, substantially outweighs the need to 879 provide restitution to the victim.

880 Section 13. Section 77-38a-501 is amended to read:

881 77-38a-501. Default and sanctions.

882 When a defendant defaults in the payment of a judgment for restitution or any installment
883 ordered, the court, on motion of the prosecutor, parole or probation agent, victim, or on its own
884 motion may impose sanctions against the defendant as provided in [~~Subsection~~] Section 885 76-3-201[~~(4)~~].

886 Section 14. Repealer.

887 This act repeals:

888 Section 76-3-201.2, Civil action by victim for damages.

889 Section 77-32a-1, Restitution and costs -- Convicted defendant may be required to 890 pay.
