4 2003 GENERAL SESSION

5 STATE OF UTAH

6 Sponsor: Michael T. Morley

7 This act amends the Human Services Code and Open and Public Meetings. The act
8 modifies language in the Child Welfare Legislative Oversight Panel to conform terms
9 with the Open and Public Meetings Act. The act makes other technical changes to the 10 Child Welfare Legislative Oversight Panel. The act includes a reference to the Child
11 Welfare Legislative Oversight Panel in Open and Public Meetings.

12 This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

13 AMENDS:

14 52-4-5, as last amended by Chapter 89, Laws of Utah 1994

15 52-4-7.5, as enacted by Chapter 89, Laws of Utah 1994

16 62A-4a-207, as last amended by Chapter 6, Laws of Utah 2002, Fifth Special Session

17 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

18 Section 1. Section 52-4-5 is amended to read:

19 52-4-5. Purposes of closed meetings -- Chance meetings and social meetings
20 excluded -- Disruption of meetings.

21 (1) (a) A closed meeting may be held pursuant to Section 52-4-4 for any of the 22 following purposes:

23 (i) discussion of the character, professional competence, or physical or mental health of 24 an individual;

25 (ii) strategy sessions to discuss collective bargaining;

26 (iii) strategy sessions to discuss pending or reasonably imminent litigation; or

27 (iv) strategy sessions to discuss the purchase, exchange, or lease of real property when

28 public discussion of the transaction would disclose the appraisal or estimated value of the 29 property under consideration or prevent the public body from completing the transaction on the 30 best possible terms;

31 (v) strategy sessions to discuss the sale of real property when:

32 (A) public discussion of the transaction would disclose the appraisal or estimated value
33 of the property under consideration or prevent the public body from completing the transaction
34 on the best possible terms;

35 (B) the public body had previously given public notice that the property would be 36 offered for sale; and

37 (C) the terms of the sale are publicly disclosed before the public body approves the 38 sale;

39 (vi) discussion regarding deployment of security personnel, devices, or systems; ~~and~~

40 (vii) investigative proceedings regarding allegations of criminal misconduct[-]; and

41 (viii) review and discussion of individual child welfare cases by the Child Welfare

42 Legislative Oversight Panel under Section 62A-4a-207.

43 (b) A public body may not interview a person applying to fill an elected position in a 44 closed meeting.

45 (c) Nothing in this section may be construed to require any public body to approve the 46 purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property if that public body is not required to approve
47 the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property under other laws.

48 (2) This chapter shall not apply to any chance meeting or a social meeting. No chance
49 meeting or social meeting shall be used to circumvent this chapter.

50 (3) This chapter shall not prohibit the removal of any person who willfully disrupts a
51 meeting to the extent that orderly conduct is seriously compromised.

52 Section 2. Section 52-4-7.5 is amended to read:

53 52-4-7.5. Record of closed meetings.

54 (1) If a public body closes a meeting to discuss the character, professional competence,
55 or physical or mental health of an individual under Subsection 52-4-5(1)(a)(i) ~~[or]~~, to discuss
56 the deployment of security personnel, devices, or systems under Subsection 52-4-5(1)(a)(vi), or 57 to review and discuss individual child welfare cases under Subsection 52-4-5(1)(a)(viii), the 58 person presiding shall sign a sworn statement affirming that the sole purpose for closing the

59 meeting was to discuss:

60 (a) the character, professional competence, or physical or mental health of an 61 individual; [or]

62 (b) the deployment of security personnel, devices, or systems[=]; or

63 (c) individual child welfare cases.

64 (2) (a) If a public body closes a meeting under Subsection 52-4-5(1) for any purpose
65 other than to discuss the character, professional competence, or physical or mental health of an 66 individual [or], to discuss the deployment of security personnel, devices, or systems, or to 67 review and discuss individual child welfare cases, the public body shall either tape record the 68 closed portion of the meeting or keep detailed written minutes that disclose the content of the 69 closed portion of the meeting.

70 (b) (i) Tape recordings and written minutes of closed meetings are protected records
71 under Title 63, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, and any person
72 who violates the provisions of Section 63-2-801 is subject to the criminal penalties contained 73 in that section.

74 (ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection 63-2-202(4)(c), tape recordings and 75 written minutes of closed meetings, as protected records, may be disclosed pursuant to a court
76 order only as provided in Section 52-4-10.

77 Section 3. Section 62A-4a-207 is amended to read:

78 62A-4a-207. Legislative Oversight Panel -- Responsibilities.

79 (1) (a) There is created the Child Welfare Legislative Oversight Panel composed of the 80 following members:

81 (i) two members of the Senate, one from the majority party and one from the minority
82 party, appointed by the president of the Senate; and

83 (ii) three members of the House of Representatives, two from the majority party and 84 one from the minority party, appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives.

85 (b) Members of the panel shall serve for two-year terms, or until their successors are 86 appointed.

87 (c) A vacancy exists whenever a member ceases to be a member of the Legislature, or 88 when a member resigns from the panel. Vacancies shall be filled by the appointing authority, 89 and the replacement shall fill the unexpired term.

90 (2) The president of the Senate shall designate one of the senators appointed to the 91 panel under Subsection (1) as the Senate chair of the panel. The speaker of the House of 92 Representatives shall designate one of the representatives appointed to the panel under 93 Subsection (1) as the House chair of the panel.

94 (3) The panel shall follow the interim committee rules established by the Legislature.

95 (4) The panel shall:

96 (a) examine and observe the process and execution of laws governing the child welfare
97 system by the executive branch and the judicial branch;

98 (b) upon request, receive testimony from the public, the juvenile court, and from all
99 state agencies involved with the child welfare system including, but not limited to, the division,
100 other offices and agencies within the department, the attorney general's office, the Office of the 101 Guardian Ad Litem Director, and school districts;

102 (c) before October 1, 2002, and before October 1 of each year thereafter receive reports
103 from the division, the attorney general, and the judicial branch identifying the cases not in 104 compliance with the time limits established in Section 78-3a-308, regarding pretrial and 105 adjudication hearings, Section 78-3a-311, regarding dispositional hearings and reunification
106 services, and Section 78-3a-312, regarding permanency hearings and petitions for termination,
107 and the reasons for the noncompliance;

108 (d) receive recommendations from, and make recommendations to the governor, the 109 Legislature, the attorney general, the division, the Office of the Guardian Ad Litem Director,
110 the juvenile court, and the public;

111 (e) (i) receive reports from the executive branch and the judicial branch on budgetary 112 issues impacting the child welfare system; and

113 (ii) recommend, as it considers advisable, budgetary proposals to the Health and 114 Human Services Joint Appropriations Subcommittee, the Executive Offices and Criminal 115 Justice Appropriations Subcommittee, and the Executive Appropriations Committee, which 116 recommendation should be made before December 1 of each year;

117 (f) study and recommend proposed changes to laws governing the child welfare
118 system;

119 (g) study actions the state can take to preserve, unify, and strengthen the child's family
120 ties whenever possible in the child's best interest, including recognizing the constitutional

121 rights and claims of parents whenever those family ties are severed or infringed;
122 ~~[(h) study and determine what measures may be appropriate in addressing the~~ 123 ~~immunity or liability of government employees involved in child protective service~~
124 ~~investigations and removals, and report its findings to the Human Services Interim Committee~~
125 ~~on or before November 1, 2001;]~~

126 [(†)] (h) perform such other duties related to the oversight of the child welfare system 127 as the panel considers appropriate; and

128 [(‡)] (i) annually report its findings and recommendations to the president of the 129 Senate, the speaker of the House of Representatives, the Health and Human Services Interim
130 Committee, and the Judiciary Interim Committee.

131 (5) (a) The panel has authority to review and discuss individual cases.

132 (b) When an individual case is discussed, the panel's meeting may be ~~[held in private]~~ 133 closed pursuant to Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings.

134 (6) (a) The panel has authority to make recommendations to the Legislature, the 135 governor, the Board of Juvenile Court Judges, the division, and any other statutorily created
136 entity related to the policies and procedures of the child welfare system. The panel does not 137 have authority to make recommendations to the court, the division, or any other public or 138 private entity regarding the disposition of any individual case.

139 (b) The panel may hold public hearings, as it considers advisable, in various locations
140 within the state in order to afford all interested persons an opportunity to appear and present
141 their views regarding the child welfare system in this state.

142 (7) (a) All records of the panel regarding individual cases shall be classified private,
143 and may be disclosed only in accordance with federal law and the provisions of Title 63,
144 Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.

145 (b) The panel shall have access to all of the division's records, including those 146 regarding individual cases. In accordance with Title 63, Chapter 2, Government Records
147 Access Management Act, all documents and information received by the panel shall maintain 148 the same classification that was designated by the division.

149 (8) In order to accomplish its oversight functions, the panel has:

150 (a) all powers granted to legislative interim committees in Section 36-12-11; and

151 (b) legislative subpoena powers under Title 36, Chapter 14, Legislative Subpoena

152 Powers.

153 (9) Members of the panel shall receive salary and expenses in accordance with Section
154 36-2-2.

155 (10) (a) The Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel shall provide staff
156 support to the panel.

157 (b) The panel is authorized to employ additional professional assistance and other staff
158 members as it considers necessary and appropriate.
