Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 76-3-201.1 is amended to read:

76-3-201.1. Collection of criminal judgment accounts receivable.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Criminal judgment accounts receivable" means any amount due the state arising from a criminal judgment for which payment has not been received by the state agency that is servicing the debt.

26 (b) "Accounts receivable" includes unpaid fees, overpayments, fines, forfeitures,
27 surcharges, costs, interest, penalties, restitution to victims, third party claims, claims,
28 reimbursement of a reward, and damages.

29 (2) (a) A criminal judgment account receivable ordered by the court as a result of 30 prosecution for a criminal offense may be collected by any means authorized by law for the 31 collection of a civil judgment.

32 (b) (i) The court may permit a defendant to pay a criminal judgment account receivable
33 in installments.

34 (ii) In the district court, if the criminal judgment account receivable is paid in 35 installments, the total amount due shall include all fines, surcharges, postjudgment interest, and 36 fees.

37 (c) Upon default in the payment of a criminal judgment account receivable or upon 38 default in the payment of any installment of that receivable, the criminal judgment account
39 receivable may be collected as provided in this section or Subsection 77-18-1(9) or (10), and by 40 any means authorized by law for the collection of a civil judgment.

41 (3) When a defendant defaults in the payment of a criminal judgment account
42 receivable or any installment of that receivable, the court, on motion of the prosecution, victim,
43 or upon its own motion may:

44 (a) order the defendant to appear and show cause why the default should not be treated
45 as contempt of court; or

46 (b) issue a warrant of arrest.

47 (4) (a) Unless the defendant shows that the default was not attributable to an 48 intentional refusal to obey the order of the court or to a failure to make a good faith effort to 49 make the payment, the court may find that the default constitutes contempt.

50 (b) Upon a finding of contempt, the court may order the defendant committed until the 51 criminal judgment account receivable, or a specified part of it, is paid.

52 (5) If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the default is not contempt, the 53 court may enter an order for any of the following or any combination of the following:

54 (a) require the defendant to pay the criminal judgment account receivable or a specified
55 part of it by a date certain;

56 (b) restructure the payment schedule;

- 57 (c) restructure the installment amount;
- 58 (d) except as provided in Section 77-18-8, execute the original sentence of 59 imprisonment;
- 60 (e) start the period of probation anew;
- 61 (f) except as limited by Subsection (6), convert the criminal judgment account 62 receivable or any part of it to community service;
- 63 (g) except as limited by Subsection (6), reduce or revoke the unpaid amount of the 64 criminal judgment account receivable; or
- 65 (h) in the district court, record the unpaid balance of the criminal judgment account 66 receivable as a civil judgment and transfer the responsibility for collecting the judgment to the 67 Office of State Debt Collection.
- 68 (6) In issuing an order under this section, the court may not modify the amount of the 69 judgment of complete restitution.
- 70 (7) Whether or not a default constitutes contempt, the court may add to the amount 71 owed the fees established under Subsection 63A-8-201(4)(g) and postjudgment interest.
- 72 (8) (a) (i) If a criminal judgment account receivable is past due in a case supervised by 73 the Department of Corrections, the judge shall determine whether or not to record the unpaid
74 balance of the account receivable as a civil judgment.
- 75 (ii) If the judge records the unpaid balance of the account receivable as a civil 76 judgment, the judge shall transfer the responsibility for collecting the judgment to the Office of 77 State Debt Collection.
- 78 (b) If a criminal judgment account receivable in a case not supervised by the 79 Department of Corrections is past due, the district court may, without a motion or hearing, 80 record the unpaid balance of the criminal judgment account receivable as a civil judgment and
81 transfer the responsibility for collecting the account receivable to the Office of State Debt
82 Collection.
- 83 (c) If a criminal judgment account receivable in a case not supervised by the 84 Department of Corrections is more than 90 days past due, the district court shall, without a
85 motion or hearing, record the unpaid balance of the criminal judgment account receivable as a
86 civil judgment and transfer the responsibility for collecting the criminal judgment account
87 receivable to the Office of State Debt Collection.

88 (9) (a) When a fine, forfeiture, surcharge, cost permitted by statute, fee, or an order of 89 restitution is imposed on a corporation or unincorporated association, the person authorized to 90 make disbursement from the assets of the corporation or association shall pay the obligation
91 from those assets.

92 (b) Failure to pay the obligation may be held to be contempt under Subsection (3).

93 (10) The prosecuting attorney may collect restitution in behalf of a victim.

259 (k) (i) The court may through its probation department encourage the development of 260 employment or work programs to enable minors to fulfill their obligations under Subsection

262 (ii) Consistent with the order of the court, the probation officer may permit the minor
263 found to be within the jurisdiction of the court to participate in a program of work restitution or 264 compensatory service in lieu of paying part or all of the fine imposed by the court.
