

CONDITIONS FOR RELEASE AFTER NOTICE
REGARDING ARREST FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

2003 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

Sponsor: Peggy Wallace

This act modifies the Utah Code of Criminal Procedure by creating a section dealing specifically with notification requirements for an alleged perpetrator of domestic violence. This act makes technical changes.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

AMENDS:

77-36-2.5, as renumbered and amended by Chapter 300, Laws of Utah 1995

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 77-36-2.5 is amended to read:

77-36-2.5. Conditions for release after arrest for domestic violence.

(1) Upon arrest for domestic violence, a person may not be released on bail, recognizance, or otherwise prior to the close of the next court day following the arrest, unless as a condition of that release he is ordered by the court or agrees in writing that until the expiration of that time he will:

(a) have no personal contact with the alleged victim;
(b) not threaten or harass the alleged victim; and
(c) not knowingly enter onto the premises of the alleged victim's residence or any premises temporarily occupied by the alleged victim.

(2) As a condition of release, the court may order the defendant to participate in an electronic monitoring program described in Section 30-6-4.8, and pay the costs associated with the program.

(3) (a) Subsequent to an arrest for domestic violence, an alleged victim may waive in

28 writing any or all of the requirements described in Subsection (1). Upon waiver, those 29 requirements shall not apply to the alleged perpetrator.

30 (b) A court or magistrate may modify the requirements described in Subsections (1)(a)
31 or (c), in writing or on the record, and only for good cause shown.

32 (4) (a) Whenever a person is released pursuant to Subsection (1), the releasing agency
33 shall notify the arresting law enforcement agency of the release, conditions of release, and any
34 available information concerning the location of the victim. The arresting law enforcement
35 agency shall then make reasonable effort to notify the victim of that release.

36 (b) (i) When a person is released pursuant to Subsection (1) based on a written 37 agreement, the releasing agency shall transmit that information to the statewide domestic 38 violence network described in Section 30-6-8.

39 (ii) When a person is released pursuant to Subsection (1) based upon a court order, the 40 court shall transmit that order to the statewide domestic violence network described in Section
41 30-6-8.

42 (c) This Subsection (4) does not create or increase liability of a law enforcement officer
43 or agency, and the good faith immunity provided by Section 77-36-8 is applicable.

44 (5) (a) If a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a person has 45 violated a court order or agreement executed pursuant to Subsection (1) the officer shall,
46 without a warrant, arrest the alleged violator.

47 (b) Any person who knowingly violates a court order or agreement executed pursuant 48 to Subsection (1) shall be guilty as follows:

49 (i) if the original arrest was for a felony, an offense under this section is a third degree
50 felony; and

51 (ii) if the original arrest was for a misdemeanor, an offense under this section is a class
52 A misdemeanor.

53 (c) City attorneys may prosecute class A misdemeanor violations under this section.

54 (6) An individual who was originally arrested for a felony under this chapter and
55 released pursuant to this section, may subsequently be held without bail if there is substantial
56 evidence to support a new felony charge against him.

57 (7) At the time an arrest for domestic violence is made, the arresting officer shall 58 provide ~~[both]~~ the alleged victim ~~[and the alleged perpetrator]~~ with written notice containing the following information:

(a) the requirements described in Subsection (1), and notice that those requirements shall be ordered by a court or must be agreed to by the alleged perpetrator prior to release;

(b) notification of the penalties for violation of the court order or any agreement executed under Subsection (1);

(c) the date and time, absent modification by a court or magistrate, that the requirements expire;

(d) the address of the appropriate court in the district or county in which the alleged victim resides;

(e) the availability and effect of any waiver of the requirements; and

(f) information regarding the availability of and procedures for obtaining civil and criminal protective orders with or without the assistance of an attorney.

(8) At the time an arrest for domestic violence is made, the arresting officer shall provide the alleged perpetrator with written notice containing the following information:

(a) the requirements described in Subsection (1), and notice that those requirements shall be ordered by a court or must be agreed to by the alleged perpetrator prior to release;

(b) notification of the penalties for violation of the court order or any agreement executed under Subsection (1); and

(c) the date and time, absent modification by a court or magistrate, that the requirements expire.

[~~(8)~~] (9) In addition to the provisions of Subsections (1) through (6), because of the unique and highly emotional nature of domestic violence crimes, the high recidivism rate of violent offenders, and the demonstrated increased risk of continued acts of violence subsequent to the release of an offender who has been arrested for domestic violence, it is the finding of the Legislature that domestic violence crimes, as defined in Section 77-36-1, are crimes for which bail may be denied if there is substantial evidence to support the charge, and if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged perpetrator would constitute a substantial danger to an alleged victim of domestic violence if released on bail. If bail is denied under this subsection, it shall be under the terms and conditions described in Subsections (1) through (6).
