

REPEAL OF TRADING STAMPS REGULATION

2003 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

Sponsor: Scott K. Jenkins

This act repeals code provisions relating to the regulation of trading stamps. The act repeals provisions requiring persons in the business of trading stamps to establish an office in Utah, appoint a process attorney for civil actions, and post a bond. The act repeals provisions requiring trading stamps to display their redeemable value, and repeals provisions providing guidelines for the redemption of trading stamps.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:
