

ACCESS TO HEALTH CARE FACILITIES AND PLACES OF WORSHIP

2005 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

Sponsor: Douglas C. Aagard

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This bill modifies the Criminal Code to provide penalties for persons that block or hinder access to health care facilities or places of worship.

Highlighted Provisions:

This bill:

- ▶ provides that knowingly preventing or impeding passage to a health care facility or place of worship is a class B misdemeanor;
- ▶ provides that knowingly approaching within eight feet of a person for the purpose of passing out literature, displaying an object, or engaging in protest or counseling without the other person's consent is a class B misdemeanor if the person is within 100 feet of an entrance door to a health care facility or place of worship;
- ▶ permits recovery of civil damages and injunctive relief against a person who violates the above provisions or who incites another person to violate the above provisions;
- ▶ permits local political subdivisions to adopt different ordinances or regulations provided that they are at least as restrictive as the above provisions; and
- ▶ provides that an action for recovery of civil damages or injunctive relief is not dependent upon a person's conviction of the above provisions.

34 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

35 Section 1. Section 76-9-108 is enacted to read:

36 76-9-108. Preventing or interfering with passage to and from a health care facility
37 or place of worship -- Civil penalties and injunctive relief.

38 (1) As used in this section:

39 (a) "Health care facility" means general acute hospitals, specialty hospitals, home
40 health agencies, hospices, nursing care facilities, residential-assisted living facilities, birthing
41 centers, ambulatory surgical facilities, small health care facilities, abortion clinics, facilities
42 owned or operated by health maintenance organizations, end state renal disease facilities, and
43 any other health facility that the Health Facility Committee created in Section 26-1-7
44 designates by rule.

45 (b) "Place of worship" means a church, temple, synagogue, mosque, or other building
46 set apart primarily for the purpose of worship in which religious services are held.

47 (2) (a) A person is guilty of preventing or impeding passage to a health care facility or
48 place of worship if the person ~~H~~→ intentionally or ←~~H~~ knowingly obstructs, detains, hinders,
48a impedes, or blocks
49 another person's entry to or exit from the health care facility or place of worship.

50 (b) A person who violates Subsection (2)(a) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

51 (3) (a) A person is guilty of unlawfully interfering with passage to a health care facility
52 or place of worship if, within a radius of 100 feet from any entrance door to a health care
53 facility or place of worship, the person ~~H~~→ intentionally or ←~~H~~ knowingly approaches within
53a eight feet of another
54 person for the purpose of:

55 (i) passing a leaflet or handbill;

56 (ii) displaying a sign or object; or

57 (iii) engaging in oral protest, education, or counseling with the other person.

58 (b) Subsection (3)(a) does not apply if the other person consents to the approach.

- 59 (c) A person who violates Subsection (3)(a) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.
60 (4) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit a local political subdivision
61 from adopting a law, regulation, or ordinance that is at least as restrictive as the provisions of 62 this section.
63 (5) In addition to the penalties set forth in Subsections (2)(b) and (3)(c), any person
64 who violates the provisions of this section or incites another person to violate this section shall 65 be subject to:
66 (a) injunctive relief; and
67 (b) a civil action for the recovery of:
68 (i) actual damages;
69 (ii) costs and attorney fees; and
70 (iii) if the court determines that the circumstances are appropriate, punitive damages.
71 (6) A conviction for criminal violation of a provision of this section is not a condition
72 precedent to maintaining a civil action or a request for injunctive relief under Subsection (5).

State Impact

Provisions of this bill could increase both the number of cases prosecuted and the number of persons convicted of Class B misdemeanors. It is estimated that any additional workload created by this bill could be absorbed within existing budgets.

Individual and Business Impact

Under the provisions of this bill, a person could receive fines of up to $1,000 or spend time incarcerated. Time incarcerated may reduce a person's ability to generate personal income.
