- 41 plants, and transmission lines to the extent owned and used by an individual or corporation to
- 42 irrigate land that is:
- 43 (i) within the State; and
- 44 (ii) owned by the individual or corporation, or by an individual member of the
- 45 corporation.
- 46 (2) (a) The Legislature may by statute exempt the following from property tax:
- 47 (i) tangible personal property constituting inventory present in the State on January 1
- 48 and held for sale in the ordinary course of business;
- 49 (ii) tangible personal property present in the State on January 1 and held for sale or
- 50 processing and shipped to a final destination outside the State within 12 months;
- 51 (iii) subject to Subsection (2)(b), property to the extent used to generate and deliver
- 52 electrical power for pumping water to irrigate lands in the State;
- 53 (iv) up to 45% of the fair market value of residential property, as defined by statute;
- 54 and
- 55 (v) household furnishings, furniture, and equipment used exclusively by the owner of
- 56 that property in maintaining the owner's home.
- 57 (b) The exemption under Subsection (2)(a)(iii) shall accrue to the benefit of the users
- 58 of pumped water as provided by statute.

(3) The following may be exempted from property tax as provided by statute:

(a) property owned by a disabled person who, during military training or a military conflict, was disabled in the line of duty in the military service of the United States or the State; [and]

(b) property owned by the unmarried surviving spouse or the minor orphan of a person who:

(i) is described in Subsection (3)(a); or

(ii) during military training or a military conflict, was killed in action or died in the line of duty in the military service of the United States or the State[-]; and

(c) property owned by a person who has been honorably discharged, as defined by statute, from the military service of the United States or the State.

(4) The Legislature may by statute provide for the remission or abatement of the taxes of the poor.

Section 2. Submittal to voters.

The lieutenant governor is directed to submit this proposed amendment to the voters of the state at the next regular general election in the manner provided by law.

Section 3. Effective date.

If the amendment proposed by this joint resolution is approved by a majority of those voting on it at the next regular general election, the amendment shall take effect on January 1, 2007.
