30	(1) A deceptive act or practice by a supplier in connection with a consumer transaction
31	violates this chapter whether it occurs before, during, or after the transaction.
32	(2) Without limiting the scope of Subsection (1), a supplier commits a deceptive act or
33	practice if the supplier knowingly or intentionally:
34	(a) indicates that the subject of a consumer transaction has sponsorship, approval,
35	performance characteristics, accessories, uses, or benefits, if it has not;
36	(b) indicates that the subject of a consumer transaction is of a particular standard,
37	quality, grade, style, or model, if it is not;
38	(c) indicates that the subject of a consumer transaction is new, or unused, if it is not, or
39	has been used to an extent that is materially different from the fact;
40	(d) indicates that the subject of a consumer transaction is available to the consumer for
41	a reason that does not exist;
42	(e) indicates that the subject of a consumer transaction has been supplied in accordance
43	with a previous representation, if it has not;
44	(f) indicates that the subject of a consumer transaction will be supplied in greater
45	quantity than the supplier intends;
46	(g) indicates that replacement or repair is needed, if it is not;
47	(h) indicates that a specific price advantage exists, if it does not;
48	(i) indicates that the supplier has a sponsorship, approval, or affiliation the supplier
49	does not have;
50	(j) (i) indicates that a consumer transaction involves or does not involve a warranty, a
51	disclaimer of warranties, particular warranty terms, or other rights, remedies, or obligations, if
52	the representation is false; or
53	(ii) fails to honor a warranty or a particular warranty term;
54	(k) indicates that the consumer will receive a rebate, discount, or other benefit as an
55	inducement for entering into a consumer transaction in return for giving the supplier the names
56	of prospective consumers or otherwise helping the supplier to enter into other consumer
57	transactions, if receipt of the benefit is contingent on an event occurring after the consumer
