AMENDS:

36-12-13, as last amended by Chapter 55, Laws of Utah 1998

28 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

29 Section 1. Section 36-12-13 is amended to read:

30 36-12-13. Office of Legislative Fiscal Analyst established -- Powers, functions,
31 and duties -- Qualifications.

32 (1) There is established an Office of Legislative Fiscal Analyst as a permanent staff
33 office for the Legislature.

34 (2) The powers, functions, and duties of the Office of Legislative Fiscal Analyst under 35 the supervision of the fiscal analyst are:

36 (a) to analyze in detail the executive budget before the convening of each legislative 37 session and make recommendations to the Legislature on each item or program appearing in 38 the executive budget;

39 (b) to prepare cost estimates on all proposed bills that anticipate state government
40 expenditures;

41 (c) to prepare cost estimates on all proposed bills that anticipate expenditures by 42 county, municipal, or special district governments;

43 (d) to prepare cost estimates on all proposed bills that anticipate direct expenditures by
44 any Utah resident, and the cost to the overall impacted Utah resident population;

45 (e) to prepare a review and analysis of revenue estimates for existing and proposed
46 revenue acts;

47 (f) to report instances in which the administration may be failing to carry out the 48 expressed intent of the Legislature;

49 (g) to direct attention to each new proposed service contained in the governor's budget;

50 (h) to direct attention to each budget item previously denied by the Legislature;

51 (i) to propose and analyze statutory changes for more effective operational economies
52 or more effective administration;

53 (j) to prepare, after each session of the Legislature, a summary showing the effect of 54 the final legislative program on the financial condition of the state;

55 (k) to conduct organizational and management improvement studies;

56 (l) to prepare and deliver upon request of any interim committee or the Legislative
57 Management Committee, reports on the finances of the state and on anticipated or proposed
58 requests for appropriations;

59 (m) to recommend areas for research studies by the executive department or the interim
60 committees;

61 (n) to assist in prescribing the format for the presentation of the governor's budget to
62 facilitate program and in-depth review of state expenditures in accordance with Sections
63 63-38-14 and 63-38-15;

64 (o) to recommend to the appropriations subcommittees the agencies or programs for 65 which an in-depth budget review should be requested, and to recommend to the Legislative 66 Management Committee the priority in which the request should be made;

67 (p) to appoint and develop a professional staff within budget limitations; and

68 (q) to prepare and submit the annual budget request for the office.

69 (3) (a) In accordance with Subsection (3)(b) and subject to Subsection (3)(c), the 70 Office of Legislative Fiscal Analyst shall submit an annual report to the Executive
71 Appropriations Committee of the Legislature, at the committee's November meeting, on funds
72 expended by the state during the preceding state fiscal year to provide financial assistance or 73 services to low-income individuals and families.

74 (b) The report described in Subsection (3)(a) shall:

75 (i) separate the funds expended into categories by program, service, or population
76 served;

77 (ii) indicate whether the expended funds described in Subsection (3)(a) are state or 78 federal funds; and

79 (iii) include a total of all state funds and federal funds expended by the state in the 80 preceding fiscal year to provide financial assistance or services to low-income individuals and 81 families.

82 (c) If the Executive Appropriations Committee of the Legislature does not meet in 83 November, the Office of Legislative Fiscal Analyst shall submit the report described in 84 Subsection (3)(a) at the committee's next meeting.

85 ~~(3)~~ (4) The legislative fiscal analyst shall have a master's degree in public
86 administration, political science, economics, accounting, or the equivalent in academic or 87 practical experience.

88 ~~(4)~~ (5) In carrying out the duties provided for in this section, the legislative fiscal 89 analyst may obtain access to all records, documents, and reports necessary to the scope of his

90 duties according to the procedures contained in Title 36, Chapter 14, Legislative Subpoena
91 Powers.
