34 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

35 Section 1. Section 24-1-8 is amended to read:

36 24-1-8. Criminal procedures.

37 (1) In cases where an owner is criminally prosecuted for conduct giving rise to 38 forfeiture, the prosecuting attorney may elect to forfeit the owner's interest in the property 39 civilly or criminally, provided that no civil forfeiture judgment may be entered with respect to 40 the property of a defendant who is acquitted of the offense on which the forfeiture claim is 41 based.

42 (2) If the prosecuting attorney elects to criminally forfeit the owner's interest in the 43 property, the information or indictment must state that the owner's interest in the specifically 44 described property is subject to criminal forfeiture and the basis for the forfeiture.

45 (3) (a) Upon application of the prosecuting attorney, the court may enter restraining 46 orders or injunctions, or take other reasonable action to preserve for forfeiture under this 47 section any forfeitable property if, after notice to persons known, or discoverable after due 48 diligence, to have an interest in the property and after affording them an opportunity for a 49 hearing, the court determines that:

50 (i) there is a substantial probability that the state will prevail on the issue of forfeiture
51 and that failure to enter the order will result in the property being sold, transferred, destroyed, 52 or removed from the jurisdiction of the court or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture; and

53 (ii) the need to preserve the availability of the property or prevent its sale, transfer, 54 destruction, or removal through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship against 55 any party against whom the order is to be entered.

56 (b) A temporary restraining order may be entered ex parte upon application of the 57 prosecuting attorney before or after an information or indictment has been filed with respect to 58 the property, if the prosecuting attorney demonstrates that:

59 (i) there is probable cause to believe that the property with respect to which the order is 60 sought would, in the event of a conviction, be subject to forfeiture under this section; and

61 (ii) provision of notice would jeopardize the availability of the property for forfeiture
62 or would jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation.

63 (c) The temporary order expires not more than ten days after entry unless extended for 64 good cause shown or unless the party against whom it is entered consents to an extension. An 65 adversarial hearing concerning an order entered under this ~~[paragraph]~~ section shall be held as 66 soon as practicable and prior to the expiration of the temporary order.

67 (d) The court is not bound by the Utah Rules of Evidence regarding evidence it may 68 receive and consider at any hearing under this ~~[paragraph]~~ section.

69 (4) (a) Upon conviction by a jury of an owner for conduct giving rise to criminal 70 forfeiture, the jury shall be instructed and asked to return a special verdict as to the extent of 71 the property identified in the information or indictment, if any, that is forfeitable.

72 (b) Whether property is forfeitable shall be proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

73 (5) (a) Upon conviction of a person for violating any provision of state law subjecting 74 an owner's property to forfeiture and upon the jury's special verdict that the property is 75 forfeitable, the court shall enter a judgment and order the property forfeited to the state
76 ~~§~~ → [treasurer] ← ~~§~~ upon the terms stated by the court in its order.

77 (b) Following the entry of an order declaring property forfeited, the court may, upon 78 application of the prosecuting attorney, enter appropriate restraining orders or injunctions,
79 require the execution of satisfactory performance bonds, appoint receivers, conservators, 80 appraisers, accountants, or trustees, or take any other action to protect the interest of the state in 81 property ordered forfeited.

82 (6) (a) After property is ordered forfeited under this section, the ~~§~~ → [state treasurer] seizing 82a agency ← ~~§~~ shall
83 direct the disposition of the property under Section ~~[24-1-16]~~ 24-1-17. Any property right or 84 interest not exercisable by or transferable for value to the state expires and does not revert to 85 the defendant. The defendant or any person acting in concert with or on behalf of the 86 defendant is not eligible to purchase forfeited property at any sale held by the ~~§~~ → [state treasurer]
86a seizing agency ← ~~§~~
87 unless approved by the judge.

88 (b) The court may stay the sale or disposition of the property pending the conclusion of 89 any appeal of the criminal case giving rise to the forfeiture if the defendant demonstrates that

90 proceeding with the sale or disposition of the property may result in irreparable injury, harm or 91 loss to him.

92 (7) Except under [~~Subparagraphs~~] Subsection (3) or (10), a party claiming an interest in 93 property subject to criminal forfeiture under this section:

94 (a) may not intervene in a trial or appeal of a criminal case involving the forfeiture of 95 property under this section; and

96 (b) may not commence an action at law or equity against the state or the county
97 concerning the validity of his alleged interests in the property subsequent to the filing of an 98 indictment or an information alleging that the property is subject to forfeiture under this 99 section.

100 (8) The district court of the state which has jurisdiction of a case under this part may 101 enter orders under this section without regard to the location of any property which may be 102 subject to forfeiture under this section, or which has been ordered forfeited under this section.

103 (9) To facilitate the identification or location of property declared forfeited and to 104 facilitate the disposition of petitions for remission or mitigation of forfeiture, after the entry of 105 an order declaring property forfeited to the state ~~§~~→[treasurer] ←~~§~~, the court[;] may upon application of 106 the prosecuting attorney[;] order that the testimony of any witness relating to the property 107 forfeited be taken by deposition, and that any book, paper, document, record, recording, or 108 other material not privileged shall be produced as provided for depositions and discovery under 109 the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

110 (10) (a) Following the entry of an order of forfeiture under this section, the prosecuting
111 attorney shall publish notice of the order's intent to dispose of the property as the court may 112 direct. The prosecuting attorney shall also provide direct written notice to any person known to 113 have an alleged interest in the property subject to the order of forfeiture.

114 (b) Any person, other than the defendant, asserting a legal interest in property which 115 has been ordered forfeited to the state ~~§~~→ [treasurer] ←~~§~~ under this section may, within 30 days of the
116 final publication of notice or his receipt of written notice under [~~Subparagraph (a)~~] Subsection 117 (10)(a), whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of his 118 alleged interest in the property. Any genuine issue of material fact, including issues of 119 standing, is triable to a jury upon demand of any party.

120 (c) The petition shall be in writing and signed by the petitioner under penalty of 121 perjury. It shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the 122 property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest

 123 in the property, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

124 (d) The trial or hearing on the petition shall be expedited to the extent practicable. The 125 court may consolidate a trial or hearing on the petition and any petition filed by any other 126 person under this section other than the defendant. The court shall permit the parties to 127 conduct pretrial discovery pursuant to the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

128 (e) At the trial or hearing, the petitioner may testify and present evidence and witnesses
 129 on his own behalf and cross-examine witnesses who appear at the hearing. The prosecuting 130 attorney may present evidence and witnesses in rebuttal and in defense of the claim to the 131 property and cross-examine witnesses who appear. In addition to testimony and evidence 132 presented at the trial or hearing, the court may consider the relevant portion of the record of the 133 criminal case which resulted in the order of forfeiture. Any trial or hearing shall be conducted 134 pursuant to the Utah Rules of Evidence.

135 (f) The court shall amend the order of forfeiture in accordance with its determination, if 136 after the trial or hearing, the court or jury determines that the petitioner has established by a 137 preponderance of the evidence that:

138 (i) the petitioner has a legal right, title, or interest in the property, and the right, title, or 139 interest renders the order of forfeiture invalid in whole or in part because the right, title, or 140 interest was vested in the petitioner rather than the defendant or was superior to any right, title,
 141 or interest of the defendant at the time of the commission of the acts or conduct which gave rise 142 to the forfeiture of the property under this section; or

143 (ii) the petitioner acquired the right, title or interest in the property in a bona fide 144 transaction for value and, at the time of such acquisition, the petitioner did not know that the 145 property was subject to forfeiture.

146 (g) Following the court's disposition of all petitions filed under this [paragraph]
 147 Subsection (10), or if no petitions are filed following the expiration of the period provided in 148 [~~Subparagraph (b)~~] Subsection (10)(b) for the filing of petitions, the state ~~§~~→ [treasurer] ←~~§~~ has clear

149 title to property subject to the order of forfeiture and may warrant good title to any subsequent 150 purchaser or transferee.

151 Section 2. Section 24-1-15 is amended to read:

152 24-1-15. Transfer and sharing procedures.

153 (1) For purposes of this section, property is considered to be "seized" whenever any 154 state, county, or municipal law enforcement agency takes possession of the property or 155 exercises any degree of control over the property.

156 (2) When property is seized pursuant to the order of a state district court or state 157 statute, the state has priority jurisdiction.

158 [~~(2)~~(a)] (3) Seizing agencies or prosecuting attorneys authorized to bring civil or 159 criminal forfeiture proceedings under this chapter may not directly or indirectly transfer seized 160 property not already named in a criminal indictment to any federal agency or any governmental 161 entity not created under and subject to state law unless the court enters an order, upon petition
162 of the prosecuting attorney, authorizing the property to be transferred. The court may not enter 163 an order authorizing a transfer unless:

164 [(i)] (a) the [~~activity~~] conduct giving rise to the investigation or seizure is interstate in 165 nature and sufficiently complex to justify the transfer;

166 [(ii)] (b) the seized property may only be forfeited under federal law; or

167 [(iii)] (c) pursuing forfeiture under state law would unreasonably burden prosecuting
168 attorneys or state law enforcement agencies.

169 (4) A petition to transfer property under this section to a federal agency shall include:

170 (a) a detailed description of the property seized;

171 (b) the location where the property was seized;

172 (c) the date the property was seized;

173 (d) case number assigned by the seizing law enforcement agency; and

174 (e) a sworn affidavit that:

175 (i) is signed by the prosecutor;

176 (ii) states the basis for relinquishing priority jurisdiction to a federal agency; and 177 (iii) contains the names and addresses of any potential owners then known.

178 [~~(b)~~] (5) Notwithstanding Subsection [~~(2)~~(a)] (3), the court may refuse to enter an order 179 authorizing a transfer to the federal government if the transfer would circumvent the 180 protections of the Utah Constitution or of this chapter that would otherwise be available to the 181 property owner.

182 [~~(c)~~] (6) (a) Prior to granting any order to transfer pursuant to Subsection [~~(2)~~(a)] (3),

183 the court [~~must~~] shall give any owner the right to be heard with regard to the transfer[-] by 184 sending notice to each address contained in the sworn affidavit.

185 (b) If no potential owner objects to the petition to transfer property within ten days of 186 the mailing of the notice, the court shall issue its order under this section.

187 (c) If the affidavit provides no address for a potential owner, the court shall delay its 188 order under this section for 20 days to allow time for the potential owner to appear and object.

189 (7) (a) If a potential owner contests a petition to transfer property to a federal agency, 190 the court shall promptly set the matter for hearing.

191 (b) The court shall determine whether the state may relinquish priority jurisdiction by a 192 preponderance of the evidence by considering hardship, complexity, judicial, and law
193 enforcement resources, and any other matter the court determines to be relevant.

194 [~~(3)~~] (8) (a) Subject to Subsection [~~(3)~~] (8)(b), all property, money, or other things of 195 value received by an agency pursuant to federal law which authorizes the sharing or transfer of 196 all or a portion of forfeited property or the proceeds of the sale of forfeited property to an 197 agency:

198 (i) shall be used in compliance with federal rules and regulations relating to equitable 199 sharing;

200 (ii) shall be used only for those law enforcement purposes specified in Subsection 201 24-1-19(8); and

202 (iii) may not be used for those law enforcement purposes prohibited in Subsection 203 24-1-19(9).

204 (b) If an agency receives forfeiture proceeds under Subsection [~~(3)~~] (8)(a) that equal an 205 amount that is more than 25% greater than the annual budget of the receiving agency, the 206 amount of the proceeds that is in excess of 125% of the agency's annual budget shall be passed
207 through by the agency to the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice to be used for the 208 purposes under Section 24-1-19.

209 (c) Subject to Subsection [~~(3)~~] (8)(a), state agencies are encouraged to seek an 210 equitable share of property forfeited by the federal government and to cooperate with federal 211 law enforcement agencies in all cases in which cooperation is in the interest of this state.

212 (d) A law enforcement agency awarded any equitable share of property forfeited by the 213 federal government may only use the award monies after approval or appropriation by the 214 agency's legislative body.

215 (e) Law enforcement agencies are entitled to their equitable share of property forfeited
216 by the federal government since March 29, 2001.

217 (f) (i) Each agency awarded any equitable share of property forfeited by the federal 218 government shall file copies of all federal equitable sharing certifications, applications, and 219 reports with the state auditor and the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice at least 220 annually.

221 (ii) This information shall provide details of all awards received from the federal 222 government during the preceding reporting period, including for each award:

223 (A) the agency's case number or other identification;

224 (B) the amount of the award;

225 (C) the date of the award;

226 (D) the identity of the federal agency involved in the forfeiture;

227 (E) how the awarded property has been used; and

228 (F) a statement signed by both the agency's executive officer or designee and by the 229 agency's legal counsel, that the agency has only used the awarded property for crime reduction
230 or law enforcement purposes authorized under Section 24-1-19, and only upon approval or 231 appropriation by the agency's legislative body.

232 [~~(4)~~] (9) (a) Any agency that violates Subsection [~~(2)~~] (3) or [~~(3)~~] (8) is civilly liable to 233 the state for three times the amount of the forfeiture diverted and for costs of suit and 234 reasonable [~~attorneys'~~] attorney fees.

235 (b) Any damages awarded to the state shall be paid to the Criminal Forfeiture
236 Restricted Account created in Section 24-1-18.

237 (c) Any agent, including a state law enforcement officer, detached to, deputized or 238 commissioned by, or working in conjunction with a federal agency, who knowingly transfers or 239 otherwise trades seized property in violation of Subsection [~~(2)(a)~~] (3) or who receives 240 property, money, or other things of value under Subsection [~~(3)~~] (8)(a) and knowingly fails to 241 transfer the property in accordance with this section is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

242 Section 3. Section 32A-13-103 is amended to read:

245 protections established in Title 24, Chapter 1, Utah Uniform Forfeiture Procedures Act:

247 supplied, received, purchased, stored, warehoused, manufactured, adulterated, shipped, carried,
248 transported, or distributed in violation of this title or commission rules;

249 (b) all packages or property used or intended for use as a container for an alcoholic
250 product in violation of this title or commission rules;

252 manufacturing, processing, adulterating, delivering, importing, or exporting any alcoholic
253 product in violation of this title or commission rules;

255 violation of this title or commission rules;

259 (f) all books, records, receipts, ledgers, or other documents used or intended for use in 260 violation of this title or commission rules.

261 (2) Any of the property subject to forfeiture under this title may be seized by any peace
262 officer of this state or any other person authorized by law upon process issued by any court
263 having jurisdiction over the property in accordance with the procedures provided in Title 77, 264 Chapter 23, Part 2, Search Warrants. However, seizure without process may be made when:

265 (a) the seizure is incident to an arrest or search under a search warrant or an inspection
266 under an administrative inspection warrant;

268 the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding under this title;

269 (c) the peace officer or other person authorized by law has probable cause to believe 270 that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

271 (d) the peace officer or other person authorized by law has probable cause to believe

277 If the magistrate who issued the warrant is a justice court judge, upon the filing of the return
278 the jurisdiction of the justice court shall cease and the magistrate shall certify the record and all

280 the time of this filing, the district court has jurisdiction of the case.

281 (4) In the event of seizure of property without process, the peace officer or other person

283 the county in which the property was located, and the district court shall have jurisdiction of 284 the case. The return shall describe all property seized, the place where it was seized, and any 285 persons in apparent possession of the property. The officer or other person shall also promptly 286 deliver a written inventory of anything seized to any person in apparent authority at the 287 premises where the seizure was made, or post it in a conspicuous place at the premises. The 288 inventory shall state the place where the property is being held.

297 in accordance with law.

299 instituted in accordance with the procedures and substantive protections of Title 24, Chapter 1, 300 Utah Uniform Forfeiture Procedures Act.

303 property, the property, if an alcoholic product or a package used as a container for an alcoholic 304 product, shall be disposed of as follows:

- 305 (a) If the alcoholic product is unadulterated, pure, and free from crude, unrectified, or
