32 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

33 Section 1. Section 53A-3-426 is enacted to read:

34 53A-3-426. Education employee associations -- Equal participation -- Prohibition
35 on endorsement or preferential treatment -- Naming of school breaks.

36 (1) As used in this section:

37 (a) "Education employee association" includes teacher associations, teacher unions,
38 teacher organizations, and classified education employees' association.

39 (b) "School" means a school district, a school in a school district, a charter school, or 40 the State Board of Education and its employees.

41 (2) A school shall allow education employee associations equal access to the following
42 activities:

43 (a) distribution of information in or access to teachers' or employees' physical or 44 electronic mailboxes, including email accounts that are provided by the school; and

45 (b) membership solicitation activities at new teacher or employee orientation training
46 or functions.

47 (3) If a school permits an education employee association to engage in any of the 48 activities described in Subsection (2), the school shall permit all other education employee
49 associations to engage in the activity on the same terms and conditions afforded to the 50 education employee association.

51 (4) It is unlawful for a school to:

52 (a) establish or maintain structures, procedures, or policies that favor one education
53 employee association over another or otherwise give preferential treatment to an education
54 employee association; or

55 (b) explicitly or implicitly endorse any education employee association.

56 (5) A school's calendars and publications may not include or refer to the name of any

57 education employee association in relation to any day or break in the school calendar.
