27 ENACTS:

28 53A-15-105, Utah Code Annotated 1953

29

30 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

31 Section 1. Section 53A-15-104 is amended to read:

32 53A-15-104. Critical Languages Program -- Pilot.

33 (1) (a) As used in this section, "critical languages" means those languages described in
34 the federal National Security Language Initiative, including Chinese, Arabic, Russian, Farsi,
35 Hindi, and Korean.

36 (b) The Legislature recognizes:

37 (i) the importance of students acquiring skills in foreign languages in order for them to 38 successfully compete in a global society; and

39 (ii) the academic, societal, and economic development benefits of the acquisition of 40 critical languages.

41 (2) (a) The State Board of Education, in consultation with the Utah Education
42 Network, shall develop and implement courses of study in the critical languages.

43 (b) A course may be taught:

44 (i) over EDNET, the state's two-way interactive system for video and audio, to students
45 in the state's public education system; [or]

46 (ii) through the Electronic High School[-];

47 (iii) through traditional instruction; or

48 (iv) by visiting guest teachers.

49 (3) (a) The courses authorized in Subsection (2) may use paraprofessionals in the 50 classroom who:

51 (i) are fluent in the critical language being taught; and

52 (ii) can provide reinforcement and tutoring to students on days and at times when they
53 are not receiving instruction over EDNET under Subsection (2)(b).

54 (b) The State Board of Education, through the state superintendent of public
55 instruction, shall ensure that the paraprofessionals are fluent in the critical languages.

56 (4) The State Board of Education shall make rules on the critical languages courses

57 authorized under this section in accordance with Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative 58 Rulemaking Act, to include:

- 59 (a) notification to school districts on the times and places of the course offerings; and
- 60 (b) instructional materials for the courses.

61 (5) The State Board of Education shall track and monitor the Critical Languages
62 Program and may expand the program to include more course offerings and other critical
63 languages, subject to student demand for the courses and available resources.

64 (6) (a) Subject to funding for the program, the State Board of Education shall establish
65 a pilot program for school districts and schools to initially participate in the Critical Languages
66 Program that provides:

67 ~~[(a)]~~ (i) up to $6,000 per language per school, for up to ~~[20]~~ 60 schools, for courses
68 offered in critical languages;

69 ~~[(b)]~~ (ii) up to $100 per student who completes a critical languages course; and

70 ~~[(c)]~~ (iii) up to an additional $400 per foreign exchange student who completes a
71 critical languages course.

72 (b) If the available funding is insufficient to provide the amounts described under
73 Subsection (6)(a), the amounts provided shall be reduced pro rata so that the total provided
74 does not exceed the available funding.

75 Section 2. Section 53A-15-105 is enacted to read:

76 53A-15-105. Dual Language Immersion Program -- Pilot.

77 (1) Subject to funding for the program, the State Board of Education shall establish a
78 pilot program for school districts and schools to initially participate in the Dual Language
79 Immersion Program.

80 (2) The program shall provide funds as an incentive to 15 qualifying schools for the 81 following languages:

82 (a) six pilots for Chinese;

83 (b) six pilots for Spanish;

84 (c) two pilots for French; and

85 (d) one pilot for Navajo.

86 (3) Subject to funding for the program, a qualifying school shall:

87 (a) receive up to $18,000 per year for up to six years;

88 (b) establish an instructional model that uses 50% of instruction in English and 50% of 89 instruction in another language; and

90 (c) begin the instructional model described under Subsection (3)(b) in kindergarten or 91 grade 1 and add an additional grade each year.

92 Section 3. One-time appropriation.

93 (1) There is appropriated $750,000 from the Uniform School Fund for fiscal year
94 2008-09 only to the State Board of Education.

95 (2) It is the intent of the Legislature that the appropriation under Subsection (1) shall 96 be:

97 (a) used to provide:

98 (i) $480,000 to the Critical Languages Program established in Section 53A-15-104; and

99 (ii) $270,000 to the Dual Language Immersion Program established in Section
100 53A-15-105; and

101 (b) nonlapsing.

102 Section 4. Effective date.

103 This bill takes effect on July 1, 2008.
