39 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

40 Section 1. Section 13-32a-109 is amended to read:

41 13-32a-109. Holding period for articles.

42 (1) (a) The pawnbroker may sell any article pawned to the pawnbroker:

43 (i) after the expiration of the contract period between the pawnbroker and the pledgor;

44 and

45 (ii) if the pawnbroker has complied with the requirements of Section 13-32a-106
46 regarding reporting to the central database and Section 13-32a-103.

47 (b) If an article, including scrap jewelry, is purchased by a pawn or secondhand
48 business or a coin dealer, the pawn or secondhand business or coin dealer may sell the article
49 after the pawn or secondhand business or coin dealer has held the article for 15 days and 50 complied with the requirements of Section 13-32a-106 regarding reporting to the central 51 database and Section 13-32a-103, except that pawn, secondhand, and coin dealer businesses are 52 not required to hold precious metals or coins under this Subsection (1)(b).

53 (c) This Subsection (1) does not preclude a law enforcement agency from requiring a 54 pawn or secondhand business to hold an article if necessary in the course of an investigation.

55 (i) If the article was pawned, the law enforcement agency may require the article be 56 held beyond the terms of the contract between the pledgor and the pawn broker.

57 (ii) If the article was sold to the pawn or secondhand business, the law enforcement

58 agency may require the article be held if the pawn or secondhand business has not sold the 59 article.

60 (d) If the law enforcement agency requesting a hold on property under this Subsection
61 (1) is not the local law enforcement agency, the requesting law enforcement agency shall notify 62 the local law enforcement agency of the request and also the pawn or secondhand business.

63 (2) If a law enforcement agency requires the pawn or secondhand business to hold an
64 article as part of an investigation, the agency shall provide to the pawn or secondhand business 65 a hold ticket issued by the agency, which:

66 (a) states the active case number;

67 (b) confirms the date of the hold request and the article to be held; and

68 (c) facilitates the ability of the pawn or secondhand business to track the article when 69 the prosecution takes over the case.

70 (3) If an article is not seized by a law enforcement agency that has placed a hold on the 71 property, the property [~~may~~] shall remain in the custody of the pawn or secondhand business
72 until further disposition by the law enforcement agency, and as consistent with this chapter.

73 (4) The initial hold by a law enforcement agency is for a period of 90 days. If the 74 article is not seized by the law enforcement agency, the article shall remain in the custody of 75 the pawn or secondhand business and is subject to the hold unless exigent circumstances
76 require the purchased or pawned article to be seized by the law enforcement agency.

77 (5) (a) A law enforcement agency may extend any hold for up to an additional 90 days
78 when exigent circumstances require the extension.

79 (b) When there is an extension of a hold under Subsection (5)(a), the requesting law
80 enforcement agency shall notify the pawn or secondhand business that is subject to the hold 81 prior to the expiration of the initial 90 days.

82 (c) A law enforcement agency may not hold an item for more than the 180 days
83 allowed under Subsections (5)(a) and (b) without obtaining a court order authorizing the hold.

84 (6) A hold on an article under Subsection (2) takes precedence over any request to 85 claim or purchase the article subject to the hold.

86 (7) When the purpose for the hold on or seizure of an article is terminated, the law
87 enforcement agency requiring the hold or seizure shall within 15 days after the termination:

88 (a) notify the pawn or secondhand business in writing that the hold or seizure has been
89 terminated;

90 (b) return the article subject to the seizure to the pawn or secondhand business; or

91 (c) if the article is not returned to the pawn or secondhand business, advise the pawn or 92 secondhand business either in writing or electronically of the specific alternative disposition of 93 the article.

94 (8) If the law enforcement agency does not notify the pawn or secondhand business
95 that a hold on an item has expired, the pawn or secondhand business shall send a letter by 96 registered or certified United States mail to the law enforcement agency that ordered the hold
97 and inform the agency that the holding period has expired. The law enforcement agency shall 98 respond within 30 days by:

99 (a) confirming that the holding period has expired and that the pawn or secondhand
100 business may manage the item as if acquired in the ordinary course of business; or

101 (b) providing written notice to the pawn or secondhand business that a court order has 102 continued the period of time for which the item shall be held.

103 (9) The written notice under Subsection (8)(b) is considered provided when:

104 (a) personally delivered to the pawn or secondhand business with a signed receipt of 105 delivery;

106 (b) delivered to the pawn or secondhand business by registered or certified United 107 States mail; or

108 (c) delivered by any other means with the mutual assent of the law enforcement agency
109 and the pawn or secondhand business.

110 (10) If the law enforcement agency does not respond within 30 days under Subsection
111 (8), the pawn or secondhand business may manage the item as if acquired in the ordinary 112 course of business.

113 Section 2. Section 13-32a-109.5 is amended to read:

114 13-32a-109.5. Seizure of property.

115 (1) If a law enforcement agency determines seizure of pawned or sold property is 116 necessary under Section 13-32a-109.8 during the course of a criminal investigation, in addition 117 to the holding provisions under Section 13-32a-109, the law enforcement agency shall:

- 118 (a) notify the pawnshop of the specific item to be seized;

128 (2) If the purpose for the seizure of an article under this section is terminated before
