19 Special Clauses:

20 None

22 Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

23 WHEREAS, the few, living Navajo Code Talkers are undertaking a multi-year project
24 to build an educational, historical, and humanitarian facility that will bring pride to Native
25 American and non-native American communities alike;

26 WHEREAS, this project will educate both young and old and conserve the instruments
27 of freedom gifted to the American people by an awe-inspiring group of young Navajo men who

28 served the country during World War II;

29 WHEREAS, during World War II, these modest young Navajo men fashioned from the 30 Navajo language the only unbreakable code ever recorded in military history;

31 WHEREAS, these Navajo radio operators transmitted the code throughout the dense
32 jungles and exposed beachheads of the Pacific Theater from 1942 to 1945, passing over 800
33 error-free messages in 48 hours at Iwo Jima alone;

34 WHEREAS, the bravery and ingenuity of these young Navajo men gave the United 35 States and Allied Forces the upper hand they so desperately needed in the Pacific, hastened the 36 war's end, and assured victory for the United States;

37 WHEREAS, after being sworn to secrecy for 23 years after World War II, these young
38 Navajo men eventually came to be known as Navajo Code Talkers and were honored by 39 President George W. Bush more than 50 years after the war with congressional gold and silver
40 medals in 2001;

41 WHEREAS, the Navajo Code Talkers are now in their eighties, and with fewer than 50
42 remaining from the original 400, the urgency to capture and share their stories and memorabilia
43 from their service in World War II is critical;

44 WHEREAS, these American treasures and revered elders of the Navajo Nation have 45 come together to tell their story, one that has never been heard, from their own hearts and in 46 their own words;

47 WHEREAS, the Navajo Code Talkers' heroic story of an ancient language, valiant
48 people, and a decisive victory that changed the path of modern history is the greatest story
49 never told;

50 WHEREAS, the Navajo Code Talkers ultimately envision a lasting memorial, the 51 Navajo Code Talkers' Museum and Veterans Center, on donated private land;

52 WHEREAS, the Navajo Code Talkers' mission is to create a place where their legacy of 53 service will inspire others to achieve excellence and instill core values of pride, discipline, and 54 honor in all those who visit the Center; and

55 WHEREAS, through the lead efforts of the Navajo Code Talkers' Foundation and many 56 partners and individuals, the Navajo Code Talkers' legacy, history, language, and code will be 57 preserved to benefit all future generations:
