1236 revocation of license without hearing -- Additional grounds for suspension -- Point system

1237 for traffic violations -- Notice and hearing -- Reporting of traffic violation procedures.

1238 (1) By following the emergency procedures in Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative 1239 Procedures Act, the division may immediately deny, suspend, disqualify, or revoke the license 1240 of any person without hearing and without receiving a record of the person's conviction of 1241 crime when the division has been notified or has reason to believe the person:

1242 (a) has committed any offenses for which mandatory suspension or revocation of a 1243 license is required upon conviction under Section 53-3-220;

1244 (b) has, by reckless or unlawful driving of a motor vehicle, caused or contributed to an 1245 accident resulting in death or injury to any other person, or serious property damage;

1246 (c) is incompetent to drive a motor vehicle or is afflicted with mental or physical 1247 infirmities or disabilities rendering it unsafe for the person to drive a motor vehicle upon the 1248 highways;

1249 (d) has committed a serious violation of the motor vehicle laws of this state;

1250 (e) has knowingly acquired, used, displayed, or transferred an item that purports to be 1251 an authentic driver license certificate issued by a governmental entity if the item is not an 1252 authentic driver license certificate or has permitted an unlawful use of the license as prohibited
1253 under Section 53-3-229; or

1254 (f) has been convicted of serious offenses against traffic laws governing the movement 1255 of motor vehicles with a frequency that indicates a disrespect for traffic laws and a disregard 1256 for the safety of other persons on the highways.

1257 (2) (a) The division may suspend the license of a person under Subsection (1) when the 1258 person has failed to comply with the terms stated on a traffic citation issued in this state, except 1259 this Subsection (2) does not apply to highway weight limit violations or violations of law
1260 governing the transportation of hazardous materials.

1261 (b) This Subsection (2) applies to parking and standing violations only if a court has 1262 issued a warrant for the arrest of a person for failure to post bail, appear, or otherwise satisfy 1263 the terms of the citation.

1264 (c) (i) This Subsection (2) may not be exercised unless notice of the pending 1265 suspension of the driving privilege has been sent at least 10 days previously to the person at the 1266 address provided to the division.

1267 (ii) After clearance by the division, a report authorized by Section 53-3-104 may not

1268 contain any evidence of a suspension that occurred as a result of failure to comply with the 1269 terms stated on a traffic citation.

1270 (3) (a) The division may suspend the license of a person under Subsection (1) when the 1271 division has been notified by a court that the person has an outstanding unpaid fine, an 1272 outstanding incomplete restitution requirement, or an outstanding warrant levied by order of a 1273 court.

1274 (b) The suspension remains in effect until the division is notified by the court that the 1275 order has been satisfied.

1276 (c) After clearance by the division, a report authorized by Section 53-3-104 may not 1277 contain any evidence of the suspension.

1278 (4) The division shall make rules establishing a point system as provided for in this 1279 Subsection (4).

1280 (a) (i) The division shall assign a number of points to each type of moving traffic
1281 violation as a measure of its seriousness.

1282 (ii) The points shall be based upon actual relationships between types of traffic 1283 violations and motor vehicle traffic accidents.

1284 (b) Every person convicted of a traffic violation shall have assessed against the person's 1285 driving record the number of points that the division has assigned to the type of violation of 1286 which the person has been convicted, except that the number of points assessed shall be 1287 decreased by 10% if on the abstract of the court record of the conviction the court has graded
1288 the severity of violation as minimum, and shall be increased by 10% if on the abstract the court 1289 has graded the severity of violation as maximum.

1290 (c) (i) A separate procedure for assessing points for speeding offenses shall be 1291 established by the division based upon the severity of the offense.

1292 (ii) The severity of a speeding violation shall be graded as:

1293 (A) "minimum" for exceeding the posted speed limit by up to 10 miles per hour;

1294 (B) "intermediate" for exceeding the posted speed limit by from 11 to 20 miles per 1295 hour; and

1296 (C) "maximum" for exceeding the posted speed limit by 21 or more miles per hour.

1297 (iii) Consideration shall be made for assessment of no points on minimum speeding 1298 violations, except for speeding violations in school zones.

1299 (d) (i) Points assessed against a person's driving record shall be deleted for violations
1300 occurring before a time limit set by the division.

1301 (ii) The time limit may not exceed three years.

1302 (iii) The division may also delete points to reward violation-free driving for periods of 1303 time set by the division.

1304 (e) (i) By publication in two newspapers having general circulation throughout the 1305 state, the division shall give notice of the number of points it has assigned to each type of 1306 traffic violation, the time limit set by the division for the deletion of points, and the point level 1307 at which the division will generally take action to deny or suspend under this section.

1308 (ii) The division may not change any of the information provided above regarding 1309 points without first giving new notice in the same manner.

1310 (5) (a) (i) Upon denying or suspending the license of a person under this section, the 1311 division shall immediately notify the licensee in a manner specified by the division and afford 1312 him an opportunity for a hearing in the county where the licensee resides.

1313 (ii) The hearing shall be documented, and the division or its authorized agent may 1314 administer oaths, may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of 1315 relevant books and papers, and may require a reexamination of the licensee.

1316 (iii) One or more members of the division may conduct the hearing, and any decision 1317 made after a hearing before any number of the members of the division is as valid as if made 1318 after a hearing before the full membership of the division.

1319 (iv) After the hearing the division shall either rescind its order of denial or suspension,
1320 extend the denial or suspension of the license, or revoke the license.

1321 (b) The denial or suspension of the license remains in effect pending qualifications
1322 determined by the division regarding a person:

1323 (i) whose license has been denied or suspended following reexamination;

1324 (ii) who is incompetent to drive a motor vehicle;

1325 (iii) who is afflicted with mental or physical infirmities that might make him dangerous 1326 on the highways; or

1327 (iv) who may not have the necessary knowledge or skill to drive a motor vehicle safely.

1328 (6) (a) Subject to Subsection (6)(d), the division shall suspend a person's license when 1329 the division receives notice from the Office of Recovery Services that the Office of Recovery

1330 Services has ordered the suspension of the person's license.

1331 (b) A suspension under Subsection (6)(a) shall remain in effect until the division
1332 receives notice from the Office of Recovery Services that the Office of Recovery Services has 1333 rescinded the order of suspension.

1334 (c) After an order of suspension is rescinded under Subsection (6)(b), a report
1335 authorized by Section 53-3-104 may not contain any evidence of the suspension.

1336 (d) (i) If the division suspends a person's license under this Subsection (6), the division
1337 shall, upon application, issue a temporary limited driver license to the person if that person
1338 needs a driver license for employment, education, or child visitation.

1339 (ii) The temporary limited driver license described in this section:

1340 (A) shall provide that the person may operate a motor vehicle only for the purpose of 1341 driving to or from the person's place of employment, education, or child visitation;

1342 (B) shall prohibit the person from driving a motor vehicle for any purpose other than a 1343 purpose described in Subsection (6)(d)(ii)(A); and

1344 (C) shall expire 90 days after the day on which the temporary limited driver license is 1345 issued.

1346 (iii) (A) During the period beginning on the day on which a temporary limited driver
1347 license is issued under this Subsection (6), and ending on the day that the temporary limited
1348 driver license expires, the suspension described in this Subsection (6) only applies if the person 1349 who is suspended operates a motor vehicle for a purpose other than employment, education, or 1350 child visitation.

1351 (B) Upon expiration of a temporary limited driver license described in this Subsection 1352 (6)(d):

1353 (I) a suspension described in Subsection (6)(a) shall be in full effect until the division
1354 receives notice, under Subsection (6)(b), that the order of suspension is rescinded; and

1355 (II) a person suspended under Subsection (6)(a) may not drive a motor vehicle for any 1356 reason.

1357 (iv) The division is not required to issue a limited driver license to a person under this
1358 Subsection (6)(d) if there are other legal grounds for the suspension of the person's driver
1359 license.

1360 (v) The division shall make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah

1361 Administrative Rulemaking Act, to implement the provisions of this part.

1362 (7) (a) The division may suspend or revoke the license of any resident of this state
1363 upon receiving notice of the conviction of that person in another state of an offense committed 1364 there that, if committed in this state, would be grounds for the suspension or revocation of a
1365 license.

1366 (b) The division may, upon receiving a record of the conviction in this state of a 1367 nonresident driver of a motor vehicle or motorboat of any offense under the motor vehicle laws 1368 of this state, forward a certified copy of the record to the motor vehicle administrator in the 1369 state where the person convicted is a resident.

1370 (8) (a) The division may suspend or revoke the license of any nonresident to drive a 1371 motor vehicle in this state for any cause for which the license of a resident driver may be 1372 suspended or revoked.

1373 (b) Any nonresident who drives a motor vehicle upon a highway when the person's 1374 license has been suspended or revoked by the division is guilty of a class C misdemeanor.

1375 (9) (a) The division may not deny or suspend the license of any person for a period of 1376 more than one year except:

1377 (i) for failure to comply with the terms of a traffic citation under Subsection (2);

1378 (ii) upon receipt of a second or subsequent order suspending juvenile driving privileges
1379 under Section 53-3-219;

1380 (iii) when extending a denial or suspension upon receiving certain records or reports
1381 under Subsection 53-3-220(2);

1382 (iv) for failure to give and maintain owner's or operator's security under Section 1383 41-12a-411; or

1384 (v) when the division suspends the license under Subsection (6).

1385 (b) The division may suspend the license of a person under Subsection (2) until the 1386 person shows satisfactory evidence of compliance with the terms of the traffic citation.

1387 (10) (a) By following the emergency procedures in Title 63G, Chapter 4, 1388 Administrative Procedures Act, the division may immediately suspend the license of any 1389 person without hearing and without receiving a record of the person's conviction for a crime
1390 when the division has reason to believe that the person's license was granted by the division 1391 through error or fraud or that the necessary consent for the license has been withdrawn or is 1392 terminated.

1393 (b) The procedure upon suspension is the same as under Subsection (5), except that 1394 after the hearing the division shall either rescind its order of suspension or cancel the license.

1395 (11) (a) The division, having good cause to believe that a licensed driver is 1396 incompetent or otherwise not qualified to be licensed, may upon notice in a manner specified
1397 by the division of at least five days to the licensee require him to submit to an examination.

1398 (b) Upon the conclusion of the examination the division may suspend or revoke the 1399 person's license, permit him to retain the license, or grant a license subject to a restriction
1400 imposed in accordance with Section 53-3-208.

1401 (c) Refusal or neglect of the licensee to submit to an examination is grounds for 1402 suspension or revocation of the licensee's license.

1403 (12) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (12)(b), a report authorized by Section 1404 53-3-104 may not contain any evidence of a conviction for speeding on an interstate system in 1405 this state if the conviction was for a speed of 10 miles per hour or less, above the posted speed
1406 limit and did not result in an accident, unless authorized in a manner specified by the division 1407 by the individual whose report is being requested.

1408 (b) The provisions of Subsection (12)(a) do not apply for:

1409 (i) a CDL license holder; or

1410 (ii) a violation that occurred in a commercial motor vehicle.

1411 (13) (a) By following the emergency procedures in Title 63G, Chapter 4,
1412 Administrative Procedures Act, the division may immediately suspend the license of a person 1413 if it has reason to believe that the person is the owner of a motor vehicle for which security is 1414 required under Title 41, Chapter 12a, Financial Responsibility of Motor Vehicle Owners and 1415 Operators Act, and has driven the motor vehicle or permitted it to be driven within this state
1416 without the security being in effect.

1417 ~~[(b) The division may immediately suspend a driving privilege card holder's driving
1418 privilege card if the division receives notification from the Motor Vehicle Division that:]~~

1425 Subsection (13), the notice and hearing provisions of Subsection (5) apply.

1426 ~~[(d)]~~ (d) A person whose license suspension has been sustained or whose license has 1427 been revoked by the division under this Subsection (13) may file a request for agency action
1428 requesting a hearing.

1429 (14) Any suspension or revocation of a person's license under this section also 1430 disqualifies any license issued to that person under Part 4, Uniform Commercial Driver License
1431 Act, of this chapter.
