Section 4. Section 20A-13-101 is amended to read:

20A-13-101 (Contingently Superseded). Representatives to the United States Congress -- Three representative districts -- When elected -- District boundaries.

(1) (a) The state of Utah is divided into three districts for the election of representatives to the Congress of the United States, with one member to be elected from each Congressional district.

(b) At the general election to be held in 2002, and biennially thereafter, one representative from each Congressional district shall be elected to serve in the Congress of the United States.

(2) (a) The Legislature adopts the official census population figures and maps of the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce developed in connection with the taking of the 2000 national decennial census as the official data for establishing Congressional district boundaries.

(b) ~~{The}~~ Except as provided in Subsection (3), the numbers and boundaries of the Congressional districts are designated and established by the maps attached to the bill that enacts this section.

(3) The following census blocks from the 2000 census are removed from Congressional District 2 and placed into Congressional District 3: Census Tract 010205, Blocks 1000, 1001, 3001, 3003, and 3004.

Section 7. Section 36-1-101 is amended to read:

36-1-101. Utah State Senate -- District boundaries.

(1) As used in this chapter:

(a) "New county boundary" means the adjusted common boundary between Salt Lake County and Utah County as certified by the lieutenant governor on December 29, 2005.

(b) "Old county boundary" means the common boundary between Salt Lake County and Utah County before the boundary change certified by the lieutenant governor on December 29, 2005.

(c) "Southwestern intersection" means the western-most three way intersection of the old county boundary, the new county boundary, and the boundary separating Senate District 9 and Senate District 11.

(2) The Utah State Senate shall consist of 29 members, with one member to be elected from each Utah State Senate district.

(3) (a) The Legislature adopts the official census population figures and maps of the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce developed in connection with the taking of the 2000 national decennial census as the official data for establishing Senate district boundaries.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (4), the numbers and boundaries of the Senate districts are designated and established by the maps attached to the bill that enacts this section.

(4) (a) Because of the new county boundary separating Salt Lake County and Utah County, the boundary separating Senate District 9 and Senate District 11 that followed the old county boundary is changed to follow the new county boundary eastward from the southwestern intersection to the point where the existing boundary of Senate District 9 turns north from the old county boundary.

(b) The following census blocks from the 2000 census are removed from Senate District 11 and placed into Senate District 14: Census Tract 010205, Blocks 1000, 1001, 3001, 3003, and 3004.

16. Page 8, Lines 228 through 229:

228 (5) In accordance with Section 20A-5-304, a county clerk may publish or distribute a
229 map or data that identifies the boundaries of a Senate district.

Section 9. Section 36-1-201 is amended to read:

36-1-201. Utah House of Representatives -- District boundaries.

(1) The Utah House of Representatives shall consist of 75 members, with one member to be elected from each Utah House of Representatives district.

(2) (a) The Legislature adopts the official census population figures and maps of the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce developed in connection with the taking of the 2000 national decennial census as the official data for establishing House district boundaries.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (3), the numbers and boundaries of the House districts are designated and established by the maps attached to the bill that enacts this section.

(3) (a) Because of the new county boundary separating Salt Lake County and Utah County, the boundary separating House District 51 and House District 27 that follows the old county boundary is changed to follow the new county boundary.

(b) The following census blocks from the 2000 census are removed from House District 27 and placed into House District 57: Census Tract 010205, Blocks 1000, 1001, 3001, 3003, and 3004.
