28 of the Church of the Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, announced the creation of what came to 29 be known as the church's welfare system;

30 WHEREAS, President Grant explained, "Our primary purpose was to set up . . . a
31 system under which the curse of idleness would be done away with, the evils of a dole 32 abolished, and independence, industry, thrift and self respect be once more established amongst 33 our people . . . The aim of the Church is to help the people to help themselves. Work is to be 34 re-enthroned as the ruling principle of the lives of our Church membership";

35 WHEREAS, today, the welfare system has expanded to all corners of the globe and 36 assists people of all faiths;

37 WHEREAS, the church's welfare system cares for the needy while teaching principles
38 that will help people become self-reliant and retain their self respect;

39 WHEREAS, the system also provides all church members opportunities to serve others;

40 WHEREAS, funding for the welfare system is provided by donations from church
41 members, who go without two meals one Sunday each month and give the money they would 42 have spent on food to the church;

43 WHEREAS, needy people are identified by the leader of local church congregations,
44 with the assistance of the president of the Relief Society, a woman from the congregation who 45 serves as the leader of the women's organization;

46 WHEREAS, food and household items are provided to those who cannot afford them
47 and who bring a written requisition, signed by the leader of their local congregation, to a
48 facility called the Bishop's Storehouse;

49 WHEREAS, there are 129 storehouses located around the world;

50 WHEREAS, these storehouses provide commodity needs from the consecrated 51 sacrifices of church members;

52 WHEREAS, recipients of commodities are given the opportunity to work for what they 53 receive, to the extent of their ability;

54 WHEREAS, employment resource service centers are also part of the church's welfare 55 system and provide a place where people can receive job training, learn to enhance their 56 resumes, and find job opportunities;

58 world, where every year volunteers help hundreds of thousands of people to find jobs, a large

59 percentage of which are not members of the church;

60 WHEREAS, the church's welfare system also includes Deseret Industries, which serves 61 as an employment training facility and operates thrift stores;

62 WHEREAS, these stores provide on-the-job experience for refugees or others who need
63 help qualifying for long-term employment;

64 WHEREAS, these stores are stocked by individual donations, which are stored and 65 stocked by the workers and then offered to the public at inexpensive prices;

66 WHEREAS, the church's welfare system also includes LDS Family Services, a private,
67 nonprofit organization that provides counseling, adoption services, addiction recovery support
68 groups, and resources for social, emotional, and spiritual challenges;

69 WHEREAS, the influence and power for good exerted by the welfare system of the
