Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. JR4-2-102 is amended to read:

JR4-2-102. Prioritizing Legislation.

28 ~~[(1) Consistent with JR4-2-101 on pre-filing of bills, beginning 60 days after each~~
29 ~~annual general session and ending December 1 of each year, each legislator may make an~~
30 ~~irrevocable and nontransferable prioritization of up to three bills.]~~

31 (1) (a) Beginning on the first day on which a request for legislation may be filed under
32 JR4-2-101, a legislator may designate up to three requests for legislation as priority requests
33 subject to the following deadlines:

34 (i) priority request number one must be requested on or before the first Thursday in 35 December, or the following business day if the first Thursday falls on a holiday;

36 (ii) priority request number two must be requested on or before the first Thursday in 37 January, or the following business day if the first Thursday falls on a holiday; and

38 (iii) priority request number three must be requested on or before the first Thursday of 39 the annual general session.

40 (b) A legislator who fails to make a priority request on or before a deadline loses that
41 priority request. However, the legislator is not prohibited from using any remaining priority
42 requests that are associated with a later deadline, if available.

43 (c) A legislator who begins serving after a deadline has passed is entitled to use only
44 those priority requests that are available under an unexpired deadline.

45 (2) A legislator may not:

46 (a) revoke a priority designation once it has been requested;

47 (b) transfer a priority designation to a different request for legislation; or

48 (c) transfer a priority designation to another legislator.

49 ~~[(2)]~~ (3) (a) (i) When sufficient drafting information is available, [priority bills]
50 prioritized requests for legislation and interim committee bills shall be drafted [first] before
51 other requests for legislation.

52 ~~[All other bills]~~ Subject to preference for priority status as provided in Subsection
53 (3)(a)(i), requests for legislation shall be drafted on a first-in, first-out basis.

54 ~~(b) Except as otherwise provided in these rules, [before numbering any bills,] the~~
55 ~~Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel shall reserve as many bill numbers as~~
56 ~~necessary to allow all [designated priority bills to be the first bills numbered] prioritized~~
57 ~~requests for legislation to receive lower bill numbers than non-prioritized requests.~~
