Section 2. Section 13-32a-102.5 is amended to read:

13-32a-102.5. Administration and enforcement.

(1) The division shall administer and enforce this chapter in accordance with the authority under Title 13, Chapter 2, Division of Consumer Protection.

(2) The attorney general, upon request, shall give legal advice to, and act as counsel for, the division in the exercise of its responsibilities under this chapter.

(3) Reasonable attorney fees, costs, and interest shall be awarded to the division in any action brought to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(4) Municipal and county law enforcement agencies, prosecutorial agencies, and governmental agencies may enforce the criminal and civil provisions of this chapter.

Section 3. Section 13-32a-104 is amended to read:

13-32a-104. Register required to be maintained -- Contents -- Identification of items.

(1) Every pawnbroker or secondhand merchandise dealer shall keep a register of each article of property a person pawns or sells to the pawnbroker or secondhand merchandise dealer, except as provided in Subsection 13-32a-102(23)(b). Every pawn and secondhand business owner or operator, or his employee, shall enter the following information regarding every article pawned or sold to the owner or employee:

- (a) the date and time of the transaction;
- (b) the pawn transaction ticket number, if the article is pawned;
- (c) the date by which the article must be redeemed;
- (d) the following information regarding the person who pawns or sells the article:
 - (i) the person's name, residence address, and date of birth;
 - (ii) the number of the driver license or other form of positive identification presented by the person, and notations of discrepancies if the person's physical description, including gender, height, weight, race, age, hair color, and eye color, does not correspond with identification provided by the person;
 - (iii) the person's signature; and
 - (iv) a legible fingerprint of the person's right [thumb] index finger, or if the right [thumb] index finger cannot be fingerprinted, a legible fingerprint of the person with a written notation identifying the fingerprint and the reason why the [thumb] index finger's print was unavailable;
- (e) the amount loaned on or paid for the article, or the article for which it was traded;
- (f) the identification of the pawn or secondhand business owner or the employee, whoever is making the register entry; and
- (g) an accurate description of the article of property, including available identifying marks such as:
 - (i) names, brand names, numbers, serial numbers, model numbers, color, manufacturers' names, and size;
 - (ii) metallic composition, and any jewels, stones, or glass;
 - (iii) any other marks of identification or indicia of ownership on the article;
 - (iv) the weight of the article, if the payment is based on weight;
 - (v) any other unique identifying feature;
 - (vi) gold content, if indicated; and
 - (vii) if multiple articles of a similar nature are delivered together in one transaction and the articles do not bear serial or model numbers and do not include precious metals or gemstones, such as musical or video recordings, books, or hand tools, the description of the articles is adequate if it includes the quantity of the articles and a description of the type of articles delivered.

(2) A pawn or secondhand business may not accept any personal property if, upon inspection, it is apparent that serial numbers, model names, or identifying characteristics have been intentionally defaced on that article of property.

(3) (a) A person may not pawn or sell any property to a business regulated under this chapter if the property is subject to being turned over to a law enforcement agency in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 24, Unclaimed Personal Property.

(b) If an individual attempts to sell or pawn property to a business regulated under this chapter and the employee or owner of the business knows or has reason to know that the property is subject to Title 77, Chapter 24, Unclaimed Personal Property, the employee or owner shall advise the individual of the requirements of Title 77, Chapter 24, Unclaimed Personal Property, and may not receive the property in pawn or sale.

Section 4. Section 13-32a-106.5 is amended to read:

13-32a-106.5. Confidentiality of pawn and purchase transactions.

(1) All pawn and purchase transaction records delivered to a local law enforcement official or transmitted to the central database pursuant to Section 13-32a-106 are protected records under Section 63G-2-305. These records may be used only by law enforcement officials and the division and only for the law enforcement and administrative enforcement purposes of:

(a) investigating possible criminal conduct involving the property delivered to the pawnbroker or secondhand business in a pawn or purchase transaction;

(b) investigating a possible violation of the record keeping or reporting requirements of this chapter when the local law enforcement official, based on a review of the records and information received, has reason to believe that a violation has occurred;

(c) responding to an inquiry from ~~[a person claiming ownership of described property]~~ an insurance company investigating a claim for physical loss of described property by searching the database to determine if property matching the description has been delivered to a pawnbroker or secondhand business by another person in a pawn or purchase transaction and if so, obtaining from the database:

(i) a description of the property;

(ii) the name and address of the pawnbroker or secondhand business who received the

HB0175S01 compared with HB0175

property; and

(iii) the name, address, and date of birth of the conveying person; ~~and~~

(d) ~~taking enforcement action under Section 13-2-5 against a pawnbroker or secondhand business~~; ~~or~~

(e) responding to a request from an insurance company under Subsection (1)(c), which shall be accompanied by a police report that has been filed concerning the described property.

(2) (a) A person may not knowingly and intentionally use, release, publish, or otherwise make available to any person or entity any information obtained from the database for any purpose other than those specified in Subsection (1).

(b) Each separate violation of Subsection (2)(a) is a class B misdemeanor.

(c) Each separate violation of Subsection (2)(a) is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $250.

Section 5. Section 13-32a-109.5 is amended to read:

13-32a-109.5. Seizure of property.

(1) If a law enforcement agency determines seizure of property pawned or sold ~~[property]~~ to a pawn or secondhand business is necessary under ~~[Section 13-32a-109.8]~~ this chapter during the course of a criminal investigation, in addition to the holding provisions under Section 13-32a-109, the law enforcement agency shall:

(a) notify the pawnshop of the specific item to be seized;

(b) issue to the pawnshop a seizure ticket in a form approved by the division and that:

(i) provides the active case number related to the item to be seized;

(ii) provides the date of the seizure request;

(iii) provides the reason for the seizure ~~[under Section 13-32a-109.8]~~;

(iv) describes the article to be seized;

(v) states each reason the article is necessary during the course of a criminal investigation ~~[under Section 13-32A-109.8]~~; and

(vi) includes any information that facilitates the pawnbroker's ability to track the article when the prosecution agency takes over the case.

(2) If the purpose for the seizure of an article under this section is terminated before final disposition of the criminal case and the property is no longer needed as evidence, the law enforcement agency that required the seizure shall within 15 days after the property is no longer needed as evidence:

(a) notify the pawn or secondhand business in writing that the purpose for the seizure has been terminated and the property is available for return to the pawn or secondhand business; or

(b) return the article to the pawn or secondhand business.

(3) If the law enforcement agency seizing the pawned or sold property is not the local law enforcement agency, the seizing agency shall, in addition to compliance with Subsection (1):

(a) notify the local law enforcement agency prior to any seizure; and

(b) facilitate the seizure of the pawned property in cooperation with the local law enforcement agency to provide the pawnshop or secondhand business the ability to monitor the proceedings ~~[under Section 13-32a-109.8].~~

(4) At all times during the course of a criminal investigation and subsequent prosecution, the article subject to a law enforcement hold shall be kept secure by the pawn or secondhand business subject to the hold unless a pawned or sold article has been seized by the law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 13-32a-109.5.

Section 12. Section 13-32a-116 is enacted to read:

13-32a-116. Property disposition -- Property subject to prosecution.

(1) When any property that is pawned or sold to a pawn or secondhand business, is the subject of a criminal proceeding, and has been seized by law enforcement pursuant to Section 13-32a-115, the prosecuting agency shall notify the seizing agency, the original victim, and the pawn or secondhand business if it determines the article is no longer needed as evidence pending resolution of the criminal case.

(2) (a) If the property is no longer needed as evidence, the original victim and the pawn or secondhand business from which the property was seized may choose to resolve the matter pursuant to Subsection 13-32a-115(2)(b) within 10 days of notice being given that the property is no longer needed.

(b) The original victim shall notify the seizing law enforcement agency of any agreed upon resolution and the seizing agency shall act accordingly.

(3) (a) If the original victim and the pawn or secondhand business from which the property was seized do not resolve the matter within the 10 days under Subsection (2), the original victim, the pawn or secondhand business shall notify the prosecuting agency or law enforcement agency in possession of the property that the disputed claim has not been resolved.

(b) (i) Upon receipt of written notice from the pawn or secondhand business or the original victim that the parties are unable to resolve the disposition of the property as provided, the prosecuting agency shall submit a motion to the court to schedule a property disposition hearing within 45 days after receipt of the notice.

(ii) The prosecuting agency shall provide notice of the hearing to the pawn or secondhand business, the original victim, and any named defendant in the pending criminal case to the last known address or to counsel of record.

(iii) Notice shall be by certified mail or registered mail. Another form of notice may be used if agreed upon by the parties.

HB0175S01 compared with HB0175

(c) The hearing under Subsection (3)(b) may be combined with a preliminary examination or other hearing, in the court's discretion.

(4) At the seized property disposition hearing the court shall taking into consideration:

(a) the evidentiary value of the property and the need for its use at trial;

(b) whether alternative evidence, such as photographs, records, or serial numbers, make retention of the property unnecessary;

(c) the proof of ownership of the property and compliance with Subsection 13-32a-115(1) by the original victim;

(d) whether retention of the property would create any undue hardship to the original victim; and

(e) compliance by the pawn or secondhand business with the requirements of this chapter, and potential financial loss to the business if the property were returned to the original victim.

(5) Upon conclusion of the property disposition hearing the court may:

(a) order the return of the evidence to the original victim or to the pawn or secondhand business as it determines appropriate; and

(b) make an initial finding of restitution for the original victim or the pawn or secondhand business pending resolution of the criminal case.

(6) The court's determination of possession or restitution is a continuing order subject to change or modification until the final resolution of the case.

Section 13. Section 13-32a-117 is enacted to read:

13-32a-117. Property disposition if no criminal charges filed -- Administrative hearing.

(1) The original victim or the pawn or secondhand business may request an administrative property disposition hearing with the Division of Consumer Protection if:

(a) more than 30 days have passed since:

(i) the law enforcement agency placed hold on the property; or

(ii) the property was seized by the law enforcement agency; and

(b) an agreement pursuant to Section 13-32a-115(2)(b) has not been reached.

(2) The original victim shall provide to the Division of Consumer Protection at the hearing under this section a copy of the sworn statement taken pursuant to Section 13-32a-115.

HB0175S01 compared with HB0175

(3) (a) The Division of Consumer Protection shall notify the law enforcement agency in writing of the request for a property disposition hearing.

(b) The law enforcement agency shall forward the notice to the prosecution agency having jurisdiction over the case involving the property.

(c) (i) The prosecution agency shall, within five business days of receiving the notice, make an initial determination pursuant to Section 77-24-2 and this chapter of whether continued hold or seizure regarding the property as evidence in a criminal trial is necessary.

(ii) If the prosecuting agency determines the property is no longer needed as evidence, the law enforcement agency shall notify in writing the pawn or secondhand business and the original victim of the prosecuting agency's determination as soon as reasonably possible.

(4) (a) Within 30 days after receiving the request and notification from law enforcement that the property is not needed as evidence pursuant to Section 77-24-2 and this chapter, the Division of Consumer Protection shall schedule an adjudicative hearing in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act, to determine ownership of the claimed property. The division shall provide written notice of the hearing to the pawn or secondhand business and the original victim.

(b) The division shall conduct the hearing to determine disposition of the claimed seized property, taking into consideration:

(i) the proof of ownership of the property and compliance with Subsection 13-32a-115(1) by the original victim;

(ii) the claim of ownership by the pawn or secondhand business, the potential financial loss to the business; and

(iii) compliance by the pawn or secondhand business with the requirements of this chapter.

(c) If the division determines that the property should be released to the pawn or secondhand business, the original victim retains a right of first refusal over the property for 15 days and may purchase the property at the amount financed or paid by the pawn or secondhand business.

(d) The party to whom the division determines the property is to be released shall maintain possession of for the duration of any time period regarding any applicable right of appeal.

Section 14. Section 77-24-2 is amended to read:

77-24-2. Property not needed as evidence -- Return procedure.

(1) Property which is not needed as evidence shall be returned to the owner, if the owner may lawfully possess it, or disposed of in accordance with this chapter.

(2) (a) When the peace officer or the officer's employing agency becomes aware that the property is not needed as evidence, the officer or the agency shall inform the prosecuting attorney that the property is not needed and provide a description and details of ownership.

(b) When the prosecuting attorney is informed or otherwise becomes aware that the property is not needed as evidence, the [prosecutor] prosecuting attorney shall authorize release of the property to the owner.

(c) When the peace officer or the officer's employing agency becomes aware that any property is to be returned to its owner, the officer or employing agency shall exercise due diligence in attempting to notify the rightful owner that the property is to be returned.

(d) If the property is a weapon, the peace officer shall dispose of it in accordance with Section 76-10-525.

(e) (i) Upon proof of ownership and of lawfulness of possession satisfactory to the evidence custodian, the custodian shall release the property to the owner.

(ii) If the evidence custodian is unable to locate an owner of the property or if the owner is not entitled to lawfully possess the property, the agency having custody of the property shall dispose of the property in accordance with Section 77-24-4.

(3) (a) When property is received in evidence, the clerk of the court last receiving it shall retain the property or the clerk shall return the property to the custody of the peace officer. The property shall be retained by the clerk or the officer until all direct appeals and retrials are final, at which time the property shall be returned to the owner in accordance with this chapter. If the property was seized for forfeiture, it shall be held and disposed of as provided in Title 24, Chapter 1, Utah Uniform Forfeiture Procedures Act.

(b) If the prosecuting attorney considers it necessary to retain control over the evidence, in anticipation of possible collateral attacks upon the judgment or for use in a potential prosecution, [he] the prosecuting attorney may decline to authorize return of the property to the owner.
