Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS:

- The Honorable Christine M. Durham, who will shortly complete her service as chief justice, has had a unique and distinguished judicial career which has served this state well and has paved the way for all women who now or may hereafter aspire to serve in the Utah Judiciary.

- In 1978, Justice Durham became the first woman appointed to Utah's District Court Bench. In 1982, she became the first woman appointed to the Utah

28 Supreme Court. In 2002, she became the first woman selected by her fellow jurists to serve as

30 • While serving as head of the Utah Supreme Court, Justice Durham has also 31 chaired the Judicial Council governing all Utah Courts. Her thoughtful and 32 evenhanded approach has endeared her to judges throughout Utah, and her 33 pioneer ingenuity has resulted in creative solutions to budgetary challenges that 34 have allowed Utah's courts to increase their level of public service, 35 notwithstanding difficult economic times.

36 • Justice Durham's influence as a judicial leader has spread far beyond Utah's 37 borders. She has served nationally as President of the Conference of Chief 38 Justices of the several states, Chair of the National Center for State Courts
39 Board of Directors, and as President of the National Association of Women 40 Judges.

41 • In the field of judicial education, Chief Justice Durham has also been an 42 exceptional leader. She was one of the founding members of the Leadership 43 Institute in Judicial Education and has been recognized nationally for efforts to 44 improve the administration of justice. Reflecting her extensive and far-reaching 45 contributions, Justice Durham received the annual William H. Rehnquist Award 46 for Judicial Excellence -- the highest honor bestowed on a single member of the 47 judiciary of the fifty states and territories of the United States.

48 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

49 • that the Legislature of the state of Utah, in recognition of a professional career 50 filled with high personal achievement and distinguished service to the state of 51 Utah and its citizenry, recognizes Chief Justice Christine M. Durham with this 52 resolution of commendation and appreciation.
