(1) Subject to Section 61-1-108 and the other provisions of this section, the commission may award an award to one or more reporters who voluntarily provide original information to the commission or division that leads to the successful enforcement of a covered judicial or administrative action. (2) The division shall pay an award under this section from the fund. (3) (a) Subject to the other provisions of this section, the commission may determine the amount of award paid under this section, except that in determining the amount the commission shall consider: (i) the significance of the original information provided by the reporter to the success of the covered judicial or administrative action; (ii) the degree of assistance provided by the reporter in relation to the covered judicial or administrative action; (iii) any costs of legal representation for the reporter in relation to the covered judicial or administrative action; (iv) the programmatic interest of the commission in deterring a violation of this chapter by making an award to a reporter who provides original information that leads to the successful enforcement of this chapter; [and] (v) whether, and the extent to which, the reporter or a legal representative of the reporter participated in internal compliance systems, including: (A) whether, and the extent to which, the reporter reported the possible securities violation through internal reporting, legal, or compliance procedures before, or at the same time as reporting the securities violation to the division or commission; and (B) whether, and the extent to which, the reporter assisted an internal investigation or inquiry concerning the reported securities violation; and [(v)] (vi) any other relevant factor that the division may establish by rule. (b) The aggregate amount of awards that the commission may award for a specific covered judicial or administrative action may not exceed:

(i) the balance in the fund as of the date the awards are determined; or
