(ii)  the Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing; or

(iii)  any other person; and

(b)  review [the] a proposal with or without considering proposed statutory language[;]

[(c)  evaluate the criteria in Subsection (2) to determine whether or not the occupation or profession should be regulated by the state; and]

[(d)  as to the proposal, recommend:]

[(i)  that the proposal be adopted by the Legislature;]

[(ii)  that the proposal be adopted by the Legislature with recommended changes;]

[(iii)  that the proposal not be adopted by the Legislature; or]

[(iv)  any other action.]

(2)  When conducting a sunrise review or sunset review under this chapter, the committee shall [use the following criteria]:

(a)  consider whether state regulation of the occupation or profession is necessary to address a compelling state interest in protecting against present, recognizable, and significant
226 harm to the health or safety of the public;
227
228 (b) if the committee determines that state regulation of the occupation or profession is 229 not necessary to protect against present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health or
230 safety of the public, recommend to the Legislature that the state not regulate the profession;
231
232 (c) if the committee determines that state regulation of the occupation or profession is 233 necessary in protecting against present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health or 234 safety of the public, consider whether the proposed or existing statute is narrowly tailored to 235 protect against present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health or safety of the public;
236 and
237
238 (d) recommend to the Legislature any necessary changes to the proposed or existing 239 statute to ensure it is narrowly tailored to protect against present, recognizable, and significant
240 harm to the health or safety of the public.
241
242 (3) In its performance of each sunrise review or sunset review, the committee may 243 apply the following criteria, to the extent that it is applicable:
244
245 (a) whether [or not] the unregulated practice of the occupation or profession has clearly
246 harmed or may harm or endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the public;
247
248 (b) whether [or not] the potential for harm or endangerment described in Subsection
249 [2] (3) (a) is easily recognizable and not remote;
250
251 (c) whether or not the public needs, and can reasonably be expected to benefit from,
252 an assurance of initial and continuing occupational or professional competence;
253
254 (d) whether [or not] regulation of the occupation or profession:
255 (i) imposes significant new economic hardship on the public;
256 (ii) significantly diminishes the supply of qualified practitioners; or
257 (iii) otherwise creates barriers to service that are not consistent with the public welfare
258 or interest;
259
260 (e) whether [or not] the occupation or profession requires knowledge, skills, and abilities that are:

(i) teachable; and

(ii) testable;

(f) whether [or not] the occupation or profession is clearly distinguishable from other occupations or professions that are already regulated;

(g) whether [or not] the occupation or profession has:

(i) an established code of ethics;

(ii) a voluntary certification program; or

(iii) other measures to ensure a minimum quality of service;

(h) whether [or not]:

(i) the occupation or profession involves the treatment of an illness, injury, or health care condition; and

(ii) practitioners of the occupation or profession will request payment of benefits for the treatment under an insurance contract subject to Section 31A-22-618;

(i) whether [or not] the public can be adequately protected by means other than regulation; and

(j) other appropriate criteria as determined by the committee.

Section 8. Section 36-23-109 is enacted to read:

Before the annual written report described in Section 36-23-107 is submitted for 2013, the committee shall study potentially less restrictive alternatives to licensing for the regulation of occupations and professions, including registration and certification if appropriate, that would better avoid unnecessary regulation and intrusion upon individual liberties by the state, while still protecting the health and safety of the public.

Section 9. Section 58-1-110 is enacted to read:

58-1-110. Legislative review in Title 58, Occupations and Professions.

Legislation proposing the licensing or regulation of an occupation or profession under Title 58, Occupations and Professions, that is not currently subject to licensing or regulation
under Title 58, Occupations and Professions:

(1) may not be enacted by the Legislature unless:

(a) a proposal to license or regulate the occupation or profession has been reviewed by the Occupational and Professional Licensure Review Committee as described in Title 36, Chapter 23, Occupational and Professional Licensure Review Committee Act; or

(b) the proposed legislation contains a provision that expressly exempts the legislation from the review requirement of Subsection (1)(a);

(2) is subject to a reauthorization schedule as described in Title 63I, Chapter 1, Legislative Oversight and Sunset Act; and

(3) shall include a repeal date in Section 63I-1-258 that is no later than 10 years after the effective date of the legislation.
