46 with the department.

47 (ii) The legal custody of all probationers under the jurisdiction of the sentencing court
48 is vested as ordered by the court.

49 (iii) The court has continuing jurisdiction over all probationers.

50 (3) (a) The department shall establish supervision and presentence investigation
51 standards for all individuals referred to the department. These standards shall be based on:

52 (i) the type of offense;

53 (ii) the demand for services;

54 (iii) the availability of agency resources;

60 to adoption by the department.

61           (c) The Judicial Council and the department shall establish procedures to implement
62 the supervision and investigation standards.

63           (d) The Judicial Council and the department shall annually consider modifications to

70 conduct presentence investigation reports on class C misdemeanors or infractions. However,
71 the department may supervise the probation of class B misdemeanants in accordance with 72 department standards.

73           (5) (a) Before the imposition of any sentence, the court may, with the concurrence of 74 the defendant, continue the date for the imposition of sentence for a reasonable period of time

145 76-3-201.1, the court may retain jurisdiction of the case and continue the defendant on bench
146 probation for the limited purpose of enforcing the payment of the account receivable. If the 147 court retains jurisdiction for this limited purpose, the court may order the defendant to pay to 148 the court the costs associated with continued probation under this Subsection (10).

149 (B) In accordance with Section 77-18-6, the court shall record in the registry of civil

152 (iii) Upon motion of the Office of State Debt Collection, prosecutor, victim, or upon its

155 (b) (i) The department shall notify the sentencing court, the Office of State Debt

159 details on outstanding accounts receivable.

160 (11) (a) (i) Any time served by a probationer outside of confinement after having been

163 at a hearing to revoke the probation.

164 (ii) Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing or decision concerning
165 revocation of probation does not constitute service of time toward the total probation term
166 unless the probationer is exonerated at the hearing.

167 (b) The running of the probation period is tolled upon the filing of a violation report
168 with the court alleging a violation of the terms and conditions of probation or upon the issuance
169 of an order to show cause or warrant by the court.

170 (12) (a) (i) Probation may not be modified or extended except upon waiver of a hearing

178 extension of probation is justified.

179 (ii) If the court determines there is probable cause, it shall cause to be served on the 180 defendant a warrant for the defendant's arrest or a copy of the affidavit and an order to show
181 cause why the defendant's probation should not be revoked, modified, or extended.

182 (c) (i) The order to show cause shall specify a time and place for the hearing and shall 183 be served upon the defendant at least five days prior to the hearing.

184 (ii) The defendant shall show good cause for a continuance.

185 (iii) The order to show cause shall inform the defendant of a right to be represented by
186 counsel at the hearing and to have counsel appointed if the defendant is indigent.

187 (iv) The order shall also inform the defendant of a right to present evidence.
