39 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

40 Section 1. Section 75-2-114 is amended to read:

41 75-2-114. Parent and child relationship.

42 (1) Except as provided in Subsections (2) and (3), for purposes of intestate succession
43 by, through, or from a person, an individual is the child of the individual's natural parents, 44 regardless of their marital status. The parent and child relationship may be established as 45 provided in Title 78B, Chapter 15, Utah Uniform Parentage Act.

46 (2) An adopted individual is the child of the adopting parent or parents and not of the 47 natural parents, but adoption of a child by the spouse of either natural parent has no effect on[ 48 the relationship between the child and that natural parent.

49 [~~(a) the relationship between the child and that natural parent; or]~~

50 [~~(b) the right of the child or a descendant of the child to inherit from or through the~~ 51 ~~other natural parent.]~~

52 (3) Inheritance from or through a child by either natural parent or [~~his~~] the child's 53 kindred is precluded unless that natural parent has openly treated the child as [~~his~~] the natural 54 parent's, and has not refused to support the child.

55 Section 2. Section 75-3-107 is amended to read:

56 75-3-107. Probate and testacy proceedings -- Ultimate time limit -- Presumption
57 and order of intestacy.

58 (1) No informal probate proceeding or formal testacy proceeding, other than a

59 proceeding to probate a will previously probated at the testator's domicile [~~and appointment~~ 60 ~~proceedings relating to an estate in which there has been a prior appointment~~], may be 61 commenced more than three years after the decedent's death, except:

62 (a) If a previous proceeding was dismissed because of doubt about the fact of the 63 decedent's death, appropriate probate[~~, appointment,~~] or testacy proceedings may be maintained 64 at any time thereafter upon a finding that the decedent's death occurred prior to the initiation of 65 the previous proceeding and the applicant or petitioner has not delayed unduly in initiating the 66 subsequent proceeding.

67 (b) Appropriate probate[~~, appointment,~~] or testacy proceedings may be maintained in 68 relation to the estate of an absent, disappeared, or missing person for whose estate a 69 conservator has been appointed, at any time within three years after the conservator becomes 70 able to establish the death of the protected person.

71 (c) A proceeding to contest an informally probated will and to secure appointment of 72 the person with legal priority for appointment in the event the contest is successful, may be 73 commenced within the later of 12 months from the informal probate or three years from the 74 decedent's death.

75 (2) The limitations provided in Subsection (1) do not apply to proceedings to construe
 76 probated wills or determine heirs of an intestate. In cases under Subsection (1)(a) or (b), the 77 date on which a testacy [~~or appointment~~] proceeding is properly commenced shall be deemed 78 to be the date of the decedent's death for purposes of other limitations provisions of this title
 79 which relate to the date of death.

80 (3) If no will is probated within three years from death, the presumption of intestacy is 81 final and the court shall upon filing a proper petition enter an order to that effect. [~~The court~~
 82 ~~also has continuing jurisdiction to:~~]

83 (4) Notwithstanding the time restriction in Subsection (1), the court has continuing 84 jurisdiction to:

85 (a) determine what property was owned by the decedent at the time of death; and

86 (b) appoint, formally or informally, a personal representative or special administrator to 87 administer the decedent's estate.

136 shall adopt the statements in the application or petition for probate, state the name, address and 137 priority for appointment of the person whose appointment is sought, state whether or not bond

159 application or petition which led to the appointment of the person being succeeded, except as 160 specifically changed or corrected, state the name and address of the person who seeks 161 appointment as successor, and describe the priority of the applicant.

162 Section 4. Section 75-5-310 is amended to read:

163 75-5-310. Emergency and temporary guardians.

164 (1) If an incapacitated person has no guardian and an emergency exists or if an 165 appointed guardian is not effectively performing [~~his~~] the guardian's duties and the court
166 further finds that the welfare of the incapacitated person requires immediate action, it may, 167 without notice, appoint an [~~appropriate official as temporary~~] emergency guardian for the 168 person for a specified period not to exceed 30 days pending notice and hearing.

169 (2) The court shall, in all cases in which [~~a temporary~~] an emergency guardian is 170 appointed, hold a hearing within [~~five~~] 14 days pursuant to Section 75-5-303. [~~Unless the~~ 171 ~~allegedly incapacitated person has already obtained counsel, the court may appoint an~~ 172 ~~appropriate official or attorney to represent that person in the proceeding. Until the full hearing~~
173 ~~and order of the court, the temporary guardian shall be charged with the care and custody of the~~ 174 ~~ward and shall not permit the ward to be removed from this state. The authority of any~~ 175 ~~permanent guardian previously appointed by the court is suspended so long as a temporary~~ 176 ~~guardian has authority. A temporary guardian may be removed at any time, and shall obey such~~ 177 ~~orders and make such reports as the court requires.]~~

178 (3) If, after notice and hearing, the court finds good cause, the court may appoint a 179 temporary guardian until further order of the court.

180 (4) Unless the allegedly incapacitated person has already obtained counsel in this 181 proceeding or an attorney has been already appointed for the person, the court may appoint an 182 attorney to represent the person in the proceeding.

183 (5) Until the full hearing and order of the court, the temporary guardian shall be 184 charged with the care and custody of the ward and may not permit the ward to be removed 185 from the state. The authority of any permanent guardian previously appointed by the court is 186 suspended so long as a temporary guardian has authority. A temporary guardian may be 187 removed at any time, and shall obey such orders and make such reports as the court requires.

188 (6) A temporary guardian has all of the powers and duties of a permanent guardian as 189 set forth in Section 75-5-312.

190 Section 5. Section 75-5-312 is amended to read:

191 75-5-312. General powers and duties of guardian -- Penalties.

192 (1) A guardian of an incapacitated person has only the powers, rights, and duties
193 respecting the ward granted in the order of appointment under Section 75-5-304.

194 (2) Absent a specific limitation on the guardian's power in the order of appointment, 195 the guardian has the same powers, rights, and duties respecting the ward that a parent has 196 respecting the parent's unemancipated minor child except that a guardian is not liable to third 197 persons for acts of the ward solely by reason of the parental relationship. In particular, and 198 without qualifying the foregoing, a guardian has the following powers and duties, except as 199 modified by order of the court:

200 (a) To the extent that it is consistent with the terms of any order by a court of 201 competent jurisdiction relating to detention or commitment of the ward, the guardian is entitled 202 to custody of the person of the ward and may establish the ward's place of abode within or 203 without this state.

204 (b) If entitled to custody of the ward the guardian shall provide for the care, comfort, 205 and maintenance of the ward and, whenever appropriate, arrange for the ward's training and 206 education. Without regard to custodial rights of the ward's person, the guardian shall take 207 reasonable care of the ward's clothing, furniture, vehicles, and other personal effects and 208 commence protective proceedings if other property of the ward is in need of protection.

209 (c) A guardian may give any consents or approvals that may be necessary to enable the 210 ward to receive medical or other professional care, counsel, treatment, or service.

211 (d) If no conservator for the estate of the ward has been appointed, the guardian may:

212 (i) institute proceedings to compel any person under a duty to support the ward or to 213 pay sums for the welfare of the ward to perform that duty; [~~or~~]

214 (ii) compel the production of the ward's estate documents, including the ward's will, 215 trust, power of attorney, and any advance health care directive; and

216 [~~(ii)~~] (iii) receive money and tangible property deliverable to the ward and apply the 217 money and property for support, care, and education of the ward; but the guardian may not use 218 funds from the ward's estate for room and board which the guardian, the guardian's spouse, 219 parent, or child have furnished the ward unless a charge for the service is approved by order of 220 the court made upon notice to at least one adult relative in the nearest degree of kinship to the 221 ward in which there is an adult. The guardian [~~must~~] shall exercise care to conserve any excess 222 for the ward's needs.

223 (e) (i) A guardian is required to report the condition of the ward and of the estate which 224 has been subject to the guardian's possession or control, as required by the court or court rule.

225 (ii) A guardian is required to immediately notify all interested persons if the guardian 226 reasonably believes that the ward's death is likely to occur within the next 30 days, based on:

227 (A) the guardian's own observations; or

228 (B) information from the ward's physician or other medical care providers.

229 (iii) A guardian is required to immediately notify all interested persons of the ward's 230 death.

231 (iv) Unless emergency conditions exist, a guardian is required to file with the court a
232 notice of the guardian's intent to move the ward and to serve the notice on all interested persons
233 at least 10 days before the move. The guardian shall take reasonable steps to notify all 234 interested persons and to file the notice with the court as soon as practicable following the 235 earlier of the move or the date when the guardian's intention to move the ward is made known 236 to the ward, the ward's care giver, or any other third party.

237 (v) The guardian shall, for all estates in excess of $50,000, excluding the residence 238 owned by the ward, send a report with a full accounting to the court on an annual basis. For 239 estates less than $50,000, excluding the residence owned by the ward, the guardian shall fill out
240 an informal annual report and mail the report to the court. The report shall include the 241 following: a statement of assets at the beginning and end of the reporting year, income received 242 during the year, disbursements for the support of the ward, and other expenses incurred by the 243 estate. The guardian shall also report the physical conditions of the ward, the place of 244 residence, and a list of others living in the same household. The court may require additional 245 information. The forms for both the informal report for estates under $50,000, excluding the 246 residence owned by the ward, and the full accounting report for larger estates shall be approved 247 by the Judicial Council. This annual report shall be examined and approved by the court. If 248 the ward's income is limited to a federal or state program requiring an annual accounting

249 report, a copy of that report may be submitted to the court in lieu of the required annual report.

250 (vi) Corporate fiduciaries are not required to petition the court, but shall submit their 251 internal report annually to the court. The report shall be examined and approved by the court.

252 (vii) The guardian shall also render an annual accounting of the status of the person to 253 the court which shall be included in the petition or the informal annual report as required under 254 Subsection (2)(e). If a fee is paid for an accounting of an estate, no fee shall be charged for an 255 accounting of the status of a person.

256 (viii) If a guardian:

257 (A) makes a substantial misstatement on filings of annual reports;

258 (B) is guilty of gross impropriety in handling the property of the ward; or

259 (C) willfully fails to file the report required by this subsection, after receiving written 260 notice from the court of the failure to file and after a grace period of two months has elapsed,
261 the court may impose a penalty in an amount not to exceed $5,000. The court may also order
262 restitution of funds misappropriated from the estate of a ward. The penalty shall be paid by the 263 guardian and may not be paid by the estate.

264 (ix) These provisions and penalties governing annual reports do not apply if the 265 guardian is the parent of the ward.

266 (x) For the purposes of Subsections (2)(e)(i), (ii), (iii), and (iv), "interested persons"
267 means those persons required to receive notice in guardianship proceedings as set forth in 268 Section 75-5-309.

269 (f) If a conservator has been appointed, all of the ward's estate received by the guardian 270 in excess of those funds expended to meet current expenses for support, care, and education of 271 the ward shall be paid to the conservator for management as provided in this code; and the 272 guardian shall account to the conservator for funds expended.

273 (3) Any guardian of one for whom a conservator also has been appointed shall control 274 the custody and care of the ward and is entitled to receive reasonable sums for services and for 275 room and board furnished to the ward as agreed upon between the guardian and the

276 conservator, if the amounts agreed upon are reasonable under the circumstances. The guardian 277 may request the conservator to expend the ward's estate by payment to third persons or 278 institutions for the ward's care and maintenance.

279 Section 6. Section 75-5-408 is amended to read:

280 75-5-408. Permissible court orders.

281 (1) The court has the following powers which may be exercised directly or through a 282 conservator in respect to the estate and affairs of protected persons:

283 (a) While a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order is 284 pending and after preliminary hearing and without notice to others, the court has power to 285 preserve and apply the property of the person to be protected as may be required for the 286 person's benefit or the benefit of the person's dependents.

287 (b) After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment or other 288 protective order exists with respect to a minor without other disability, the court has all those 289 powers over the estate and affairs of the minor which are or might be necessary for the best 290 interests of the minor, the minor's family, and the members of the minor's household.

291 (c) After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment or other 292 protective order exists with respect to a person for reasons other than minority, the court has,
293 for the benefit of the person and members of the person's household, all the powers over the 294 person's estate and affairs that the person could exercise if present and not under disability, 295 except the power to make a will. These powers include the power to:

296 (i) make gifts;

297 (ii) convey or release the person's contingent and expectant interests in property 298 including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy or 299 tenancy by the entirety;

300 (iii) exercise or release the person's powers as personal representative, custodian for 301 minors, conservator, or donee of a power of appointment;

302 (iv) enter into contracts;

303 (v) create revocable or irrevocable trusts of property of the estate that may extend 304 beyond the person's disability or life;

305 (vi) exercise options of the person with a disability to purchase securities or other 306 property;

307 (vii) exercise the person's rights to elect options and change beneficiaries under 308 insurance and annuity policies and to surrender the policies for their cash value;

309 (viii) exercise the person's right to an elective share in the estate of the person's 310 deceased spouse; and

311 (ix) renounce any interest by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer.

312 (d) The court may exercise, or direct the exercise of, its authority to exercise or release 313 powers of appointment of which the protected person is donee, to renounce interests, to make 314 gifts in trust or otherwise exceeding 20% of any year's income of the estate, or to change
315 beneficiaries under insurance and annuity policies, only if satisfied, after notice and hearing, 316 that it is in the best interests of the protected person, and that the person either is incapable of 317 consenting or has consented to the proposed exercise of power.

318 (2) An order made pursuant to this section determining that a basis for appointment of 319 a conservator or other protective order exists has no effect on the capacity of the protected 320 person.

321 (3) If the court elects to appoint a conservator under Subsection (1), the court may 322 appoint a temporary conservator to serve until further order of the court. A temporary 323 conservator, if appointed, has all of the powers and duties of a conservator as set forth in 324 Sections 75-5-417, 75-5-418, 75-5-419, and 75-5-424.

325 Section 7. Section 75-5-415 is amended to read:

326 75-5-415. Death, resignation, or removal of conservator.

327 (1) The court may remove a conservator for good cause, upon notice and hearing, or 328 accept the resignation of a conservator. After the death, resignation, or removal of a
329 conservator, the court may appoint another conservator. A conservator so appointed succeeds 330 to the title and powers of the preceding conservator.

331 (2) Before removing a conservator, accepting the resignation of a conservator, or 332 ordering that a protected person's incapacity has terminated, the court shall follow the same
333 procedures to safeguard the rights of the protected person as apply to a petition for appointment
334 of a conservator as provided in Section 75-5-407. The court is not required to appoint an 335 attorney to represent the ward if the case is uncontested and the protected person's capacity is 336 not at issue.

337 Section 8. Section 75-5-416 is amended to read:

338 75-5-416. Petitions for orders subsequent to appointment.

339 (1) Any person interested in the welfare of a person for whom a conservator has been 340 appointed may file a petition in the appointing court for an order:

- 341 (a) requiring bond or security or additional bond or security, or reducing bond;
- 342 (b) requiring an accounting for the administration of the [~~trust~~] conservatorship estate;
- 343 (c) directing distribution;
- 344 (d) removing the conservator and appointing a temporary or successor conservator; or
- 345 (e) granting other appropriate relief, including any relief available under Title 75,
346 Chapter 7, Utah Uniform Trust Code, if the protected person is a grantor, settlor, trustor, or 347 beneficiary of a trust.

348 (2) A conservator may petition the appointing court for instructions concerning [~~his~~]
349 the conservator's fiduciary responsibility.

350 (3) Upon notice and hearing the court may give appropriate instructions or make any 351 appropriate order.

352 Section 9. Section 75-5-424 is amended to read:

353 75-5-424. Powers of conservator in administration.

354 (1) A conservator has all of the powers conferred in this chapter and any additional 355 powers conferred by law on trustees in this state. In addition, a conservator of the estate of an 356 unmarried minor as to whom no one has parental rights, has the duties and powers of a
357 guardian of a minor described in Section 75-5-209 until the minor attains majority or marries,
358 but the parental rights so conferred on a conservator do not preclude appointment of a guardian
359 as provided by Part 2 of this chapter.

360 (2) A conservator has the power to compel the production of the protected person's 361 estate documents, including the protected person's will, trust, power of attorney, and any 362 advance health care directives.

363 [~~(2)~~] (3) A conservator has power without court authorization or confirmation to invest 364 and reinvest funds of the estate as would a trustee.

365 [~~(3)~~] (4) A conservator, acting reasonably in efforts to accomplish the purpose for 366 which the conservator was appointed, may act without court authorization or confirmation, to:

- 367 (a) collect, hold, and retain assets of the estate, including land in another state, until, in 368 his judgment, disposition of the assets should be made, and the assets may be retained even

- 369 though they include an asset in which he is personally interested;
- 370 (b) receive additions to the estate;
- 371 (c) continue or participate in the operation of any business or other enterprise;
- 372 (d) acquire an undivided interest in an estate asset in which the conservator, in any 373 fiduciary capacity, holds an undivided interest;
- 374 (e) invest and reinvest estate assets in accordance with Subsection (2);
- 375 (f) deposit estate funds in a bank including a bank operated by the conservator;
- 376 (g) acquire or dispose of an estate asset, including land in another state, for cash or on
