Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 17B-1-503 is amended to read:

17B-1-503. Withdrawal or boundary adjustment with municipal approval.

(1) A municipality and a local district whose boundaries adjoin or overlap may adjust

28 the boundary of the local district to include more or less of the municipality, including the 29 expansion area identified in the annexation policy plan adopted by the municipality under 30 Section 10-2-401.5, in the local district by following the same procedural requirements as set
31 forth in Section 17B-1-417 for boundary adjustments between adjoining local districts.

32 (2) After a boundary adjustment under Subsection (1) is complete[;]:

33 (a) the local district shall, without interruption, provide the same service to any area
34 added to the local district as provided to other areas within the local district; and

35 (b) the municipality shall, without interruption, provide the same service that the local 36 district previously provided to any area withdrawn from the local district.

37 (3) No area within a municipality may be added to the area of a local district under this 38 section if the area is part of a local district that provides the same wholesale or retail service as 39 the first local district.
