56 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

57 Section 1. Section 17B-1-301 is amended to read:

58 17B-1-301. Board of trustees duties and powers.

59 (1) (a) Each local district shall be governed by a board of trustees which shall manage
60 and conduct the business and affairs of the district and shall determine all questions of district 61 policy.

62 (b) All powers of a local district are exercised through the board of trustees.

63 (2) The board of trustees may:

64 (a) fix the location of the local district's principal place of business and the location of 65 all offices and departments, if any;

66 (b) fix the times of meetings of the board of trustees;

67 (c) select and use an official district seal;

68 (d) subject to Subsections (3) and (4), employ employees and agents, or delegate to 69 district officers power to employ employees and agents, for the operation of the local district
70 and its properties and prescribe or delegate to district officers the power to prescribe the duties,
71 compensation, and terms and conditions of employment of those employees and agents;

72 (e) require district officers and employees charged with the handling of district funds to 73 provide surety bonds in an amount set by the board or provide a blanket surety bond to cover
74 officers and employees;

75 (f) contract for or employ professionals to perform work or services for the local 76 district that cannot satisfactorily be performed by the officers or employees of the district;

77 (g) through counsel, prosecute on behalf of or defend the local district in all court
78 actions or other proceedings in which the district is a party or is otherwise involved;

79 (h) adopt bylaws for the orderly functioning of the board;

80 (i) adopt and enforce rules and regulations for the orderly operation of the local district
81 or for carrying out the district's purposes;

82 (j) prescribe a system of civil service for district employees;

83 (k) on behalf of the local district, enter into contracts that the board considers to be for 84 the benefit of the district;

85 (l) acquire, construct or cause to be constructed, operate, occupy, control, and use
86 buildings, works, or other facilities for carrying out the purposes of the local district;

87 (m) on behalf of the local district, acquire, use, hold, manage, occupy, and possess

88 property necessary to carry out the purposes of the district, dispose of property when the board
89 considers it appropriate, and institute and maintain in the name of the district any action or 90 proceeding to enforce, maintain, protect, or preserve rights or privileges associated with district
91 property;

92 (n) delegate to a district officer the exercise of a district duty; and

93 (o) exercise all powers and perform all functions in the operation of the local district 94 and its properties as are ordinarily exercised by the governing body of a political subdivision of 95 the state and as are necessary to accomplish the purposes of the district.

96 (3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3), "interim vacancy period" means:

97 (i) if any member of the local district board is elected, the period of time that:

98 (A) begins on the day on which a municipal general election described in Section
99 17B-1-306, or a late local district election described in Section 20A-1-202.6, is held to elect a 100 local district board member; and

101 (B) ends on the day on which the local district board member-elect begins the 102 member's term; or

103 (ii) if any member of the local district board is appointed, the period of time that:

104 (A) begins on the day on which an appointing authority posts a notice of vacancy in 105 accordance with Section 17B-1-304; and

106 (B) ends on the day on which the person who is appointed by the local district board to 107 fill the vacancy begins the person's term.

108 (b) (i) The local district may not hire during an interim vacancy period a manager, a 109 chief executive officer, a chief administrative officer, or a similar position to perform executive 110 and administrative duties or functions.

111 (ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(b)(i):

112 (A) the local district may hire an interim manager, a chief executive officer, a chief 113 administrative officer, or a similar position during an interim vacancy period; and

114 (B) the interim manager's, chief executive officer's, chief administrative officer's, or 115 similar position's employment shall terminate once a new manager, chief executive officer, 116 chief administrative officer, or similar position is hired by the new local district board after the 117 interim vacancy period has ended.

118 (c) Subsection (3)(b) does not apply if:

119 (i) all the elected local district board members who held office on the day of the 120 municipal general election or the late local district election whose [~~term~~] terms of office [~~was~~] 121 were vacant for the election are re-elected to the local district board; and

122 (ii) all the appointed local district board members who were appointed whose term of 123 appointment was expiring are re-appointed to the local district board.

124 (4) A local district board that hires an interim manager, a chief executive officer, a 125 chief administrative officer, or a similar position in accordance with this section may not, on or 126 after May 10, 2011, enter into an employment contract that contains an automatic renewal 127 provision with the interim manager, chief executive officer, chief administrative officer, or 128 similar position.

458 Section 3. Section 20A-1-202.5 is enacted to read:

459 20A-1-202.5. Duty of municipal clerk to ensure municipal general election held --

460 Late municipal general election -- Cost of election.

461 (1) Except for an election that is cancelled under Section 20A-1-206, a municipal clerk 462 is responsible to ensure that:

463 (a) a municipal general election is held on the date described in Subsection 464 20A-1-202(1); and

465 (b) the ballot for the municipal general election includes, for the municipality:

466 (i) each office that is required to be included in the municipal general election for the 467 current year; and

468 (ii) each ballot proposition relating to the municipality.

469 (2) If a municipal clerk fails to comply with the provisions of Subsection (1):

470 (a) the municipal clerk shall immediately notify the lieutenant governor and the county
471 clerk, in writing, of the failure; and

472 (b) the municipality shall pay all expenses of a late municipal general election, 473 including the expenses of the lieutenant governor and the county clerk in relation to conducting 474 the election.

475 (3) If a municipal clerk fails to provide the notice described in Subsection (2)(a), the
476 lieutenant governor shall, within five business days after the day on which the lieutenant
477 governor discovers that a municipal clerk failed to comply with the provisions of Subsection
478 (1), notify the municipal clerk and the county clerk, in writing, of the failure.

479 (4) (a) Within 14 days after the earlier of the day on which the municipal clerk
480 provides the notice described in Subsection (2)(a) or the lieutenant governor provides the 481 notice described in Subsection (3), the lieutenant governor shall:

482 (i) schedule a late municipal general election to be held as soon as practicable; and

483 (ii) provide the municipal clerk and the county clerk with a written list of instructions

484 to ensure that the late municipal general election is conducted:

485 (A) in an expedited manner;

486 (B) in a manner that preserves the rights of the candidates and voters; and

487 (C) subject to Subsection (4)(a)(ii)(A), to the extent possible, in a manner consistent
488 with the requirements of this chapter.

489 (b) The lieutenant governor shall include in the written instructions described in 490 Subsection (4)(a)(ii):

- 491 (i) the date of the late municipal general election;
492 (ii) procedures and tasks that the municipal clerk and county clerk are required to 493 comply with and complete in relation to conducting the late municipal general election;
494 (iii) deadlines for tasks and other events in relation to the late municipal general
495 election;
496 (iv) procedures for voting on election day;
497 (v) procedures for early voting, if early voting will be available;
498 (vi) procedures for the transmittal or voting of an absentee ballot or military-overseas
499 ballot;
500 (vii) procedures for the counting of an absentee ballot or military-overseas ballot;
501 (viii) procedures for canvassing election returns; and
502 (ix) other instructions that the lieutenant governor determines are needed.
503 (5) (a) The lieutenant governor may, as necessary, amend the list of instructions
504 described in Subsections (4)(a)(ii) and (4)(b).
505 (b) The governing body of the municipality, the municipal clerk, and the county clerk
506 shall comply with the instructions provided by the lieutenant governor under Subsections (4)
507 and (5)(a).
508 (c) The lieutenant governor may cancel a late municipal general election for the same 509 reasons, and using the same procedure, as the reasons and procedure used by a municipal 510 legislative body under Section 20A-1-206 .
511 (d) If the lieutenant governor cancels a late municipal general election under Section
512 20A-1-206, the municipality is required to pay all expenses incurred to date, including 513 cancellation expenses, relating to the late municipal general election.
514 (6) (a) Within 60 days after the day on which the late municipal general election is 515 held, the lieutenant governor and the county clerk shall deliver to the governing body of the 516 municipality an invoice for the expenses of the late municipal general election.
517 (b) The governing body of the municipality shall pay the full amount of the invoice
518 described in Subsection (6)(a) within the later of:
519 (i) 30 days after the day on which the governing body receives the invoice; or 520 (ii) a date agreed to in writing by the governing body of the municipality, the county
521 clerk, and the lieutenant governor.

522 (7) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Utah Code, the term of office for an 523 electd official who holds an office that will be subject to election in the late municipal general 524 election shall end at the later of:

525 (a) the day on which the elected official's term of office normally ends; or

526 (b) the day after the day on which the county clerk declares a winner of the office in the 527 late municipal general election.

528 (8) (a) As used in this Subsection (8), "late office taker" means a candidate who, due to 529 a late municipal general election, takes office later than the candidate would have taken office
530 if the municipal general election had been held on the regular date for a municipal general
531 election.

532 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Utah Code, the term of office for a late
533 office taker:

534 (i) begins on the day after the day on which the county clerk declares a winner of the 535 office in the late municipal general election; and

536 (ii) ends on the day on which the late office taker's term of office would have ended
537 had the late office taker been elected on the day on which the municipal general election should 538 have been held.

539 Section 4. Section 20A-1-202.6 is enacted to read:

540 20A-1-202.6. Duty of local district clerk to ensure local district elections held --
541 Late local district election -- Cost of election.

542 (1) Except for an election that is cancelled under Section 20A-1-206, a local district
543 clerk is responsible to ensure that:

544 (a) a local district election is held on the date described in Subsection 20A-1-202(1);

545 and (b) the ballot for the local district election includes:

546 (i) for each local district that is partially or completely within the municipality, each 547 office that is required to be included in the local district election for the current year; and

548 (ii) each ballot proposition relating to the local district that is partially or completely 549 within the municipality.

550 (2) If a municipal clerk fails to comply with the provisions of Subsection (1):

551 (a) the municipal clerk shall immediately notify the lieutenant governor and the county
552 clerk, in writing, of the failure; and

553 (b) the municipality shall pay all expenses of a late local district election, including the 554 expenses of the lieutenant governor and the county clerk in relation to conducting the election.

555 (3) If a municipal clerk fails to provide the notice described in Subsection (2)(a), the
556 lieutenant governor shall, within five business days after the day on which the lieutenant
557 governor discovers that a municipal clerk failed to comply with the provisions of Subsection
558 (1), notify the municipal clerk and the county clerk, in writing, of the failure.

559 (4) (a) Within 14 days after the earlier of the day on which the municipal clerk
560 provides the notice described in Subsection (2)(a) or the lieutenant governor provides the 561 notice described in Subsection (3), the lieutenant governor shall:

562 (i) schedule a late local district election to be held as soon as practicable; and
563 (ii) provide the municipal clerk and the county clerk with a written list of instructions
564 to ensure that the late local district election is conducted:

565 (A) in an expedited manner;

566 (B) in a manner that preserves the rights of the candidates and voters; and

567 (C) subject to Subsection (4)(a)(ii)(A), to the extent possible, in a manner consistent
568 with the requirements of this chapter.

569 (b) The lieutenant governor shall include in the written instructions described in
570 Subsection (4)(a)(ii):

571 (i) the date of the late local district election;

572 (ii) procedures and tasks that the local district clerk and county clerk are required to 573 comply with and complete in relation to conducting the late local district election;

574 (iii) deadlines for tasks and other events in relation to the late local district election;

575 (iv) procedures for voting on election day;

576 (v) procedures for early voting, if early voting will be available;

577 (vi) procedures for the transmittal or voting of an absentee ballot or military-overseas
578 ballot;

579 (vii) procedures for the counting of an absentee ballot or military-overseas ballot;

580 (viii) procedures for canvassing election returns; and

581 (ix) other instructions that the lieutenant governor determines are needed.

582 (5) (a) The lieutenant governor may, as necessary, amend the list of instructions
583 described in Subsections (4)(a)(ii) and (4)(b).

584 (b) The governing body of the local district, the local district clerk, and the county
585 clerk shall comply with the instructions provided by the lieutenant governor under Subsections
586 (4) and (5)(a).

587 (c) The lieutenant governor may cancel a late local district election for the same
588 reasons, and using the same procedure, as the reasons and procedure used by a local district
589 board under Section 20A-1-206 .

590 (d) If the lieutenant governor cancels a late local district election under Section
591 20A-1-206, the local district is required to pay all expenses incurred to date, including 592 cancellation expenses, relating to the late local district election.

593 (6) (a) Within 60 days after the day on which the late local district election is held, the 594 lieutenant governor and the county clerk shall deliver to the governing body of the local district 595 an invoice for the expenses of the late local district election.

596 (b) The governing body of the local district shall pay the full amount of the invoice
597 described in Subsection (6)(a) within the later of:

598 (i) 30 days after the day on which the governing body receives the invoice; or
599 (ii) a date agreed to in writing by the governing body of the local district, the county
600 clerk, and the lieutenant governor.

601 (7) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Utah Code, the term of office for an 602 elected board of trustee member who holds an office that will be subject to election in the late 603 local district election shall end at the later of:

604 (a) the day on which the board of trustee member's term of office normally ends; or 605 (b) the day after the day on which the a winner is declared for the board of trustee 606 position in the late local district election.

607 (8) (a) As used in this Subsection (8), "late office taker" means a board of trustee
608 candidate who, due to a late local district election, takes office later than the candidate would 609 have taken office if the local district election had been held on the regular date for a local 610 district election.

611 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Utah Code, the term of office for a late
612 office taker:

613 (i) begins on the day after the day on which the county clerk declares a winner of the 614 office in the late local district election; and

615 (ii) ends on the day on which the late office taker's term of office would have ended
616 had the late office taker been elected on the day on which the local district election should have 617 been held.

618 Section 5. Section 20A-1-206 is amended to read:

619 20A-1-206. Cancellation of local election -- Municipalities -- Local districts --
620 Notice.
