Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 63G-7-202 is amended to read:

63G-7-202. Act provisions not construed as admission or denial of liability --

28 Effect of waiver of immunity -- Exclusive remedy -- Joinder of employee -- Limitations on 29 personal liability.

30 (1) (a) Nothing contained in this chapter, unless specifically provided, may be
31 construed as an admission or denial of liability or responsibility by or for a governmental entity
32 or its employees.

33 (b) If immunity from suit is waived by this chapter, consent to be sued is granted, and 34 liability of the entity shall be determined as if the entity were a private person.

35 (c) No cause of action or basis of liability is created by any waiver of immunity in this 36 chapter, nor may any provision of this chapter be construed as imposing strict liability or 37 absolute liability.

38 (2) Nothing in this chapter may be construed as adversely affecting any immunity from 39 suit that a governmental entity or employee may otherwise assert under state or federal law.

40 (3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), an action under this chapter against a 41 governmental entity for an injury caused by an act or omission that occurs during the 42 performance of an employee's duties, within the scope of employment, or under color of 43 authority is a plaintiff's exclusive remedy.

44 (b) Judgment under this chapter against a governmental entity is a complete bar to any 45 action by the claimant, based upon the same subject matter, against the employee whose act or 46 omission gave rise to the claim.

47 (c) A plaintiff may not bring or pursue any civil action or proceeding based upon the 48 same subject matter against the employee or the estate of the employee whose act or omission
49 gave rise to the claim, unless:

50 (i) the employee acted or failed to act through fraud or willful misconduct;

51 (ii) the injury or damage resulted from the employee driving a vehicle, or being in 52 actual physical control of a vehicle:

53 (A) with a blood alcohol content equal to or greater by weight than the established
54 legal limit;

55 (B) while under the influence of alcohol or any drug to a degree that rendered the 56 person incapable of safely driving the vehicle; or

57 (C) while under the combined influence of alcohol and any drug to a degree that 58 rendered the person incapable of safely driving the vehicle;

59 (iii) injury or damage resulted from the employee being physically or mentally 60 impaired so as to be unable to reasonably perform the employee's job function because of:

61 (A) the use of alcohol;

62 (B) the nonprescribed use of a controlled substance as defined in Section 58-37-4; or

63 (C) the combined influence of alcohol and a nonprescribed controlled substance as 64 defined by Section 58-37-4;

65 (iv) in a judicial or administrative proceeding, the employee intentionally or knowingly
66 gave, upon a lawful oath or in any form allowed by law as a substitute for an oath, false

67 testimony material to the issue or matter of inquiry under this section; or

68 (v) the employee intentionally or knowingly:

69 (A) fabricated evidence; or

70 (B) except as provided in Subsection (3)(d), with a conscious disregard for the rights of 71 others, failed to disclose evidence that:

72 (I) was known to the employee; and

73 (II) (Aa) was known by the employee to be relevant to a material issue or matter of 74 inquiry in a pending judicial or administrative proceeding, if the employee knew of the pending
75 judicial or administrative proceeding; or

76 (Bb) was known by the employee to be relevant to a material issue or matter of inquiry 77 in a judicial or administrative proceeding, if disclosure of the evidence was requested of the 78 employee by a party to the proceeding or counsel for a party to the proceeding.

79 (d) The exception, described in Subsection (3)(c)(v)(B), allowing a plaintiff to bring or 80 pursue a civil action or proceeding against an employee, does not apply if the employee failed
81 to disclose evidence described in Subsection (3)(c)(v)(B), because the employee is prohibited
82 by law from disclosing the evidence.

83 (4) Except as permitted in Subsection (3)(c), no employee may be joined or held 84 personally liable for acts or omissions occurring:

85 (a) during the performance of the employee's duties;

86 (b) within the scope of employment; or

87 (c) under color of authority.

88 (5) A general duty that a governmental entity ~~owes to the public~~
88a does
89 not create a specific duty to an individual member of the public, unless ~~the individual~~
89a member

90 ~~§→of the public stands so far apart from the general public that~~ ←§ there is a special relationship
91 between the governmental entity §→ ~~[or employee]~~ ←§ and the individual member of the public.
