

H.B. 160
UTAH WILDERNESS ACT

Representative Roger E. Barrus proposes the following amendments:

1. Page 2, Lines 48 through 56:

48            ~~{ (b) recognize and protect in perpetuity areas where the earth and its community of life~~
49    are untrammeled by humans and where humans are visitors that do not remain; }
50            ~~{ (c) }~~    (b)    provide a window into the natural world, into which our pioneer forebears ventured
51    and formed our collective story and character;
52            ~~{ (d) }~~    (c)    recognize that the preservation of wilderness shall be part of a balanced pattern of 53    multiple land uses;
54            ~~{ (e) }~~    (d)    demonstrate the proper stewardship of certain primitive lands by providing the 55    protection to allow natural forces to operate; and
56            ~~{ (f) }~~    (e)    create a Utah wilderness preservation system.

2. Page 3, Lines 81 through 89:

81            ~~{ (d) is an area where the earth and its community of life are untrammeled by humans,~~
82    where humans are visitors who do not remain, and where the imprint of human work is
83    substantially unnoticeable; }
84            ~~{ (e) }~~    (d)    has at least 5,000 contiguous acres of land, or is of sufficient size as to make
85    practicable its preservation and use in an unimpaired condition;
86            ~~{ (f) }~~    (e)    has outstanding opportunities for solitude, or a primitive and unconfined type of 87    recreation; and
88            ~~{ (g) }~~    (f)    may contain ecological, geological, or other features of scientific, educational,
89    scenic, or historical value.
