Section 3. Section 36-23-105 is amended to read:

36-23-105. Applications -- Fees.

(1) If a government requestor or a representative of an occupation or profession that is not licensed by the state proposes that the state license or newly regulate an occupation or profession, the requestor or representative shall, prior to the introduction of any proposed legislation, submit an application for sunrise review to the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel in a form approved by the committee.

(2) If an application is submitted by a representative of an occupation or profession, the application shall include a nonrefundable fee of $500.

(3) All application fees shall be deposited in the General Fund.

Section 4. Section 36-23-106 is amended to read:

36-23-106. Duties -- Reporting.

(1) The committee shall:

(a) for each application submitted in accordance with Section 36-23-105, conduct a sunrise review in accordance with Section 36-23-107 before November 1:

(i) of the year in which the application is submitted, if the application is submitted on or before July 1; or

(ii) of the year following the year in which the application is submitted, if the application is submitted after July 1;

(b) (i) conduct a sunset review for [~~all statutes~~] each statute regarding a [~~licensed~~] regulated occupation or profession [~~under Title 58, Occupations and Professions, that are~~] that is scheduled for termination under [Section 63I-1-258] Title 63I, Chapter 1, Part 2, Repeal Dates Requiring Committee Review by Title;

(ii) conduct a sunset review under this Subsection (1)(b) before November 1 of the year prior to the last general session of the Legislature that is scheduled to meet before the scheduled termination date; and

(iii) conduct a review or study regarding any other occupational or professional licensure matter referred to the committee by the Legislature, the Legislative Management Committee, or other legislative committee.

(2) (a) The committee may conduct a review or study regarding any occupational or professional ~~licensure~~ regulation matter.

HB0044S01 compared with HB0044

(b) In conducting a review or study under this Subsection (2), the committee shall consider if the committee's recommendations would negatively affect the interest of members of the regulated occupation or profession, including the effect on matters of reciprocity with other states.

~~[(2)]~~ (3) The committee shall submit an annual written report before November 1 to:

- (a) the Legislative Management Committee; and
- (b) the Business and Labor Interim Committee.

~~[(3)]~~ (4) The written report required by Subsection ~~[(2)]~~ (3) shall include:

- (a) all findings and recommendations made by the committee in the calendar year; and
- (b) a summary report of each review or study conducted by the committee stating:
 - (i) whether the review or study included a review of specific proposed or existing statutory language;

- (ii) action taken by the committee as a result of the review or study; and
 - (iii) a record of the vote for each action taken by the committee.

Section 5. Section 36-23-107 is amended to read:

36-23-107. Sunrise or sunset review -- Criteria.

(1) In conducting a sunrise review or a sunset review under this chapter, the committee may:

- (a) receive information from:
 - (i) representatives of the occupation or profession proposed to be newly regulated or that is subject to a sunset review;

- (ii) the Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing; or
 - (iii) any other person; and

- (b) review a proposal with or without considering proposed statutory language.

(2) When conducting a sunrise review or sunset review under this chapter, the committee shall:

(a) consider whether state regulation of the occupation or profession is necessary to address a compelling state interest in protecting against present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health or safety of the public;

(b) consider if the committee's recommendations to the Legislature would negatively affect the interests of members of the regulated occupation or profession, including the effect on matters of reciprocity with other states;

~~[(b)]~~ (c) if the committee determines that state regulation of the occupation or profession is not necessary to protect against present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health or safety of the public, recommend to the Legislature that the state not regulate the profession;

~~[(c)]~~ (d) if the committee determines that state regulation of the occupation or profession is necessary in protecting against present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health or safety of the public, consider whether:

(i) the proposed or existing statute is narrowly tailored to protect against present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health or safety of the public; and

(ii) a potentially less restrictive alternative to licensing, including registration ~~{ or }~~, certification, or exemption, would avoid unnecessary regulation ~~{ and intrusion upon individual liberties by the state }~~ while still protecting the health and safety of the public; and

~~[(d)]~~ (e) recommend to the Legislature any necessary changes to the proposed or existing statute to ensure it is narrowly tailored to protect against present, recognizable, and significant harm to the health or safety of the public.

(3) In its performance of each sunrise review or sunset review, the committee may apply the following criteria, to the extent that it is applicable:

(a) whether the unregulated practice of the occupation or profession has clearly harmed or may harm or endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the public;

(b) whether the potential for harm or endangerment described in Subsection (3)(a) is easily recognizable and not remote;

(c) whether regulation of the occupation or profession will significantly diminish an identified risk to the health, safety, or welfare of the public;

(d) whether regulation of the occupation or profession:

(i) imposes significant new economic hardship on the public;

(ii) significantly diminishes the supply of qualified practitioners; or

(iii) otherwise creates barriers to service that are not consistent with the public welfare or interest;

(e) whether the occupation or profession requires knowledge, skills, and abilities that are:

HB0044S01 compared with HB0044

- (i) teachable; and
- (ii) testable;
- (f) whether the occupation or profession is clearly distinguishable from other occupations or professions that are already regulated;
- (g) whether the occupation or profession has:
 - (i) an established code of ethics;
 - (ii) a voluntary certification program; or
 - (iii) other measures to ensure a minimum quality of service;
- (h) whether:
 - (i) the occupation or profession involves the treatment of an illness, injury, or health care condition; and
 - (ii) practitioners of the occupation or profession will request payment of benefits for the treatment under an insurance contract subject to Section 31A-22-618;
- (i) whether the public can be adequately protected by means other than regulation; and
- (j) other appropriate criteria as determined by the committee.

Section 6. Section 36-23-109 is amended to read:

36-23-109. Review of state regulation of occupations and professions.

~~[Before the annual written report]~~ As part of the annual report described in Section 36-23-106 ~~[is submitted for 2013]~~, the committee ~~[shall]~~ may study and make recommendations regarding potentially less restrictive alternatives to licensing for the regulation of occupations and professions, including registration ~~[and]~~, certification, or exemption, if appropriate, that would ~~[better]~~ avoid unnecessary regulation ~~[and intrusion upon individual liberties by the state]~~, while still protecting the health and safety of the public.
