51 ~~[(b) A violation of Subsection (1) that results in serious bodily injury is a second~~

52 ~~degree felony.]~~

53 (2) Any act under this section is punishable as a third degree felony, except that the

54 following actions are punishable as a second degree felony:

55 (a) any act under this section that:

56 (i) includes the use of a weapon; or

57 (ii) results in serious bodily injury; or

58 (b) any act under Subsection (1)(b)(ii) in which:

- 59            (i) there is a loss of consciousness; or
- 60            (ii) an implement is used in any manner to impede the breathing or circulation of blood
- 61 of another person.

62            Section 2. Section 76-5-109 is amended to read:

63            76-5-109. Child abuse -- Child abandonment.

64            (1) As used in this section:

65            (a) "Child" means a human being who is under 18 years of age.

66            (b) (i) "Child abandonment" means that a parent or legal guardian of a child:

67            (A) intentionally ceases to maintain physical custody of the child;

68            (B) intentionally fails to make reasonable arrangements for the safety, care, and

69 physical custody of the child; and

70            (C) (I) intentionally fails to provide the child with food, shelter, or clothing;

71            (II) manifests an intent to permanently not resume physical custody of the child; or

72            (III) for a period of at least 30 days:

73            (Aa) intentionally fails to resume physical custody of the child; and

74            (Bb) fails to manifest a genuine intent to resume physical custody of the child.

75            (ii) "Child abandonment" does not include:

76            (A) safe relinquishment of a child pursuant to the provisions of Section 62A-4a-802; or

77            (B) giving legal consent to a court order for termination of parental rights:

78            (I) in a legal adoption proceeding; or

79            (II) in a case where a petition for the termination of parental rights, or the termination

80 of a guardianship, has been filed.

81            (c) "Child abuse" means any offense described in Subsection (2), (3), or (4) or in

82 Section 76-5-109.1.

83            (d) "Enterprise" is as defined in Section 76-10-1602.

84            (e) "Physical injury" means an injury to or condition of a child which impairs the

85 physical condition of the child, including:

86            (i) a bruise or other contusion of the skin;

87            (ii) a minor laceration or abrasion;

88            (iii) failure to thrive or malnutrition; or

89            (iv) any other condition which imperils the child's health or welfare and which is not a

90 serious physical injury as defined in Subsection (1)(f).

91 (f) (i) "Serious physical injury" means any physical injury or set of injuries that:

92 (A) seriously impairs the child's health;

93 (B) involves physical torture;

94 (C) causes serious emotional harm to the child; or

95 (D) involves a substantial risk of death to the child.

96 (ii) "Serious physical injury" includes:

97 (A) fracture of any bone or bones;

98 (B) intracranial bleeding, swelling or contusion of the brain, whether caused by blows,
99 shaking, or causing the child's head to impact with an object or surface;

100 (C) any burn, including burns inflicted by hot water, or those caused by placing a hot
101 object upon the skin or body of the child;

102 (D) any injury caused by use of a dangerous weapon as defined in Section 76-1-601;

103 (E) any combination of two or more physical injuries inflicted by the same person,
104 either at the same time or on different occasions;

105 (F) any damage to internal organs of the body;

106 (G) any conduct toward a child that results in severe emotional harm, severe
107 developmental delay or intellectual disability, or severe impairment of the child's ability to 108 function;

109 (H) any injury that creates a permanent disfigurement or protracted loss or impairment
110 of the function of a bodily member, limb, or organ;

111 ~~[(F) any conduct that causes a child to cease breathing, even if resuscitation is 112 successful following the conduct; or]~~

113 (I) any impediment of the breathing or the circulation of blood by application of 114 pressure to the neck, throat, or chest, or by the obstruction of the nose or mouth;

115 (J) any conduct that results in starvation or failure to thrive or malnutrition that 116 jeopardizes the child's life[-]; or

117 (K) unconsciousness from a brain injury or any deprivation of oxygen to the brain.

118 (2) Any person who inflicts upon a child serious physical injury or, having the care or 119 custody of such child, causes or permits another to inflict serious physical injury upon a child is
120 guilty of an offense as follows:

121 (a) if done intentionally or knowingly, the offense is a felony of the second degree;

122 (b) if done recklessly, the offense is a felony of the third degree; or

123 (c) if done with criminal negligence, the offense is a class A misdemeanor.

124 (3) Any person who inflicts upon a child physical injury or, having the care or custody
125 of such child, causes or permits another to inflict physical injury upon a child is guilty of an
126 offense as follows:

127 (a) if done intentionally or knowingly, the offense is a class A misdemeanor;

128 (b) if done recklessly, the offense is a class B misdemeanor; or

129 (c) if done with criminal negligence, the offense is a class C misdemeanor.

130 (4) A person who commits child abandonment, or encourages or causes another to 131 commit child abandonment, or an enterprise that encourages, commands, or causes another to 132 commit child abandonment, is:

133 (a) except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), guilty of a felony of the third degree; or

134 (b) guilty of a felony of the second degree, if, as a result of the child abandonment:

135 (i) the child suffers a serious physical injury; or

136 (ii) the person or enterprise receives, directly or indirectly, any benefit.

137 (5) (a) In addition to the penalty described in Subsection (4)(b), the court may order the 138 person or enterprise described in Subsection (4)(b)(ii) to pay the costs of investigating and
139 prosecuting the offense and the costs of securing any forfeiture provided for under Subsection
140 (5)(b).

141 (b) Any tangible or pecuniary benefit received under Subsection (4)(b)(ii) is subject to
142 criminal or civil forfeiture pursuant to Title 24, Forfeiture and Disposition of Property Act.

143 (6) A parent or legal guardian who provides a child with treatment by spiritual means
144 alone through prayer, in lieu of medical treatment, in accordance with the tenets and practices
145 of an established church or religious denomination of which the parent or legal guardian is a
146 member or adherent shall not, for that reason alone, be considered to have committed an 147 offense under this section.

148 (7) A parent or guardian of a child does not violate this section by selecting a treatment
149 option for the medical condition of the child, if the treatment option is one that a reasonable
150 parent or guardian would believe to be in the best interest of the child.

151 (8) A person is not guilty of an offense under this section for conduct that constitutes:

- 152 (a) reasonable discipline or management of a child, including withholding privileges;
- 153 (b) conduct described in Section 76-2-401; or
- 154 (c) the use of reasonable and necessary physical restraint or force on a child:
  - 155 (i) in self-defense;
  - 156 (ii) in defense of others;
  - 157 (iii) to protect the child; or
  - 158 (iv) to remove a weapon in the possession of a child for any of the reasons described in
  - 159 Subsections (8)(c)(i) through (iii).
