ENACTS:

59-2-1116, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 59-2-1116 is enacted to read:

59-2-1116. Definitions -- Exemption for property leased to government entities --

Application process -- Rulemaking authority.

(1) (a) (i) As used in this section, "claimant" means the owner of the eligible personal

28 property that is leased to an entity described in Subsection (2).

29 (ii) "Claimant" includes an agent of the owner under Subsection (1)(a)(i).

30 (b) "Eligible personal property" means machinery and equipment with an economic life
 31 of three or more years.

32 (c) "Long-term lease" means a lease with a term of one year or more.

33 (2) Subject to the other provisions of this part, eligible personal property is exempt
 34 from taxation when it is leased to the following entities through a long-term lease:

35 (a) the state;

36 (b) a school district ~~Š→ [; including a charter school under Title 53A, Chapter 1a, Part 5, The~~
 37 ~~Utah Charter Schools Act] or charter school ←Š ;~~

38 (c) a public library;

39 (d) a county;

40 (e) a city;

41 (f) a town;

42 (g) a local district;

43 (h) a special service district; or

44 (i) any other political subdivision of the state.

45 (3) If the eligible personal property that is leased under Subsection (2) is not leased to
 46 an entity described in Subsection (2) for an entire calendar year, the claimant shall pay a
 47 proportional tax based upon the number of days during the calendar year the eligible personal
 48 property did not qualify for an exemption under this section.

49 (4) A claimant shall apply annually for the exemption under this section unless the 50 application requirement is waived by the county board of equalization.

51 (5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), a claimant applying for an exemption
 52 under this section shall file an application with the county board of equalization on or before
 53 April 1 of the year in which the claimant is applying for the exemption.

54 (b) For a long-term lease entered into on or after March 1 of the year in which the 55 claimant is applying for the exemption, the claimant shall file an application with the county
 56 board of equalization within 30 days of entering into the long-term lease.

57 (6) The claimant shall submit the following information with the application described
 58 in Subsection (5):

59 (a) a copy of the lease agreement; and
60 (b) other evidence that the personal property is eligible for the exemption under this 61 section as required by rules established by:
62 (i) the commission under Subsection (8); or
63 (ii) the county to which the claimant is submitting the application.
64 (7) If, after the claimant submits an application under Subsection (5), the length of the 65 term of the lease changes, the claimant shall, within 30 days of the change, submit an amended
66 application, including a copy of the new lease agreement, to the county board of equalization.
67 (8) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the 68 commission may make rules to administer this section and provide for uniform
69 implementation.
70 Section 2. Contingent effective date.
71 This bill takes effect on January 1, 2017, if the amendment to the Utah Constitution
72 proposed by S.J.R. 3, Proposal to Amend Utah Constitution - Property Tax Exemptions, 2016
73 General Session, passes the Legislature and is approved by a majority of those voting on it at 74 the next regular general election.
