35 30-5a-103. Custody and visitation for persons other than a parent.

36 (1) In accordance with Section 62A-4a-201, it is the public policy of this state that 37 parents retain the fundamental right and duty to exercise primary control over the care, 38 supervision, upbringing, and education of their children. There is a rebuttable presumption that 39 a parent's decisions are in the child's best interests.

40 (2) A court may find the presumption in Subsection (1) rebutted and grant custodial or 41 visitation rights to a person other than a parent who, by clear and convincing evidence, has 42 established all of the following:

- 43 (a) the person has intentionally assumed the role and obligations of a parent;
- 44 (b) the person and the child have formed an emotional bond and created a parent-child 45 type relationship;
- 46 (c) the person contributed emotionally or financially to the child's well being;
- 47 (d) assumption of the parental role is not the result of a financially compensated 48 surrogate care arrangement;
- 49 (e) continuation of the relationship between the person and the child would be in the 50 child's best interests;
- 51 (f) loss or cessation of the relationship between the person and the child would be 52 detrimental to the child; and
- 53 (g) the parent:
  - 54 (i) is absent; or
  - 55 (ii) is found by a court to have abused or neglected the child.

56 (3) A proceeding under this chapter may be commenced by filing a verified petition, or

57 petition supported by an affidavit, in the juvenile court if a matter is pending, or in the district 58 court in the county in which the child:

59 (a) currently resides; or

60 (b) lived with a parent or a person other than a parent who acted as a parent within six 61 months before the commencement of the action.

62 (4) A proceeding under this chapter may be filed in a pending divorce, parentage 63 action, or other proceeding, including a proceeding in the juvenile court, involving custody of 64 or visitation with a child.

65 (5) The petition shall include detailed facts supporting the petitioner's right to file the 66 petition including the criteria set forth in Subsection (2) and residency information as set forth
67 in Section 78B-13-209.

68 (6) A proceeding under this chapter may not be filed against a parent who is actively 69 serving outside the state in any branch of the military.

70 (7) Notice of a petition filed pursuant to this chapter shall be served in accordance with 71 the rules of civil procedure on all of the following:

72 (a) the child's biological, adopted, presumed, declarant, and adjudicated parents;

73 (b) any person who has court-ordered custody or visitation rights;

74 (c) the child's guardian;

75 (d) the guardian ad litem, if one has been appointed;

76 (e) a person or agency that has physical custody of the child or that claims to have 77 custody or visitation rights; and

78 (f) any other person or agency that has previously appeared in any action regarding 79 custody of or visitation with the child.

80 (8) The court may order a custody evaluation to be conducted in any action brought 81 under this chapter.

82 (9) The court may enter temporary orders in an action brought under this chapter 83 pending the entry of final orders.

84 (10) Except as provided in Subsection (11), a court may not grant custody of a child 85 under this section to an individual who is not the biological or adoptive parent of the child and 86 who, before a custody order is issued, is convicted, pleads guilty, or pleads no contest to a 87 felony or attempted felony involving conduct that constitutes any of the following:

- 88           (a) child abuse, as described in Section 76-5-109;
- 89           (b) child abuse homicide, as described in Section 76-5-208;

- 97 Section 76-5-404.1;
- 98           (j) sexual exploitation of a minor, as described in Section 76-5b-201; or
- 99           (k) an offense in another state that, if committed in this state, would constitute an
- 100 offense described in this Subsection (10).
- 101           (11) (a) For purpose of this Subsection (11), "disqualifying offense" means an offense
- 102 listed in Subsection (10) that prevents a court from granting custody except as provided in this
- 103 Subsection (11).
- 104           (b) A person described in Subsection (10) may only be considered for custody of a
- 105 child if the following criteria are met by clear and convincing evidence:
- 106           (i) the person is a relative, as defined in Section 78A-6-307, of the child;
- 107           (ii) at least 10 years have elapsed from the day on which the person is successfully
- 108 released from prison, jail, parole, or probation related to a disqualifying offense;
- 109           (iii) during the 10 years before the day on which the person files a petition with the
- 110 court seeking custody the person has not been convicted, plead guilty, or plead no contest to an
- 111 offense greater than an infraction or traffic violation that would likely impact the health, safety,
- 112 or well-being of the child;
- 113           (iv) the person can provide evidence of successful treatment or rehabilitation directly
- 114 related to the disqualifying offense;
- 115           (v) the court determines that the risk related to the disqualifying offense is unlikely to
- 116 cause harm, as defined in Section 78A-6-105, or potential harm to the child currently or at any
- 117 time in the future when considering all of the following:
- 118           (A) the child's age;

- 120 (C) the child's development;
- 121 (D) the nature and seriousness of the disqualifying offense;
- 122 (E) the preferences of a child 12 years of age or older;
- 123 (F) any available assessments, including custody evaluations, parenting assessments, 124 psychological or mental health assessments, and bonding assessments; and
- 125 (G) any other relevant information;
- 126 (vi) the person can provide evidence of the following:
- 127 (A) the relationship with the child is of long duration;
- 128 (B) that an emotional bond exists with the child; and
- 129 (C) that custody by the person who has committed the disqualifying offense ensures the 130 best interests of the child are met;
- 131 (vii) (A) there is no other responsible relative known to the court who has or likely 132 could develop an emotional bond with the child and does not have a disqualifying offense; or
- 133 (B) if there is a responsible relative known to the court that does not have a 134 disqualifying offense, Subsection (11)(d) applies; and
- 135 (viii) that the continuation of the relationship between the person with the disqualifying 136 offense and the child could not be sufficiently maintained through any type of visitation if 137 custody were given to the relative with no disqualifying offense described in Subsection 138 (11)(d).
- 139 (c) The person with the disqualifying offense bears the burden of proof regarding why 140 placement with that person is in the best interest of the child over another responsible relative 141 or equally situated person who does not have a disqualifying offense.
- 142 (d) If, as provided in Subsection (11)(b)(vii)(B), there is a responsible relative known 143 to the court who does not have a disqualifying ~~offense~~ offense :

- 148 (A) an impartial custody evaluation shall be completed; and
- 149 (B) a guardian ad litem shall be assigned.

150           (12) Subsection (10) and (11) apply to a case pending on the effective date of this bill

389 (A) has a current background screening approval issued by the office under this 390 section; and

391 (B) is associated with the licensee or department contractor;

392 (d) the individual is the parent or guardian of the child, or the guardian of the 393 vulnerable adult;

394 (e) the individual is approved by the parent or guardian of the child, or the guardian of 395 the vulnerable adult, to have direct access to the child or the vulnerable adult; or

396 (f) the individual is only permitted to have direct access to a vulnerable adult who 397 voluntarily invites the individual to visit.

398 (10) An individual may not have direct access to a child or a vulnerable adult if the 399 individual is prohibited by court order from having that access.

400 (11) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an individual for whom the 401 office denies an application may not have supervised or unsupervised direct access to a child or 402 vulnerable adult unless the office approves a subsequent application by the individual.

403 (12) (a) Within 30 days after the day on which the office receives the background 404 check information for an applicant, the office shall give written notice to:

405 (i) the applicant, and the licensee or department contractor, of the office's decision 406 regarding the background check and findings; and

407 (ii) the applicant of any convictions and potentially disqualifying charges and 408 adjudications found in the search.

409 (b) With the notice described in Subsection (12)(a), the office shall also give the 410 applicant the details of any comprehensive review conducted under Subsection (6).

411 (c) If the notice under Subsection (12)(a) states that the applicant's application is 412 denied, the notice shall further advise the applicant that the applicant may, under Subsection 413 62A-2-111\(2\), request a hearing in the department's Office of Administrative Hearings, to 414 challenge the office's decision.

415 (d) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the 416 office shall make rules, consistent with this chapter:

417 (i) defining procedures for the challenge of its background check decision described in 418 Subsection (12)(c); and

419 (ii) expediting the process for renewal of a license under the requirements of this 420 section and other applicable sections.

421 (13) This section does not apply to a department contractor, or an applicant for an 422 initial license, or license renewal, regarding a substance abuse program that provides services 423 to adults only.

424 (14) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (14)(b), in addition to the other requirements 425 of this section, if the background check of an applicant is being conducted for the purpose of 426 licensing a prospective foster home or approving a prospective adoptive placement of a child in 427 state custody, the office shall:

428 (i) check the child abuse and neglect registry in each state where each applicant resided

429 in the five years immediately preceding the day on which the applicant applied to be a foster

431 adoptive parent is listed in the registry as having a substantiated or supported finding of child 432 abuse or neglect; and

433 (ii) check the child abuse and neglect registry in each state where each adult living in 434 the home of the applicant described in Subsection (14)(a)(i) resided in the five years
435 immediately preceding the day on which the applicant applied to be a foster parent or adoptive 436 parent, to determine whether the adult is listed in the registry as having a substantiated or 437 supported finding of child abuse or neglect.

438 (b) The requirements described in Subsection (14)(a) do not apply to the extent that:

439 (i) federal law or rule permits otherwise; or

440 (ii) the requirements would prohibit the Division of Child and Family Services or a 441 court from placing a child with:

442 (A) a noncustodial parent under Section 62A-4a-209, 78A-6-307, or 78A-6-307.5; or

445 (c) Notwithstanding Subsections (5) through (9), the office shall deny a license or a 446 license renewal to a prospective foster parent or a prospective adoptive parent if the applicant

543 released from prison, jail, parole, or probation related to a disqualifying offense;

544 (ii) during the 10 years before the day on which the person files a petition with the 562           (v) the person can provide evidence of all of the following:

563           (A) the relationship with the child is of long duration;
564           (B) that an emotional bond exists with the child; and

568           (A) a stepparent whose spouse is the adoptee's parent and consents to the adoption;

572 adoption with that person is in the best interest of the child over another responsible relative or 573 equally situated person who does not have a disqualifying offense.
574           (d) If there is an alternative responsible relative who does not have a disqualifying
575 offense filing an adoption petition, the following applies:
576           (i) preference for adoption shall be given to a relative who does not have a 577 disqualifying offense; and
578           (ii) before the court may grant adoption to the person who has the disqualifying offense 579 over another responsible, willing, and able relative:
580           (A) an impartial custody evaluation shall be completed; and 581           (B) a guardian ad litem shall be assigned.
582           (7) Subsections (5) and (6) apply to a case pending on the effective date of this bill for
