Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 4-5a-101 is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 5a. HOME CONSUMPTION AND FOOD REGULATION ACT

4-5a-101. Title.

This chapter is known as the "Home Consumption and Food Regulation Act."

Section 2. Section 4-5a-102 is enacted to read:

4-5a-102. Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter:

(1) (a) "Commercial establishment" means a wholesale or retail business that displays, sells, manufactures, processes, packs, holds, or stores food, drugs, devices, or cosmetics.

(b) "Commercial establishment" does not include a:

(i) direct-to-sale location; or

(ii) farmers market.

(2) "Direct-to-sale location" means a farm, ranch, farmers market, home, office, or any location agreed upon by both a producer and the informed end consumer where a producer sells a food or food product to an informed end consumer.

(3) "Farmers market" means a public or private facility or area where producers gather on a regular basis to sell fresh food, locally grown products, and other food items directly to a consumer.

(4) "Food product" means a substance that can be used, or prepared for use, as food or ~~non-alcoholic~~ drink.

(5) "Home consumption" means the use or ingestion of food or a food product within a private home by a family member, an employee, or a nonpaying guest.

(6) "Informed end consumer" means an individual who:

(a) is the last individual to purchase a product;

(b) does not resell the product; and

(c) has been informed that the product is not certified, licensed, regulated, or inspected by the state.

(7) "Producer" means a person who harvests or produces food or a food product.

Section 3. Section 4-5a-103 is enacted to read:

4-5a-103. Farmer-to-consumer direct sales -- Exempt from regulation.

(1) A producer is exempt from state, county, or city licensing, permitting, certification, inspection, packaging, and labeling requirements, ~~except as described in this section,~~ related to the preparation, serving, use, consumption, or storage of food and food products if:

(a) the producer complies with the requirements of this chapter; and

(b) the food or food product is:

(i) produced and sold within the state;

(ii) sold directly to an informed end consumer; ~~and~~

(iii) for home consumption~~;~~

~~(2); and~~

(iv) ~~non-potentially hazardous and does not require refrigeration, including pickled vegetables, spices, tea, nuts, seeds, honey, jam, jelly, granola, herb blends, fruit butter, candy, or other non-potentially hazardous food.~~

(2) Food or food products sold under this section shall be labeled with:

(a) the producer's name and address;

(b) a disclosure statement indicating that the product is:

(i) not for resale; and

(ii) processed and prepared without state or local inspection; and

(c) a statement listing whether the food or food product contains, or was prepared in a location that also handles, common allergens including milk, soy, wheat, eggs, peanuts, or tree nuts.

HB0277S01 compared with HB0277

(3) A producer selling food or food products under this section shall obtain a temporary or official food handler certificate before selling a food or food product to an informed end consumer.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (~~f2~~4)(b), food or a food product that is exempt from certain regulations as described in this chapter may not be sold to, or used by, a restaurant or commercial establishment.

(b) A producer may sell a raw, unprocessed fruit or vegetable to a restaurant or commercial establishment.

(~~f3~~5) A producer selling food or food products exempt under this section shall, before purchase, state to the informed end consumer that the food or food product is not certified, licensed, regulated, or inspected by the state or any county or city.

Section 4. Section 4-5a-104 is enacted to read:

4-5a-104. Limitations.

(1) Nothing in this chapter:

(a) shall be construed to impede the Department of Health in an investigation of food borne illness;

(b) prohibits a state agency from providing assistance, consulting, or inspecting when requested by a producer;

~~— (c) affects the registration of cottage food production operations as food establishments;~~ or

(~~f4~~c) affects the authority of the Department of Health or the Department of Agriculture and Food to certify, license, regulate, or inspect food or food products that are not exempt from certification, licensing, regulation, or inspection as described in this chapter.

(2) The department may not, by rule, impose an additional limit, requirement, or restriction on a producer selling food or a food product under this ~~fsection~~ chapter.

~~{ Section 5. Section 4-5a-105 is enacted to read:~~

~~— 4-5a-105. Meat exempted.~~

~~— This chapter does not apply to any meat, wild game, wild fish, or poultry, except the sale of poultry and poultry products consistent with this chapter and federal code and federal~~
