AMENDS:

35A-3-301, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2015, Chapter 221

35A-9-303, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2013, Chapter 59

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 35A-3-301 is amended to read:

28 35A-3-301. Purpose -- Legislative findings.

29 (1) The Legislature finds that:

30 (a) employment improves the quality of life for parents, children, and individuals by 31 increasing family income, developing job skills, and improving self-esteem; and

32 (b) the purpose of the cash assistance provided under this part is to assist a parent
33 recipient to obtain employment that is sufficient to sustain a family, to ensure the dignity of 34 those receiving assistance, [~~and~~] to prevent families with children from becoming homeless,
35 and to strengthen families.

36 (2) The Legislature recognizes that even with assistance, some recipients may be
37 unable to attain complete self-sufficiency.

38 Section 2. Section 35A-9-303 is amended to read:

39 35A-9-303. Purpose and duties of commission.

40 (1) The commission's purpose is to:

41 (a) collaborate in sharing and analyzing data and information regarding 42 intergenerational poverty in the state with a primary focus on data and information regarding 43 children who are at risk of continuing the cycle of poverty and welfare dependency unless 44 outside intervention is made;

45 (b) examine and analyze shared data and information regarding intergenerational
46 poverty, including the data provided by the intergenerational poverty report described in 47 Section 35A-9-201, to identify and develop effective and efficient plans, programs, and 48 recommendations to help at-risk children in the state;

49 (i) escape the cycle of poverty and welfare dependency; and

50 (ii) avoid homelessness;

51 (c) implement data-driven policies and programs addressing poverty, public assistance,
52 education, and other areas as needed to measurably reduce the incidence of children in the state
53 who remain in the cycle of poverty and welfare dependency as they become adults;

54 (d) establish and facilitate improved cooperation between state agencies down to the
55 case worker level in rescuing children from intergenerational poverty and welfare dependency;
56 and

57 (e) encourage participation and input from the Intergenerational Poverty Advisory
58 Committee established in Section 35A-9-304 and other community resources, including

59 academic experts, advocacy groups, nonprofit corporations, local governments, and religious 60 institutions in exploring strategies and solutions to help children in the state who are victims of 61 intergenerational poverty escape the cycle of poverty and welfare dependency.

62 (2) The commission shall:

63 (a) fulfill the commission's purposes as listed in Subsection (1);

64 (b) study, evaluate, and report on the status and effectiveness of policies, procedures,
65 and programs that provide services to children in the state affected by intergenerational poverty
66 and welfare dependency;

67 (c) study and evaluate the policies, procedures, and programs implemented by other 68 states and nongovernmental entities that address the needs of children affected by
69 intergenerational poverty and welfare dependency;

70 (d) (i) identify policies, procedures, and programs, including any lack of interagency
71 data sharing, lack of policy coordination, or current federal requirements, that are impeding
72 efforts to help children in the state affected by intergenerational poverty escape the poverty
73 cycle and welfare dependency; and

74 (ii) implement and recommend changes to those policies and procedures;

75 (e) create an ongoing five- and ten-year plan, which is updated annually, containing:

76 (i) measurable goals and benchmarks, including future action needed to attain those 77 goals and benchmarks, for:

78 (A) decreasing the incidence of intergenerational poverty among the state's children;

79 [~~and~~]

80 (B) reducing the number of children in the state who experience homelessness; and

81 (C) increasing the number of the state's children who escape the poverty cycle and 82 welfare dependency;

83 (ii) implement policy, procedure, and program changes to address the needs of children
84 affected by intergenerational poverty and help those children escape the poverty cycle and
85 welfare dependency, including, as available over time, data to track the effectiveness of each 86 change; and

87 (iii) recommend policy, procedure, and program changes to address the needs of 88 children affected by intergeneration poverty and to help those children escape the poverty cycle
89 and welfare dependency, including the steps that will be required to make the recommended

90 changes and whether further action is required by the Legislature or the federal government;

91 (f) ensure that each change and recommended change to a policy, procedure, or
92 program, which is made by the commission, is supported by verifiable data;

93 (g) protect the privacy of individuals living in poverty by using and distributing the 94 data it collects or examines in compliance with:

95 (i) federal requirements; and

96 (ii) the provisions of Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and 97 Management Act; and

98 (h) provide a forum for public comment and participation in efforts to help children in
99 the state escape the cycle of poverty and welfare dependency.

100 (3) To accomplish its duties, the commission may:

101 (a) request and receive from any state or local governmental agency or institution,
102 information relating to poverty in the state, including:

103 (i) reports;

104 (ii) audits;

105 (iii) data;

106 (iv) projections; and

107 (v) statistics; and

108 (b) appoint special committees, in addition to the advisory committee described in 109 Section 35A-9-304, to advise and assist the commission.

110 (4) (a) Members of a special committee described in Subsection (3)(b):

111 (i) shall be appointed by the commission;

112 (ii) may be:

113 (A) members of the commission; or

114 (B) individuals from the private or public sector; and

115 (iii) notwithstanding Section 35A-9-305, may not receive reimbursement or pay for 116 work done in relation to the special committee.

117 (b) A special committee described in Subsection (3)(b) shall report to the commission
118 on the progress of the special committee.
