19 Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

20           WHEREAS, the Lunar New Year will be celebrated by millions around the world on 21 January 28, 2017, to welcome the year of the rooster;

22           WHEREAS, the Lunar New Year is the most important annual holiday in many Asian
23 and Southeast Asian cultures, including Chinese, Korean, Vietnamese, and Mongolian cultures;

24           WHEREAS, the 15-day holiday is a time to reunite with family, recognize traditions,
25 honor ancestors, celebrate the past year, and invite good luck and prosperity for the coming
26 year;

27           WHEREAS, Lunar New Year celebrations promote beloved traditions including:

28 cleaning homes to prepare for the new year, family meals, giving children red envelopes
29 containing money, visiting relatives, lion dances, and religious ceremonies;

30 WHEREAS, over 45,000 people across the state represent cultures that celebrate the 31 Lunar New Year;

32 WHEREAS, people who represent these cultures have made significant contributions to 33 Utah for over 150 years;

34 WHEREAS, in the middle of the nineteenth century, many Chinese laborers came to 35 Utah to work on the Transcontinental Railroad and represented over 80% of the workforce that
36 completed the railroad at Promontory Point, Utah;

37 WHEREAS, many of these workers stayed in Utah after the railroad was finished in 38 1869 to start businesses and raise families in the state;

39 WHEREAS, descendants of these workers live in and contribute to Utah to this day;

40 WHEREAS, thousands of southeast Asians came to Utah in the 1970s seeking asylum
41 and became important members of Utah's workforce and business owner community;

42 WHEREAS, many people from Asia have come to Utah to study at its institutions of 43 higher education and have remained in the state, providing valuable knowledge and skills to the 44 state;

45 WHEREAS, over 7,500 Utah students are enrolled in the Utah Chinese Dual Language
46 Immersion Program where, in addition to language instruction, they have the opportunity to 47 learn about Chinese art and culture;

48 WHEREAS, the more than 4,500 Asian-owned businesses in the state have sales of 49 over $1 billion and employ more than 12,000 people;

50 WHEREAS, Asian immigrants in Utah earn approximately $1.3 billion in income and 51 pay $311.8 million in taxes per year;

52 WHEREAS, Utah has a proud tradition of welcoming newcomers and recognizes that
53 they bring with them opportunities for greater diversity in Utah's communities and economy;

54 WHEREAS, Utah's Asian community has shared its many varieties of art, cuisine, and 55 music and has enriched the lives of all the state's residents; and

56 WHEREAS, Utahns of every race, color, creed, religion, and ethnicity will come
57 together to celebrate the Lunar New Year in many locations across the state on January 28,
58 2017:

59           NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah
60 recognizes the 2017 Lunar New Year and expresses admiration for and appreciation of the 61 social, economic, and educational contributions of the people and cultures that celebrate the 62 holiday, enriching our community.
